THE FAMILY OF C10-HANNAH GRIPE & DANIEL MARTIN,SR.

Hannah Gripe, daughter of Jacob Greib,Sr. and Elizabeth Ulrich was probably born 1765-1769 in Frederick County, Maryland. She moved with her parents to Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, where she married Daniel Martin,Sr. in about 1786. *Daniel was born 21 January 1762 in Maryland to Nicholas Martin and Susanna Ulrich(?). In about 1810 they relocated in Madison Township, Montgomery County, Ohio. Daniel died in Montgomery County in 1824, and Hannah died there in 1827. There are seven children listed for them: David, Elizabeth, Susanna, Hannah, Mary, Daniel, and Catharine.
*Daniel's birth is recorded in the Bible records of Nicklaus Martin, who was born in Ziesselberg in 1721.

C10-1-Hannah Martin was born about 1812 in Montgomery County, Ohio, and married John Colgan there on 7 December 1832. Little is known about John Colgan, who is estimated to be born about 1810. From the Darke County, Ohio Deed Records, we find them disposing of property formerly owned by David Martin on 3 and 30 October 1833. Hannah is located in Madison Township, Montgomery County, in the 1840 census. There are 3 children in the household, a female 20-30(Hannah) and no adult male.

Child of Ernest McVitty Snare and Matilda Charlson is:

19 i. Vernice Snare was born JUN 1897 in Illinois, and died UNKNOWN.

High Prices May Cause Illness

At this season of the year when fresh vegetables are so high many persons suffer from deranged digestion. If you feel dull and sluggish or if you suspect indigestion or constipation you will feel better tomorrow if you take a Foley Cathartic Tablet tonight. They banish biliousness and headache.

F. D. Christian, Druggist.

BELLEFONTAINE COUNTRY CLUB

The Bellefontaine Country club has been reorganized with fifty paid members and the northern half of the Trout farm of thirty-seven acres has been purchased. The farm is located at the Jewel hill stop four miles south of that city just off West Liberty pike. There are seven acres of woods with a creek winding through it.

DO SCHOOL BOOKS INJURE A CHILD'S EYES?

It is the opinion of competent medical authorities that a child's eyes are seldom matured enough to do the work that their school study calls for. If your child's eyes are being strained they should at once be fitted with the proper glasses.

Mrs Christena Dormire and little son, is visiting her two brothers, one living near Kirkwood and the other near Hardin.

On last Thursday E. J. Neal came near a serious accident while cutting timber, by a falling limb striking the saw he was using.

Joseph Weaner and Misses Alice and Sadie Hall, of Sidney, were visiting the family of David Dormire on last Saturday and Sunday.

George Kah and Henry Young, of Sidney, came out to David Dormire's one day last week with their guns and took in ten rabbits.

The next session of the Green township Sabbath School Convention will be held at the M. E. church in Plattsville on Sunday, the 10th of February. The afternoon meeting will be held at 2 o'clock; the evening meeting at 6:30. The welcome address, by H. Brelsford; address by Elder Strait, subject; "Is it necessary to be a participent to derive any benefit from the Sabbath school?" discussion opened by M. Bennett. The meeting will be interpersed with music and five minutes speeches both afternoon and evening.

Elisha Yost, Esq., will go to Washington City, D. C., during the present week, and while gone will visit his aged father and other relatives in Virginia, whom he has not seen for twenty-seven years.

William Pacarney and Dan Kizer, of Fletcher, with each a charming piece of alapaca gingham, spent last Sabbath with Miss Rettie Wooley. Miss Rettie is in luck, as a select party of young folks passed a very pleasant evening with her on last Saturday night.

LEATHERWOOD.

OBITUARY.

William H., son of Mathias and Sarah Albright, departed this life at his father's residence in Franklin Township, Shelby County, Tuesday morning, Jan. 8, 1884, aged 28 years, 5 months and 9 days. William was an excellent young man much loved and respected by all who knew him. He will be greatly missed by his father's family, and though they sorrow, their loss is his eternal gain, for just before his departure he called father and sister to his bedside and made them promise to meet him over on that golden shore

But though earth's fairest blossoms die
And all beneath the skies is vain,
There is a land, whose confines lie
Beyond the reach of care and pain.

√ B. F. T. √

Mrs. Elizabeth Gump, wife of George Gump, of Port Jefferson, born in Montgomery county, O., August 27, 1833, died January 11, 1884. Her age was 50 years, 4 months and 15 days. The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church on Sabbath, January 13, the church being filled to its utmost. The 103 psalm was read, prayer offered, funeral songs sung and the remains laid away to await the coming morning, when all that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the Son of God and come forth. Our friend and neighbor, George Gump, one son and two daughters mourn their sad loss. The departed one was so attentive and kind that her departure to them is indeed a sad bereavement. God help them to so live here that they may meet their dear one in the better land. JOHN BATES.

When you buy a newspaper, whether you pay a cent, two cents, five cents, or ten cents for it, you get more for your money than you do when buying anything else in the world. We mean the average newspaper. A newspaper is not only the cheapest form of literature in the world. It costs from fifty cents to a dollar to get a seat at the theater; and one of these sums, generally the latter, you often pay to see a performance that you don't get as much pleasure and actual benefit from as you would in reading a single copy of a good journal that costs all the way from one cent to ten. Any sort of dinner costs fifty cents, and it is no trouble at all, if you smoke, to spend a dollar for cigars. The man who drinks knows with what facility he gets rid of a quarter for two "cocktails," the pleasurable and beneficial effect which is often a matter of serious doubt with him.

To put the voice in good order for recitation, speaking or singing, eat a well beaten egg raw, with which a teaspoonful of compound tincture of cinnamon has been mixed.

Notice.

S. K. Williams, administrator of the estate of Henry Morris, deceased, vs. A. J. Cory, administrator of the estate of Joseph W. Morris, deceased, Martha Morris, Esther Morris, William Kincaid and Jenetta Kincaid, defendants.

ANN AUGUSTA CORY, Francis M. Cory and John D. Cory, who reside in Cook county, State of Illinois, heirs of Lydia Cory, deceased, will take notice that S. K. Williams, administrator, with the will annexed of the estate of Henry Morris, deceased, on the 8th day of December, 1883, filed his petition in the Probate Court within and for the County of Shelby, and State of Ohio, alleging that the personal estate of said decedent is insufficient to pay his debts and the charges of administering his estate; that he died seized in fee simple of the following described real estate, situate in said county, to-wit: The east part of the southeast quarter (excepting one acre for cemetary purposes out of the southeast corner) of section one (1), town two (2), range thirteen (13), M. R. S., containing one hundred and thirteen acres, more or less; and also, in the same county and state, in the town of New Palestine, the following described real estate, viz: The southwest corner of in-lot number twenty-seven (27), running north along the line thirty (30) feet, thence east twenty (20) feet, thence south thirty (30) feet, thence west twenty (20) feet, to the place of beginning, being the ground that the blacksmith shop of Samuel Johnson stands upon; and that said William Kincaid and Jenetta Kincaid have a mortgage lien upon said premises of about fifteen hundred dollars.

The prayer of said petitioner is for the sale of said premises for the payment of debts and charges aforesaid. The persons above named will further take notice that they have been made parties defendant to said petition, and they are required to answer the same on or before the 19th day of January, 1884.

The said cause will be for hearing on the 2d day of January, 1884.

[173-6t.] S. K. WILLIAMS,
Adm'r, with the will annexed of Henry Morris, deceased.

Everybody's Doctor.
BY ROBERT A. GUNN, M. D.
Everybody's Doctor contains 684 octavo pages, and is printed on fine paper and is handsomely bound. It is sold at the low price of three (3.00) dollars a copy, so as to bring it within the reach of all.
The work differs from all other books on Domestic Medicine in having the diseases systematic arranged according to their classification. Everything is described in the plainest possible language, and the prescriptions are written out in plain English, so that they be employed by any intelligent reader

Dear Gwen,

Your last letter, to Betty Bevans, was handed to me and I responded. The most recent one was again forwarded to me as Betty does not do any genealogical research.

In regard to Elizabeth Colyens, who m. George Gump, I found a brief and not too informative obit about her. I also looked for one for George and it was even less informative. Copy of the one about Elizabeth enclosed.

Since they were m. 1852, it seemed there should have been a Colyens, some kind of spelling, in the 1850 census showing her with her parents. I was unable to find any in Shelby County. I looked at the original marriage record and it was plainly "Colyens."

There was a notation that the groom was underage but no record of either party's parents.

There are no M.E. church records for the years you would need that I know of.

I noticed you had a query in one of the issues of SHELBYANA, wanting to know about the parents of George Gump. Are you aware of the guardianship which names George, b. 1831, as the son of Sarah Gump? Dated 2 Nov 1835, the children are John, 8 years; Benjamin, 5 years; George, 4 years; and May, aged 2 years. They may be the children of George Gump, who d. 13 May 1835, 32 years. I also noticed you had given William and Sarah.

Sincerely,

Barbara

Chronicle Tribune, Marion, Indiana, Monday 9 December 1957.

Mrs. Margaret Belle Dunn Clapper, 69, wife of Clyde Clapper, who retired one year ago as the Manager of the Marion store of the Guarantee Auto Supply, died at 4:50 a.m. today at her home on North Jonesboro River Road. She had been seriously ill for one week.

Born in Hot Springs, N.C. Mrs. Clapper had been a resident here since 1902, coming here from Jonesboro, Tennessee. She was a member of the Council 10 Daughters of America.

The body was taken to 911 S. Washington Street in Marion, where funeral rites will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, the Rev. Jessie Craig, pastor of the Apostolic Friends Church will officiate. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery, Gas City, Indiana. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. today.

In addition to the husband, survivors are a son, Robert, of Jonesboro; 4 grandchildren; 2 great grandchildren; 5 brothers, Sam & Joe Dunn of Tennessee; Porter & John Dunn of St. Petersburg, Florida and Thomas Dunn of Hutto, Texas.

Schneeberger on North Miami ave. with Mrs. T. J. Emley and Miss Lillian Hoskins assisting in extending hospitalities.

Because of illness only about half of the members could be present but they enjoyed very much the interesting program on Bolshevikism which was led by Miss Ida Hall. Mrs. Jesse Laughlin read a splendid paper on Bolshevism in New York.

The election of officers resulted in the reelection of Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson as president of the department and Miss Lillian Hoskins as secretary.

The Department decided to help a needy family of the city by making a comfort and this planned to be done Friday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson. Mrs. W. O. Amann, the President of the City Federation sent in a request that each member donate something to the Rummage sale which will be held in the near future. The articles are to be brought to the next meeting which will be in two weeks with Mrs. O. S. Kenny. The committee appointed to see that each member is told, was Mrs. T. J. Emley, Mrs Dan Toy and Mrs. Kenny.

The hostesses served refreshments during the social hours. Mrs. M. F. Keith and Miss Florence Wyman were guests.

DEATH OF AN AGED LADY

The beautiful life of an aged lady ended at eight o'clock Thursday evening when Mrs. Rose Anna Cargill passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edd McVay. She had been ill three weeks with sickness brought on by her age. For the past year she had made her home in this city with Sheriff and Mrs. McVay and was in the eighty-first year of life. Almost all of those years were spent in Jackson Center where she was greatly loved for her kind and helpful way of living. During her girlhood she united with the Methodist church and was always an active member.

Her maiden name was Rose Anna Colgan and her marriage to Oliver Cargill took place August 12, 1860. They were blessed with four children, of whom Mrs. Edd McVay is the only one living. The three who preceded her in death were Mrs. Elmer Davis, Miss Clara Cargill and Allen Cargill. Her husband died two years ago.

Four grandchildren survive her with her only daughter—Miss Bess McVay, of Cleveland, Lewis McVay, of Providence, R. I., Harry Davis, of Lake Placid, N. Y., and Miss Mildred Davis.

The funeral services will be held from the McVay home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The remains will be laid to rest in the Port Jefferson cemtery.

WANTED—Salesman for established tea and coffee route, man with automobile preferred. See Mr. Childers, 126 south Franklin avenue.

Funeral Saturday Morning

The funeral services of Joseph Woolley, who died at his home at No. 819 west Market street, Lima, Wednesday, will be held at his home in that city Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment at Woodlawn cemetery mausoleum.

Miss Mary Henderson spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Leonard Petty on Highland avenue.

Pimento, Nippy, Neuchatel, Roquefort and brick cheese at the Arcade grocery.

OWNERSHIP

A telegram was received Friday telling of the death of Mrs. Geo. S. Crusey at her home in Muncie, Indiana, at one o'clock a. m. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon.

DEATH OF AN AGED LADY

C24-243

The beautiful life of an aged lady ended at eight o'clock Thursday evening when Mrs. Mary Anna Carroll passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kirk McVay. She had been ill three weeks with sickness brought on by her age. For the past year she had made her home in this city with Mr. and Mrs. McVay. Mrs. McVay [illegible] was in her eighty-sixth year of life. Almost all of those years were spent in Jackson Center where she was greatly loved for her kind and helpful way of living. During her girlhood she united with the Methodist church and was always an active member.

Her maiden name was Mary Anna Colgate and her marriage to Oliver Carroll took place August 11, 1854. They were blessed with four children of whom Mrs. Kirk McVay is the only one living. The three who preceded her in death were Mrs. [illegible] Davis, Miss Clara Carroll and Alva Carroll. Her husband died two years ago.

Four grandchildren survive her with her only daughter. They are Miss Ross McVay, of Cleveland, Lewis McVay of Providence, R. I., Harry Davis of Lake Placid, N. Y., and Miss Mildred Davis.

The funeral services will be held from the McVay home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The remains will be laid to rest in the Fort Jefferson cemetery.

Funeral Saturday Morning

The funeral services of Joseph Wagner, who died at his home at No. 419 east Market street, Thursday, will be held at his home at that place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment at Woodlawn cemetery, Wapakoneta.

Miss Mary Henderson spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Clement [illegible] on Michigan avenue.

HONOR MEMBER BY MAKING RESOLUTION

Piqua Rotary Club Expresses Regret at Removal of Thomas J. Appleyard Jr.

At the last meeting of the Piqua Rotary club a committee was appointed to draw up resolutions expressing the sincere regret of every member of the club at the loss of Thomas J. Appleyard. The resolutions are as follows :

Be it resolved that the Piqua Rotary club convey, through its secretary, to the Newark Chamber of Commerce and Rotary club the keen regret we feel in losing the companionship of Mr. Thomas J. Appleyard, who has been untiring in his activities and support of all movements for the welfare of our city.

His enthusiasm, optimism and public spirit together with his sound character have cemented Mr. Appleyard to us in such a way that his leaving Piqua causes sincere regret, not only among Rotarians but among all the people of the city.

Signed,

J. L. BLACK,
R. S. BARTLETT,

PASSES FROM WORLD TO HIS FINAL REST

Samuel Clinton Nead Dies After Illness Since July—Funeral Sunday Morning.

Mr. Samuel Clinton Nead, aged 67 years and 5 months, died yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at his home, one mile west of Piqua, on the Clayton pike. He had been ill since last July.

Shelby county had been Mr. Nead's home all his life until five years ago when he moved near Piqua. His widow and seven children survive. The children are Mrs. Rose Davis, Mrs. Lulu Shaffer, Mrs. Blanche Humble and Mr. Carl Nead, of Sidney; Miss Cora Nead, Mr. Fred and Mr. Harry Nead, residing at home.

Short funeral services will be held at the house at 9:30 Sunday morning after which the body will be taken to Pasco where services will be held at the church there are 11:30. Rev. Rittenhouse will officiate.

POLICE COURT.

Noble Ortman and a companion were arested by the Piqua police last evening for Troy authorities. The boys had come here to attend the Piqua-Troy basket ball game. They were wanted for speeding in Troy.

NOTE:

Found a marriage for Mary to a George Wales
23 Sept. 1869 Noble Co, Ind. Ref. - 2-234
I don't believe this is our Mary.
Mary and James Ackerman and 4 children
Were in Steuben Co in 1880.
In 1900 their dau. Daisy was in Steuben county with husband Oliver Benfer. Oliver's father was also with them and was a widow.
Roots Webb had Mary married to Henry Benfer,
Oliver's father?
This could be - James Ackerman died after 1880 and Mary married Henry Benfer. Then
Mary died before 1900.

We were unable to find George Wales anywhere in the census. If she did marry him the marriage date is not correct.

Kinsey, Samuel, was born in Noble County, Ind., died Dec. 28, 1928, aged 78yr. His wife Mary A. Judd Kinsey was born in Adams County, Ind, and died Dec. 24, 1928, aged 74yr 2mo and 22 da. She had been failing in health several weeks, and a week previous to her death contracted influenza, resulting in death. Bro. Kinsey also had contracted the disease a few days previous. The double funeral service was held Dec. 27, at the Pleasant Dale church by the undersigned, assisted by S. L. Cover. They were laid to rest in the same grave. They leave 6 children 20 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. They united with the Church of the Brethren in their early married life at the Blue River church and had lived all these years in the service of the master.

Death of Phillip Pound.

Phillip Pound, who resided a few miles northeast of this place, died on Thursday last, very suddenly. It is supposed that his death was caused by heart-failure; at any rate, he dropped dead. Mr. Pound was an old pioneer of this county, and was well known to many of its people. He was a well-informed man, having read much, and remembering whatever he perused. Genial, affable and gentlemanly in his treatment of his neighbors, it was not strange that he possessed many friends, or that those who knew him best esteemed him the most highly. He was about seventy-five years of age and his remains were interred in the cemetery at Leesburg on Friday. Thus, one by one, we are paying the debt that is the common lot of all mankind—a debt that no one has ever yet been known to escape paying to its uttermost farthing. Mr. Pound will be missed by many from his old home, and we extend our sincerest sympathies to all who are specially called to mourn over his departure to the Great Hereafter.

JOHN F. POUND.

The gentleman to whom attention is directed in this review has attained pronounced prestige by reason of his social and commercial high standing in Kosciusko county, and also as an official of his township. Mr. Pound is one of the representative men of Plain township and for some years past has been prominently identified with the industrial and business interests of Kosciusko county. He takes a deep and abiding interest in everything pertaining to the material advancement of the township in publican party, to which he has given much of his energies and from which, as already stated, he has received marks of favor. He enters into political work with the same force and energy that characterize his efforts in business affairs. He stands well with the opposition and numbers among his closest personal friends and warmest admirers many who are as radically Democratic as he is Republican. Fraternally he is a member of St. Leon Lodge, No. 192, K. of P., of Leesburg, in which he stands high.

Mr. Pound was united in marriage at Oswego, Indiana, September 24, 1884, the lady of his choice being Miss Sarah J. Denman, a native of this county who was born August 31, 1850. She is a daughter of Rev. Abner and Harriet M. (Wade) Denman, who were both natives of Ohio, though among the early settlers of Kosciusko county. Rev. Denman was previously married, while in Ohio, to Sarah J. Crane, who bore him one child, Abner C., who died in infancy. This wife lived only about one year after their marriage, then passed to the other world. Subsequently Rev. Denman came to Kosciusko county and settled in Oswego, where he met and married Miss Wade. He was a Baptist minister and had charge of the Oswego church and also the church at Warsaw for a number of years before his death, which occurred April 20, 1852. His widow subsequently married William Gunter and at present resides in Plain township. Two children were born to her union with Rev. Denman, Sarah J. and Mariah E. Mrs. Pound was educated in the public schools of this county and at the Shepardson College at Granville, Ohio, from which institution she graduated in 1882. She began teaching school when nineteen years of age and taught consecutively until 1888, with the exception of four years spent in the Shepardson College. Mrs. Pound is a consistent member of the Baptist church, in which she has been a member since her seventeenth year. She is at present postmistress of Oswego, having received the appointment at the time her husband resigned in 1898, and has held the office ever since. To Mr. and Mrs. Pound have been born two children, Philip Harold, born June 8, 1888, and Adria Athena, September 16, 1895. Both are bright and promising children and stand at the head of their classes in school, the elder having graduated from the common schools of his district in 1901. Mr. and Mrs. Pound are refined and congenial people and are highly esteemed by all who have had the good fortune to meet them.

GARBER

Thomas A. Garber was born Sept. 14, 1869, departed this life Nov. 8, 1915, aged forty six years, one month, and twenty-four days.

He was united in marriage to Malinda Martin Feb. 2, 1892. To this union were born two children, both dying in infancy.

The deceased was the oldest of a family of thirteen children born to Henry C. and Sarah E. Garber, of whom four brothers and five sisters are now living, one sister and two brothers having preceded him into the spirit world.

In his last sickness his suffering was great but he bore it patiently believing his time had come to go, he made such arrangements as were possible for his departure.

He was taken suddenly ill only a few days ago and was taken to Rochester and operated upon for appendicitis. Parotinitis causing his death. The remains were shipped to Bunker Hill, Wednesday morning, and taken to Nead where funeral services conducted by Rev. Carpenter, of Logansport, were held, and burial in the Metzger cemetery.

JOSEPH F. MARTIN

Joseph F. Martin, of rural route 7, died at 5 o'clock Monday morning at the railroad hospital, his death following an illness of six weeks with heart trouble and pneumonia. The body was taken to the Drake funeral home for burial preparation and on Monday evening was taken to the family home on West River road, where the funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, Rev. A. H. Backus officiating. Interment will be in Mount Hope cemetery.

The deceased, for the past eight years, had been employed as a machinist helper at the C. & O. railroad shops. He was a member of the Moose lodge and of the Ben-Hur lodge. He also held membership in the machinists' and helpers' union.

He was a son of David and Anna (Puterbaugh) Martin and was born in Miami county, January 3, 1873, his age being 56 years, 7 months and 29 days. Surviving is the widow, Mrs. Anna Martin, and the following children: Mrs. Charlotte North of Detroit; Mrs. Pearl Reckner, of Chicago; Mrs. Florence DeHaven, of Peru, and Harry Martin, of Peru. Surviving also are three grandchildren, one brother, Charles L. Martin, of Wabash, and one sister, Mrs. Lavina Engleman, of Warsaw.

A Lamentable Death.

Edward H. Malott, an employe of the Lake Erie shops, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home on West Sixth street, of strangulation of the bowels, aged 29 years. He was taken ill on Sunday last and whether or not his affliction was the result of a strain, is not known, but it is supposed that it resulted from lifting a stove. He leaves a wife and three children to survive him. The funeral will occur at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. J. H. Jackson. His sister, Mrs. Carter and husband of Wabash, are in the city, and his father, Thomas Malott, of Marion, and brothers, Frank of Lexington, Ky., Harry of Marion, and Charles, of Chicago, besides other relatives are expected in the city to-morrow to attend the funeral.

The remains can be viewed from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Sunday.

ICE FISHING TRIP ENDS IN TRAGEDY

William Malott, 44, Drowned Sunday at Hawk Lake; Funeral Wednesday.

Despite the heroic efforts of two companions to effect his rescue, William Malott, age 44, a workman employed here on a federal relief project, was drowned early Sunday afternoon at Hawk lake where he broke through rotten ice while on a fishing expedition. The lake is adjacent to Lake Maxinkuckee, at Culver.

Malott, who resided at 15 East Second street, was in the company of Earl Kellar, 38, of 478 East Fifth street, and Henderson (Lefty) Sheets, 48, of 268 West Fifth street. Sheets escaped a similar fate when he managed to make his way to the shore after breaking through the ice.

Final rites for Malott were conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Drake funeral home with the Rev. Robert Ashman, First Brethren church pastor, in charge. Burial was in Corinth cemetery, four miles west of Mexico.

Were Leaving Lake

The Peru men had driven to the upstate lake early Sunday and had spent the morning fishing through the ice near another group of Peru men. After the second group left, the trio decided to return to Keller's car and come home or go to another lake to continue fishing. Although Keller indicated to his companions that the ice appeared to be unsafe,

About 150 feet from the lake shore the ice about Sheets, who was a few feet ahead of Malott, began to crack and he fell into the water just as Malott, the heavier of the two, went down into a five-foot depth. Sheets did not lose his presence of mind and slowly made his way in the icy water to the bank. Malott apparently was dazed and began to struggle.

"I knew it would be foolhardy for me to go out on the ice," Keller said, "and so I yelled to Malott to stop struggling and started to run to a nearby farmhouse. The farmer sensed what had happened and ran to meet me carrying a rope. In the meantime Sheets had tried to reach Malott with a pole, but it was impossible.

Slumps Under Water.

"We threw the rope and it struck immediately beside Malott, but apparently his strength was so sapped that he could not lift his arms to grasp it. A moment later his head slumped in the water with just the top part showing above the surface," Keller said.

Malott died in an upright position; his feet were buried in the mucky bottom. Both Sheets and Keller agreed that had not Malott spent his strength in useless struggles, he might have been removed from the shallow water safely. A pulmotor was rushed to the scene from Culver, but efforts to revive the stricken man were futile.

Aside from bruises on his arms and legs, received when he fought his way through the broken ice, Sheets did not suffer ill effects from his experience. Keller was only slightly wet.

Malott was born in Indianapolis on June 15, 1893, a son of the late Edward and Lavina Malott. He was united in marriage with Geneva Lunsford in 1920 and was a world war veteran. Surviving besides the widow are a daughter, Geraldine, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Eva Scott, Mexico, and

Mrs Howard Fincher, Peru

William Maleit, 44, Drowned Sunday at Hawk Lake; Funeral Wednesday

Despite the heroic efforts of two companions to effect his rescue, William Maleit, age 44, a workman employed here on a federal relief project, was drowned early Sunday afternoon at Hawk lake where he broke through water-soaked ice while on a fishing expedition. The lake is adjacent to Lake Maxinkuckee, at Culver.

Maleit, who resided at 12 East Second street, was in the company of Carl Keller, 38, of 418 East Fifth street, and Theodore (Early) Shoots, 40, of 502 West Fifth street. Shoots escaped a similar fate when he managed to make his way to the shore after breaking through the ice.

Final rites for Maleit were conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the Crane Funeral home with the Rev. Robert Ashmann, First Lutheran church pastor, in charge. Burial was in Corliss cemetery, four miles west of [illegible].

When Leaving Lake

The three men had driven to the Culver lake early Sunday and had spent the morning fishing through the ice near another group of Peru men. After the second group left, the trio decided to return to Keller's car and were going to go to another lake to continue fishing. Although Keller indicated to his companions that the ice appeared to be unsafe,

About 150 feet from the lake shore the ice about Shoots, who was a few feet ahead of Maleit, began to crack and he fell into the water just as Maleit, the heavier of the two, went down into a ten-foot depth. Shoots did not lose his presence of mind and slowly made his way in the icy water to the bank. Maleit apparently was dazed and began to struggle.

"I knew it would be foolhardy for me to go out on the ice," Keller said, "and so I yelled to Maleit to stop struggling and started to run to a nearby farmhouse. The farmer sensed what had happened and ran to meet me carrying a rope. In the meantime Shoots had tried to reach Maleit with a pole, but it was impossible.

Shoots Reaches Water

"We threw the rope and it struck immediately beside Maleit, but apparently his strength was so sapped that he could not lift his arm to grasp it. A moment later his head slumped in the water with just the top part showing above the surface," Keller said.

Maleit sank in an upright position—his feet were buried in the mucky bottom. ! A biographical sketch in Darke County, Ohio page 700 states tha following: DAVID PUTERBAYGH, farmer, Sec. 7; P.O. New Madison; a son of Abraham Puterbaugh, an old settler of German Township; the subject of this sketch was born in German Township Sept. 8, 1851; remained at home with his parents, receiving such education as the common-schools afforded, until Oct. 26, 1872. He was married to Margaret Mackey; she was born in Jay Co., Ind., March 15, 1851; after his marriage, he rented a house and a part of his father's farm, where they remained until the spring of 1878; they then removed to the farm where they now live; they have four children, viz., Mary E., Martha J., George D. A., and Harvey C. Mr. Puterbaugh, though a young man, is a lifetime-resident of Darke Co., and will probably remain a resident of Butler Township.

Clyde and Betty Mae (Pound) Bair

Although the Bair family has roots reaching into Ohio and northeastern Indiana, Clyde Bair (surname spelling was changed from Bear in 1860) was born in Minnesota in 1914, and returned to Indiana in 1933. He resided in the Leesburg area for several years and moved to Warsaw in 1938.

In February, 1939, he was married to Betty Mae Pound of the Oswego area. Betty was the oldest child of Merl and Jessie (Rosbrugh) Pound. Loren J. Pound, a brother, continues to reside on the "Family Farm," and a sister, Evelyn (Pound) Fawley is deceased. Betty is the granddaughter of Jacob H. Pound, whose half brother, John, owned and operated the grocery store and Post Office in Oswego. The building has subsequently been used as a museum for the Kosciusko County Historical Society.

Clyde and Betty Bair continued to reside in Warsaw where a son, Roger Allen, was born in 1942. In 1943, the family returned to the Oswego farm to aid in its operations, which was as so many others, affected by the war. After various employment in Warsaw, the Bair family moved into the town of Leesburg in 1950, where Clyde and Betty continue to reside. After establishing residence in Leesburg, Betty Bair was employed as secretary-treasurer for the Leesburg School. She continued in that position for twelve years, retiring in 1964.

Clyde Bair was employed by Hull's Transfer
Co in 1950 & became owner later

Roger Allen Bair and Sally L.

Albert in 1964. Sally is the daughter of Herschel and Helen Albert who farmed successfully east of Leesburg for many years. Roger and Sally moved to Ypsilanti, Michigan in 1964, where he was employed by General Motors Corporation. He returned to Warsaw in 1973 to assist his father in the operation of Hull's Transfer Company.

Roger and Sally reside in the Rolling Hills addition to the city of Warsaw, and have three sons enrolled in the Warsaw Community Schools.

Brant A. Bair was born in Goshen, Indiana in 1969; Aaron S. Bair was born in Ypsilanti, Michigan in 1971; and Shane A. Bair was born in Warsaw, Indiana in 1975. Roger is currently employed by Yellow Freight System, Inc. Clyde Bair, Leesburg, Indiana

Loren and Jo Ann (Reed) Pound

Philip J. Pfund was born in Wurtenburg, Germany on May 16, 1815 and immigrated to America with his parents when four years of age. They settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania where Philip grew to maturity. He became a naturalized citizen in 1838 and some time later changed his ancestral name to Pound. He traveled to Montgomery County, Ohio in 1839, and there met and married Rosanna Martin who was a native of that state. He purchased 80 acres of land on the Troy Pike about seven miles north of Dayton, and resided there for a number of years.

Philip and Rosanna were the parents of three children, Mary C., John F., and Sarah Ellen. Rosanna died in 1853, and later Philip married Anna Wolf, while still living near Dayton. This marriage produced one son, Jacob H. Pound, grandfather of Loren J. Pound.

In 1859, Philip moved his family to Elkhart, Indiana where he purchased 100 acres of land near Goshen, Indiana.

In 1870, Philip sold his interest in Elkhart County and moved his family to Kosciusko County, purchasing 120 acres near Oswego on which he resided until his death in 1891. Philip was a good Republican, and it was said that he moved from Goshen to get away from the Democrats.

Ellen Pound, Philip's daughter, never married. She lived for a number of years on her own farm located three miles northeast of Warsaw.

John F. Pound served as trustee of Plain Township, and was postmaster and proprietor of the "John Pound Store" in Oswego for more than 30 years. John F. Pound was married to Sarah J. Denman and they were the parents of a son, P. Harold, and a daughter, Adria A. Harold married Flossa Davis, and in 1967 they deeded the John Pound Store building to the Kosciusko County Historical Society. Adria married William A. Orr, and they are the parents of Sarah Ellen, who married John E. Buhrt, and William F., who married Elizabeth "Betty" Lou Goshorn.

Jacob H. Pound married Nancy Ellen Bowman, and together they owned 147 acres one-quarter mile south of Oswego, where they lived for several years, and where Merl Pound was born in 1884. Upon Philip's death in 1891, Jacob H. Pound bought his brother and sister's share of 133 acres. At this time Jacob moved his family to the original farmhouse on the 133 acres. They rebuilt the house, built a scale barn which was used by neighbors for weighing grain, and also built new barns. These buildings are all in use today. The second son, Howard W. Pound, was born in 1896. Jacob and Nancy lived on the farm until some time around 1914, moving to Warsaw where Jacob died in 1937.

Merl Pound married Jessie Rosbrugh in 1911, and to this family were born: Betty Mae in 1916, Evelyn in 1921 (now deceased), and Loren J. in 1933. The farm by this time was 300 acres. His wife, Jessie, died in 1940. Merl Pound was active in community affairs and was musically inclined. He was a member of the Leesburg Silver Cornet Band. He had a rare sense of humor and enjoyed life to the fullest.

Howard W. Pound married Lillian Walton, and they resided in Chicago, Illinois and Louisville, Kentucky.

Betty Mae married Clyde Bair, and to this family was born a son, Roger Allen, who married Sally L. Albert. Clyde and Betty owned and operated Hull's Transfer Company in Warsaw for many years. Evelyn married Philip K. Fawley, and to this family was born a daughter, Nancy Ann. Evelyn was employed by the Wawasee Community Schools for many years as a bookkeeper, and Philip is currently head of the English department at Wawasee High School.

Loren J. Pound married Jo Ann Reed, and to this family were born Terrie Jo, Karen Kay, Linda Lee, and Jeffrey J. Terrie Jo married Stanley P. Trout, and they have one daughter, Laurie Jo; Karen Kay married Douglas J. Conley, and they have a son, Adam D. and a daughter, Keriann K.; Linda Lee married James L. Howard, and they have two daughters, Sara A. and Shawna L., and a son, Scott L.; and Jeffrey J. is unmarried.

Upon the death of his father, Merl Pound, Loren J. bought his sister's share of the 300 acres, and continues operating the farm and lives with his wife, Jo Ann, in the house built by his grandfather in the early 1900's. The farm has been in the Pound family for 115 years and received the Centennial Family Farm Award and is also recognized as a Hoosier Homestead Farm,

WINNIE CRIPE

130.2.1.3.1.10.
d/o Jonathan Cripe
& Mary Ellen
Rupl

Missionary to China, 1911

On a farm near North Liberty, St. Joseph County, Indiana, on September 13, 1884, Winnie, the fourth child in a family of three sons and three daughters, was born. Her father, Jonathan Cripe, was an able bishop in the Church of the Brethren; her mother, Mary Ellen, was a daughter of David Rupel, another bishop in the District. Before Winnie was four years old, her mother died. Afterwards Ella Buzzard took up the duties of the home and became a good Christian mother to the family of children. Winnie had the advantages of a good public school education, and finished the eighth grade in 1900. Conditions in the home were such, however, that she could not go away to school until after the death of her father, in 1907. She came to Bethany Bible School, in Chicago, in 1908, craving to know more of God and his Word, and delighting in the privileges she found there.

While a series of meetings, conducted by D. H. Weaver, was in progress in the Pine Creek congregation, Winnie confessed Christ and united with the Church of the Brethren, baptism being administered by Brother Weaver April 24, 1895. When fifteen, she began to teach a Sunday-school and either this or superintending the primary department of a Sunday-school has been her lot and pleasure ever since. She especially delighted in teaching the Chinese in the Sunday-school, conducted in connection with the Bethany Bible School work. Since in China she is located at Liao Chou, Shansi Province, and is engaged in visiting homes, helping in opium refuge work, teaching music in the Boys' School, and doing such other duties as come within her reach.

M. E. Meetings.

The revival services at the M. E. church are continuing througout the week with Evangelist Thomas in charge.

The all-day meeting last Friday was one of the events that will fix this paticular series of meetings in the memories of those that attended. The meeting commenced in the morning and continued until about four o'clock. The people coming as they could and going when they must. The attendance ranged from fourteen to two hundred during the day. No definite plan was followed but the people sang, spoke and prayed with liberty. Evangelist Thomas preached especially to the business men at noon, on "Service." A good talk was made in the afternoon by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Anderson, whom the people are always glad to hear. The afternoon closed with the children's and young people's service, which was very good,

Mr. Thomas readily wins the attention and love of the children and points out the way of true living in; "Study to show thyself approved unto God," and "Abstain from all appearance of evil."

On Sunday the services were interesting and helpful in spite of the weather.

The things which Evangelist Thomas most emphasizes in all his work are: prayer, consecration, study of scriptures and faith. Across all his sermons and exhortations one can see written in large letters F-A-I-T-H. Its simplicity and necessity is being indellibly stamped on the hearts of many of the people that attend the meetings. The song service is being conducted by H. L. Strong, this week. Evangelist Thomas, who is also a sweet singer, has been bringing a message in some helpful solo each evening.

Nothing is being done for mere entertainment but all to advance the "Kings business," and that people may be led to make the "wise choice" which some are doing.

There will be meetings tonight and tomorrow night but no meeting Saturday night. Rev. Thomas will be here over Sunday and Monday night Sunday will be decision day in the Sunday school, at which time Rev. Thomas will give a chalk talk to the children. There will be preaching at 11 o'clock and a mass meeting at

S. H. Francis Passes Away.

S. H. Francis died yesterday evening after an illness of several weeks, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Pomeroy. The funeral services will be held at the M. E. church at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Urias Osborne.

The subject of this sketch died Friday night February 12, 1909. His death was one of those sudden flittings of the spirit to its maker. Only two days before he died he was in town to consult a physician about a boil in his nose, which terminated in erysipelas, which entering the brain caused his death.

Bro. Osborn was born in the state Ohio in 1843 His parents died when he was nine years old and he was raised to manhood as an orphan.

In 1864 he married the companion who survives him. To them were born six children, five sons and one daughter, all of whom survive him. Two years ago his wife was stricken with paralysis entirely disabling the use of her left side.

To years ago Bro. Osborne united with the Brethern Church here at Conway Springs.

He was an old soldier and his funeral was attended by many of his old comrades.

Interment was made in the Conway Springs cemetery on Tuesday.

That Old Mens Rabbit Supper.

Last Wednesday night the brave old men, the mighty hunters, the men not afraid of a gun, met at John Myer's to celebrate their mighty prowess as rabbit slayers. All were there, but Comrades Sam McBride and Leonard, and such gormandizers as they proved to be, Captain Lupton knowing the eating capacity of Bishop, Thompson, Holsington and Bonham, Provided a tub of Oysters, a crate of celery, ten cakes a keg of pickles and other things in proportion. The feast began; Thompson took the lead at once and finished one round ahead with Bishop a close second. Tis said Glaze and Crippen put all the candy and bananas that were left in their pockets. Jesse Seitz the Danell Boone of Captain Bonhams troopers, who killed one rabbit (Though tis well known by a few that he got his rabbit from a little boys rabbit trap) got the only male oyster. Jake Moomaw got slightly hurt by falling in the tub of oysters, but just like him he came out with hands and mouth full. Resolutions were passed that the next time Jeff Holsington got fast in the hedge he was to talk in a whisper.

That Jesse Seitz was to kill double the number of rabbits he killed on the last hunt.

That Jake Moomaw was not to miss the next rabbit he shot at setting still.

That John Myers was to be sure it was a rabbit instead of a cow chip he shot at.

That Ed Lewis was to go in a walk.

That Homer Thompson wasn't to tell on Jeff Holsington.

That Charley McBride and Frank Crippen wasn't to claim any rabbits they didn't kill.

That Jeff Holsington would be the Captain on both sides

That they would have their next annual hunt before cold weather.

That they have a special artist to take their pictures before and after the hunt to show the different length of their faces in case of defeat.

At a late hour they returned to their homes looking forward to next fall, when they shall again meet in battle array.

—It is reported that one of our well known young men went out to visit a couple of capricious young ladies the other night, and it seems that they framed it up on him to some extent and planned to have all sorts of sport when he came to spend the evening. As he was accredited with being somewhat bashful they thought it would be a great joke to imitate everything he did. When he appeared in the parlor he blew his nose, and each of the girls promptly followed suit. The incident struck him rather funny at the time, but he didn't make any particular cute remark about it. He said "Nice evening" and sat down and they repeated the performance. The repetition of the remark caught him again, so before he did anything more he rubbed his hands together and stroked his hair, and they did the same. "Not so cold to-night, he ventured, in order to be sure of his ground and they repeated with a slight change in emphasis, "Not so cold to-night." There was a slight twinkle of mischief in their eyes, and he caught the one. He straightened his collar and they did the same, and one of them smiled a trifle. He didn't hesitate any longer but deliberately stooped down and turned up his trousers.—Idaho Falls Post.

—The fact that babies can't be secured through the Larkins soap club must be a great disappointment to many women.—Cretcher.

John Lewis Hill, longtime Ponca City resident, died Sunday, Dec. 14, 2003 at the Ponca City Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. He was 100 years old. A graveside funeral service will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Resthaven Memorial Park Cemetery with the Rev. Kenneth Armstrong, rector, Grace Episcopal Church, officiating, assisted by Deacon Richard Robinson, St. Mary's Catholic Church. Members of Ponca Lodge #83 AF&AM will provide the Masonic Rite. Arrangements are under the direction of the Trout Funeral Home.

John was born June 23, 1903 on the Chickasaw Indian Reservation near Tuttle to Harvey William and Clarrisa Rickerd Hill. On May 11, 1924 John and Ada Mae Osborn were married in Okfuskee County. They made their first home near Castle, Okla. They had one daughter, Velma Louise Hill Tapp. The couple moved to Osage County in 1929 and into Ponca City in the late 1940's. Mrs. Hill died July 21, 1985. John provided for his family by doing numerous jobs over the years such as farming, working at Perry hatchery, as a machinist for Nickles Machine, and his favorite, painting houses. He was a 33rd degree Mason and had attended several churches in the Ponca City area. Surviving are his grandson, Larry Tapp and his wife Faith, Ponca City; a great grandson, Scott Tapp, Gainesville, Texas; and numerous nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews. In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by his daughter and a grandson. Memorials may be made to the Shriner's Burn Hospital, in care of Ponca Lodge #83, AF&AM, 1220 W. Grand, Ponca City, OK 74601. The family will receive friends at the Trout Funeral Home on Tuesday from 6 to 7 p.m..

David & Anna's daughter Elizabeth 25 Jul 1835-29 Nov 1897 m1) Mr. Brown, 2) 21 Feb 1864 Elkhart Co IN, Philip Pound b c1815 Wertenberg who m1) Rosanna Martin, m2) Anna Wolf POUND.-In the Elkhart church, Goshen, Ind., Nov 29, 1897, of lung trouble, Elizabeth Pound, aged 62 years, 4 months and 4 days. She was born in Darke County, Ohio, and emigrated to Indiana in 1842. Her father, mother, brother and sister, son and two husbands preceded her. Two brothers, three sisters, and three step-children survive. Funeral discourse by Bro. Lemuel Hillery, from 1 Cor. 15:45,46. David R. Myers. The Gospel Messenger, December 25, 1897, p 830.

And their daughter Leah

Snyder, Sister Leah, born in Darke County, Ohio, died Sept. 16, 1921, aged 84 years, 2 months and 20 days. She married Bro. Jacob Snyder. There were ten children, six of whom are living. Sister Snyder was a loyal member of the Church of the Brethren since her youth. She was always willing to help in the work of Christ. Services by Brethren J. F. Kahler and Walter D. Keller.-J. F. Kahler, Canton, Ohio. The Gospel Messenger, October 8, 1921, p 623. She is buried West Lawn Cemetery in West Canton OH. Her husband Jacob K. Snyder died between 1880 & 1900 in Stark Co OH and is likely buried there also. Makes one wonder why they moved from Warsaw IN between 1870 & 1880 to the Canton area of Ohio.

Tobias Cripe who died at his sister's (Mrs Elizabeth Pound) home in West Goshen on 5 Sept 1893 at the age of 66 yr. "The deceased was a resident of Kosciusko Co., until recently when he came here to reside with his sister. He leaves a wife and four children. Funeral on Thursday at 9:30 from the German Baptist church; burial at the Inbody Cemetery."

This was in the Goshen Daily News 5 Sept 1893

G. W. CRIPE

George W. Cripe, son of David and Anna Kreider Cripe, was born in Darke County, Ohio, May 23, 1833. He was baptized by David Clark in 1858. On December 25, 1852, he married Barbara Shively of New Paris, Indiana. They had four sons and eight daughters. Three times he was drafted for military service, but each time he parted with all his possessions rather than sacrifice his principles of peace. He organized the first Sunday school at Fairview, Indiana, and also the first Sunday school at Cerro Gordo, Illinois. After locating near Cerro Gordo in November of 1883 he built the State Bank building in 1884, a store building in 1887, numerous dwellings in the town and country, and the Allison Prairie church house in Lawrence County in 1878. Elected to the office of deacon in 1855 and to the ministry in 1857, he was ordained an elder in 1860. He labored at the following places: New Paris, Indiana, 1860-1870; Washington church, 1870-1876, minister and elder; Fairview, Indiana, 1876-1883, minister and elder; Milmine and Cerro Gordo churches, Southern Illinois, elder, 1883-1885; Cerro Gordo, 1885-1901. He was a very successful evangelist in Indiana and Illinois during fall, winter and spring months, and also did much mission work for the district board, at one time having charge of four points in the Adams County mission field. A number of times he served on Standing Committee. He died in Cerro Gordo on July 22, 1901.

~~Isaac H. Crist was born near Springfield, Ohio, October 24, 1852. On September 3, 1863, his parents, John and Salome Frantz Crist, moved to Virden, Illinois. On March 7, 1871, he united with the Pleasant Hill church. He married Sarah Brubaker, of Girard, Illinois, on December 31, 1874. Seven children were born to them. He moved to the Clear Creek church, Christian County, February 25, 1879. On September 14, 1880, he was called to the ministry. In March 1881 he located near Olathe, Kansas. On November 24, 1888, he was ordained an elder by Elders Andrew Hutchison and S. S. Mohler. He opened up mission work in Kansas City, moved there in 1893, devoted all his time to it, organized the First church in November 1894, and continued his work there for twenty-six years.~~

~~Noah Sylvester Dale, a native of Darke County, Ohio, was born on November 3, 1855, the son of Paul and Anna Heckman Dale. He married Ella Heckman of Livingston County, Illinois, on January 27, 1878. Three sons and four daughters were born to them. Elected to the ministry on October 1, 1894, he served as a farmer-preacher at Cornell, and at the Walnut Grove church in Richland County, Illinois. He died in Edwards County, Illinois, January 25, 1938.~~

~~Henry Danner was born in York County, Pennsylvania, October 9, 1806. He was elected to the ministry by the Pigeon Hill church, Pennsylvania. In 1865 he came to~~

GEORGE W. CRIPE

Elder George W. Cripe, though identified with Southern Illinois in later years, spent the most active part of his life in Indiana. He was born in Darke County, Ohio, May 23, 1833. He was raised in Elkhart County, Indiana, and united with the Church of the Brethren in the Solomon's Creek congregation. Here he was called to the ministry in 1866. Shortly after this he moved to the Washington church, near Warsaw, and still later into the Fairview, Southern Indiana.

Elder Cripe's great work for Indiana was that of an evangelist. He was one of the first brethren to engage actively in protracted meetings. He had great power through the Spirit to do this work. Scores were brought into the church through his stirring appeals. While in Southern Indiana he was one of the missionaries in their great field.

On Christmas Day, 1852, he was united in marriage to Barbara Shively, of Elkhart County. To them were born twelve children. One daughter, Cora, was for years a mission worker in Chicago, and is now in China, the wife and helpmeet of Dr. O. G. Brubaker, of Liao Chou. Brother Cripe was a man of strong physical build, but constant heavy strain on his physical system brought his life to a close July 22, 1901. His last years were spent at Cerro Cordo, Illinois.

CRUMRINE

Crumrine is a familiar name in the southern part of Wabash County.

Elder John Crumrine was born in Virginia in 1799. He moved to Darke County, Ohio, where he married and while yet young was called to the ministry. He married Catherine Brenner. To them were born eight children. Late in life he moved to Wabash County, where he was the first resident elder of the Wabash church. He died November 23, 1884. R. H. Miller preached his funeral. Two of his sons were ministers.

Jacob Crumrine was born December 7, 1835. He was married to Lucinda Jones in 1857. To them were born five 130.2.1 Ira C. Cripe formerly of Cerro Gordo but for the past 20 years living at L.A. California took his own life. Found in his auto with bullet wound in his right temple and revolver on seat beside him. Known to be despondent for several years and once before attempted to end his own life by inhaling gas. The body was brought to Cerro Gordo for burial. He was born at New Paris, Ind. Sept. 28, 1858 son of Mr. & Mrs. George W. Cripe. He came to Piatt Co. Ill. in 1883. Retired from the farm in 1894 and moved to Cerro Gordo. In October of 1910 he moved to California. He married Anna Frantz of Cerro Gordo. She died April 6, 1889. In October 1890 he married Anna Blickenstaff of Cerro Gordo. The survivors are his brother, O.F. Cripe of C.G.; and sisters, Mrs. Ellen E. Leedy, C.G.; Mrs. Alice Shively of C.G.; Mrs George Miller of LaPlace, Ill. and Mrs O.G. Brubaker of N. Manchester, Ind.

Obituaries . . .

Levi Minnich

Levi, son of Abraham and Elizabeth Swinger Minnich, was born March 19, 1962, in Darke County, Ohio, and died March 31, 1948, at his home near Greenville, Ohio.

In 1888, he was united in marriage to Laura Netzley, who died in 1909. To this union were born three children, Beulah M. Eikenberry of Dayton, Ohio; H. Spenser Minnich of Elgin, Ill., and Ruth M. Neher of Gettysburg, Ohio. He is also survived by seven grandchildren, one of whom, Ivan L. Eikenberry, is a missionary in Africa; seven great-grandchildren; and one sister, Rebecca Royer Groff. Two sisters preceded him in death. In 1912, he was married to Susie Forney, who survives him.

He united with the Church of the Brethren at Painter Creek, Ohio.

He taught school for nine years and led many singing classes. He believed that the world could be made a better place in which to live through religion, education, brotherhood, government and co-operative endeavor. His interest in young people was great, and his home was always open to friends from far and near.

He served his church faithfully: locally as Sunday-school teacher and superintendent and on committees; in the district as a member of the Southern Ohio mission board and trustee of Manchester College; and in the church at large as a member of the General Sunday School Board. He served his community well also.

Funeral services were conducted in the Painter Creek church, Ohio, by Paul C. Lantis, pastor, assisted by Brethren D. G. Berkebile and W. C. Stinebaugh. Interment was made in the Newcomer cemetery, Ohio.—H. Spenser Minnich, Elgin, Ill.

Elder George W. Miller

George W., son of S. S. and Mary Miller, was born Jan. 27, 1870, and passed away at the Mercy hospital in Urbana, Ill., Feb. 26, 1948. In the earlier years of his life, he lived near La Place, Ill.

He was united in marriage to Minnie Cripe on July 11, 1893. To this union were born five children, two of whom preceded him in death. Surviving are: his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Wyne of La Place, Ill., and Mrs. Louise Henderson of Gary, Ind.; one son, Dean of Cerro Gordo, Ill.; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a brother, Elder Noah H. Miller of Bourbon, Ind.; and a sister, Anna Miller, of Sebring, Fla.

Bro. Miller was baptized in December 1893, and became a member of the Okaw church at that time. He was elected to the ministry in 1902. A few years later, he was ordained to the eldership. He served his home congregation as minister and elder for over thirty years. Before entering the ministry, Bro. Miller taught school for several years. He made friends easily both in the church and in the community.

His influence in the Southern District of Illinois was felt in many activities. He served four times on the Standing Committee at Annual Conference and served as both member and chairman of the district mission board and the board of administration for twenty-six years.

Funeral services were conducted at the La Place church, Ill., by Elders Ira T. Hiatt and W. T. Heckman. Burial was made in the La Place cemetery.—W. T. Heckman, Oakley, Ill.

Anna May Fish

Anna May, daughter of Moses and Mary Kindy, was born near Wooster, Ohio, Jan. 28, 1878, and died as a result of an automobile accident, March 28, 1948, in a hospital at Redlands, Calif.

She and her companion, Amos Fish, spent most of their lives in Elkhart, Ind. Mrs. Fish was always active in the work of the church and held various responsible positions in the church for most of the entire history of the Elkhart church. For the past five years, they had lived at Pasadena, Calif.

She is survived by her husband; seven children, Dr. Edson Fish of South Bend, Ind., Theodore of Los Angeles, Calif., Harold of Columbus, Ohio, Leroy of Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Helen Rudolph of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Lula Plank of Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Kermit Eby of Washington, D. C.; two brothers, S. C. Kindy of Wadsworth, Ohio, and Rev. C. C. Kindy of Pasadena, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. J. Edson Ulery of Onekama, Mich., and Mrs. Jennie Heestand of Anderson, Ind.

Funeral services were conducted at the Lamb funeral home at Pasadena, Calif., by the assistant pastor, Marlin S. Brightbill, in the absence of the pastor, Bro. Funderburgh, and at the Elkhart City church by the undersigned, assisted by Lorell Weiss, a former pastor. Burial was made in the Prairie Street cemetery, Elkhart, Ind.—G. W. Philips, Elkhart, Ind.

Clarence Edson Schrock

Clarence Edson, son of John and Lucy Schrock, was born Nov. 9, 1886, near Home City, Kansas, and died April 28, 1948, at Sabetha, Kansas. He is survived by his wife, seven children, fourteen grandchildren and two sisters.

He was a member of the Church of the Brethren and served in the ministry as pastor and elder of the church for many years. Memorial services were held at the Sabetha church, where he was pastor and elder at the time of his death, by Bro. D. W. Kesler, assisted by two of the ministers of the Ministerial Alliance of Sabetha.

A further memorial service was conducted by the undersigned at the Union Ridge church, Iowa, assisted by Bro. Ernest Vandereau. Burial was made in the cemetery near by.—W. H. Yoder, Waterloo, Iowa.

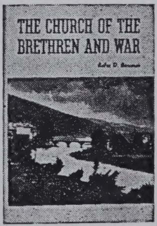
Casteel, George, son of Milbert and Sarah Uphold Casteel, was born Aug. 17, 1905, and died Oct. 17, 1947. He was united in marriage to Nellie Sisler and to this union were born four daughters and four sons. He is survived by his wife, four daughters, four sons, two brothers, three sisters and his parents. He united with the Church of the Brethren at Mt. Dale when a boy. Funeral services were held at the Cuzzart church by Rev. S. E. Ryan, and burial

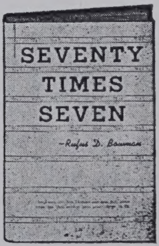
The Church of the Brethren and War, 1708-1941

● Aptly described by its title, this book is a study of one of the most important issues in the Church of the Brethren both historically and at the present time. Anyone reading this book will be both humbled by its recounting of our heritage and challenged to a deeper commitment to our historic peace principle. Price, $2.50.

Seventy Times Seven

● A companion volume to The Church of the Brethren and War, this book surveys briefly the peace history of the church, offers an explanation of our failure to live up to our historic position and suggests ways for strengthening our stand on this vital issue. Excellent for use in study groups. Price, $1.00.





When ordered together these two books by Rufus D. Bowman may be had for $2.75

1916, aged nineteen years; Dean, who is at home; Emerson, who died at the age of seven years; and Ione, who died at the age of two years. In politics Mr. Miller is a Republican. His evangelical work has always been productive of satisfactory results, and he has served in fourteen meetings, and had not ill health prevented he would undoubtedly have risen high in his church. While he is a success as a farmer, his heart is with the work of the church, and he never fails to embrace every opportunity to labor in the Master's vineyard.

MILLER, Solomon Smith, one of the substantial retired business men of La Place, has a record for honorable dealing and uprightness of purpose that gives him a dignified standing in his community. He was born in Allen County, Ohio, February 28, 1847, a son of Solomon and Lydia (Smith) Miller, natives of Maryland. The parents were farming people. After a boyhood that differed very little from that of any farmer's son of the period, during which time he alternated attendance upon the district schools with farming, Solomon S. Miller grew to manhood, and remained with his parents until 1867. In that year he began farming for himself on the homestead, so continuing until the fall of 1871, when he came to Illinois, and spent three months in Edgar County. From there he came to Piatt County, locating on a farm of 160 acres in Cerro Gordo Township, owned by his father-in-law. In time he bought forty acres of this farm, subsequently adding forty acres more, and put many improvements upon this land. In 1880 he sold this farm, and bought 240 acres from the Kious brothers and Henry Kuntz, and to this he later added eighty acres. In buying this land he had his father-in-law for a partner, and they improved it and conducted it for some years. Later Mr. Miller sold a portion of the land to his sons, but still owns 120 acres which he rents. In 1892 he moved to La Place, Ill., and bought a hardware store he continued to conduct for about twenty years, when he sold the stock and good will, but still owns the building and another business house, as well as his residence at La Place. Since 1908 he has not been actively engaged in business, feeling that he has earned his leisure.

In February, 1867 Mr. Miller was married to Mary Miller, born in Virginia, a daughter of Jacob and Salome (Wine) Miller, natives of Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have had the following children: Lydia, who is Mrs. Frank Urban of Greene County, Ill.; and George W., Jacob B. and Noah H., all of whom are farmers of Cerro Gordo Township; and Anna, who is at home. In 1912 Mr. Miller took a course of study at Chicago in the doctrine of the Brethren Church, of which he is a member, and in which he has held nearly all the offices, including that of elder for many years. In politics he is a Republican, and for nine years was a school director. An earnest, conscientious man, Mr. Miller has always done what he believed was his full duty, and is held in high Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Mikels have the following children: Alta and Bessie, who are at home; Clara, who is Mrs. Lewis Perkins of Cerro Gordo Township; and Ward. One child, Doris, died at the age of five years. Mr. Mikels is a Methodist and has served on the official board of his church for many years, and has been director of the choir since 1891. For fifteen years he was a member of the school board, and for a portion of that time was its president. From 1890 to 1900 he was a member of the Republican Central Committee, and was its president and treasurer. Fraternally he belongs to Cerro Gordo Lodge No. 347, K. of P.

MILES, Samuel, born in 1812 in Virginia, came to Piatt County in 1855, and bought 160 acres of land in 1856 in Willow Branch Township, to which he later added eighty acres and was living on this farm when he died in 1881. He was married to Betsey A. Simmons and their children were as follows: Mrs. Reuben Lowry, James V., William, Mrs. Henry Cornell, Thomas S., Mrs. J. E. Welton, David C., Mrs. William McCartney, George W., Adam S., and Joseph L.

MILES, Weston, was born in Virginia in 1807 and came to Piatt County in 1861, acquiring by purchase 160 acres of land in Willow Branch Township, where he died April 27, 1875. In 1837 he was married to Sarah R. Simmons, and their children were as follows: Edward, John S., Mrs. John P. Dresback, Mary C., William M., Henry T., Charles S., Jesse and David T.

MILLER, George W., a minister of the Dunkard faith, also a farmer of Cerro Gordo Township, was born in Allen County, Ohio, near Lima, January 27, 1870, a son of S. S. and Mary (Miller) Miller. After attending the public schools of his native place, Mr. Miller went to Mt. Morris College, and the Bethany Bible School of Chicago. He resided with his parents until 1891, working on the farm in the summer, and teaching school in the winter. In 1891 he moved on the farm owned by Ira Cripe, in Cerro Gordo Township, and spent twelve years upon it, when he went to La Place, and during the year he was attending the Bible school at Chicago, made that city his home. The following year he moved to Dixon, Ill., and was pastor of the Dunkard church there, at the same time continuing his Bible study in Chicago. On account of ill health, he returned to La Place for a year, but in 1910, he bought his present farm of 240 acres. He operates this land himself, raising registered shorthorn cattle, Percheron horses and O. I. C. hogs, and is one of the leading agriculturalists of this section. In addition to raising grain for feeding, he sells in the market.

On July 11, 1895, Mr. Miller was married to Minnie Cripe, a daughter of George W. and Barbara (Shively) Cripe, natives of Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have had five children, namely: Mabel, who is Mrs. Elting Wyne of Cerro Gordo Township; Carl, who died May 4, 130

CORA CRIPE BRUBAKER, daughter of George W. and Barbara Shively Cripe, was born near Lafayette, Indiana, March 19, 1877. When she was eight years old the family moved to Cerro Gordo, Illinois, where she was baptized when twelve years old. She attended several Bible school sessions at Mount Morris College, and also attended Moody Bible Institute. She assisted Alice J. Boone in the Chicago mission during the winter of 1893. The years 1894-1905 were spent in the Hastings Street Church of the Brethren mission. On July 26, 1905, she was married to Dr. O. G. Brubaker. They had one son and one daughter. In 1913 the Brubakers went to the China mission field, where they were stationed at Liao Chou until they returned to America in 1920. They now live at North Manchester, Indiana.

ELKHART, INDIANA.

Among the first venturers into this wild, new country was Daniel Cripe, an elder in the Tunker Church. He, with his family, and Jacob Cripe, Christopher Stouder, and John Pipenger and their families, came in 1829. Daniel Cripe was a man of medium height, broad-shouldered and well muscled; his face was smooth-shaven, and complexion light. Being of kindly disposition, he made many friends, and commanded the love and respect of all who knew him.

He selected for himself a half section of land on Elkhart prairie, about two miles south of where the city of Goshen now stands, and at once erected a log cabin upon it, and made other necessary preparations for a home. He, with his friends, constructed a rude plow with a wooden moldboard, for the purpose of turning a few furrows to mark their claims, and put out small crops to raise provisions for the coming winter.

After making the plow, the question arose as to who should use it first. It was decided that the oldest should first use it, and, as Daniel Cripe was the oldest, the lot fell to him, and thus, according to tradition, he was the first white settler to plow a furrow on Elkhart prairie.

Having established his new home, he returned in the early part of 1830 to Montgomery County, Ohio, his former home, and induced his son Samuel, and family, to emigrate to this country. Martin Weybright and family, Jacob Studebaker and family, and others, came also the same year. In the early part of the summer of 1830 a daughter, Rosanna, was born to the wife of John Cripe, nephew of Daniel Cripe, she being the first child born to any of the brethren in northern Indiana. The Cripe family has since become very numerous, and has exerted no small influence in the history of the church of this county, a large portion of it adhering closely to the teachings of the church.

One of the first things to be remembered by these early settlers was their devotion to God. Accordingly, services were held in the homes of the members, Elder Cripe preaching in German.

The work prospered, and soon, in the spring of 1830, was organized the Elkhart church. This was the nucleus around which were formed all the churches of the northern district of Indiana. From the first they called themselves the Brethren, and for a long time were known by no other name.

In the latter part of the summer of 1830 the church decided to hold a love-feast. No beef could be procured, therefore Elder Cripe gave a ewe lamb—the only one he had—for the supper. About twenty members communed. It was held in Elder Cripe's house, and was pronounced, by some present, as the most enjoyable feast they had ever attended.

Traveling in those days was very difficult, and many hardships had to be endured, even after reaching the settlement. But these difficulties stimulated them to greater efforts. Emigrants from the east kept pouring in, and, settling in different localities, soon covered a great amount of territory. This created much work for Elder Cripe, and, feeling the need of help, a church meeting was called, and two brethren, Martin Weybright and Jacob Studebaker, were chosen to the ministry. These were the first two brethren elected to the ministry in northern Indiana.

Other ministers moved from the east, and made this their home. John Leatherman came in 1835, and settled in the southern part of Elkhart County. Soon after eight members of that portion of the territory were organized into a separate congregation, and are known as the Turkey Creek church.

Elder James Tracey came in about 1850. He was a natural orator and born leader of men, and, by his strong traits of personal character, exerted a wonderful influence for the church. Through his efforts the Elkhart district was again divided, this time into three separate congregations. The Rock Run church was cut off on the east and the Yellow Creek church on the west. Later the Elkhart Valley district was cut off on the northwest. A number of churches have been organized from the Elkhart church.

The lives and the work of our pioneer brethren are full of interest. As a historian says of the Puritans, so we say of our ancestors: "They were sturdy men and women, and the sturdiest part of them was their principles. When they began the structure of their new society, they began at the bottom. They built upon God and in godliness. Christ was their foundation, and His edifice was the structure which they sought to build."

Elder Cripe died in 1859, at the age of eighty-seven years and six months. His ashes now rest in the little cemetery near the eastern edge of Elkhart prairie. His grave is a modest one, and but few people in passing by realize that here lie the remains of the organizer of the first Tunker Church in what was then known as the northwest, and the first Protestant minister in Elkhart County.

FLAT ROCK, VIRGINIA.

One hundred years ago, the first brother moved to the valley of Virginia, and settled in the upper end of Shenandoah County. He was a minister, and his name was John Garber. He was the father of seven sons, six of whom became ministers, and the other a deacon. They were all faithful ministers, planted many churches in Virginia, Tennessee, and Ohio, and all lived to be aged. Martin Garber, one of the seven, remained in the county near the home of his father, traveled much, and labored faithfully in the cause of the Redeemer, connected with some of the writings of the old brethren in the encyclopedia. He was elder of the first district of Virginia, which then extended from Harrisonburg to the Maryland line.

When the membership became large, the district was divided, and Jacob Wine, grandson of Martin Garber, became first elder in the Flat Rock district. The district took its name from the rock on which the meeting-house is built, it being one mile from where Martin Garber lived. This rock has an area of about one acre. It was deeded to the church by Brother Michael Wine, Sr., who lived in a house in which, over eighty years ago, a yearly meeting was held. The house was not more than half full of people. An old man from the South Branch being present, said that the house was so large there ought to be two preachers.

HICKORY GROVE, OHIO.

From 1827 the territory now known as Donnels Creek, Lost Creek, and Hickory Grove, were one organization, presided over by Elder Christian Frantz. In the part now called Hickory Grove, Isaac Darst was a minister; in all, about twenty-five members. In 1830 Henry Harshbarger, David Landis, deacons, and Isaac Karns, elder, moved in. Then what is now Hickory Grove church was organized, with about forty members, under the care of Isaac Karns.

In the fall of 1832 Isaac Darst died. In 1833 John Studebaker died. In 1835 David Landis was elected to the ministry. In 1836 David Shelabarger, Adam Stinebarger, and Henry Rubson, ministers, moved in.

In 1837 James Ward and Daniel Arnold were elected deacons. Ward at this time insisted on the ordination of Darst, so that their children could be married in English. About 1849 the interest in the good cause grew so low that for a time there was no regular preaching services held, though there were three resident ministers; but by the efforts of David Bowman, John Darst, and Peter Nead, the work was again established, David Shelabarger being in charge.

In 1853 David Landis and David Shelabarger moved out, and Joseph Arnold and Jacob Snell were elected deacons. David Studebaker moved in. He proved a minister of great influence, and being dead yet speaketh. There were now about eighty members. In 1855 the present house of worship was built. In 1856 Abraham Studebaker died. In 1858 Joseph Arnold was elected to the ministry, S. S. Studebaker deacon, and Henry Rubsom and Adam Stinebarger ordained. From the time David Shelabarger moved out until the above ordination the church was under the care of Elder John Frantz, of Donnells Creek.

In 1860 John Crist was elected to the ministry. In 1863 G. W. Studebaker moved in and labored here for two years, then moved to Indiana. In this time the death of David Studebaker occurred, which was deeply lamented. There were now one hundred members.

1850. He was soon elected deacon, called to the ministry in 1857, and ordained in 1870. After his uncle, Elias, became old and finally moved to Arcadia, John H. was the presiding elder in the mother church. He was a man of power in the pulpit. In the District he was a leader in all forward movements. He spent much time in the Southern Indiana mission field. He died June 25, 1899.

Abraham Caylor, Jr., was a son of Michael Caylor, a brother to Abraham, Sr., and Elias. Michael was a deacon at Stony Creek. Here Abraham was called to the ministry. Later he moved to Greentown church. He died in Kokomo in 1905 at the age of 60.

DANIEL CRIPE

"Daniel Cripe died December 10, 1859, aged 87 years, 7 months and 4 days."

"Magdalena, wife of D. Cripe, died May 25, 1842, aged 72 years and 1 day."

The above inscriptions may be read on very modest-looking stone slabs about 9x20 inches, in an old cemetery just south of Goshen, Indiana. And they mark the last resting place of the pioneer family of the Church of the Brethren in Northern Indiana.

Elder Daniel Cripe moved from Montgomery County, Ohio. He had been called to the ministry and was the first elder of the Wolfe Creek congregation.

"He, with his family, his brother, Jacob Cripe, Christ Stouder and John Pippenger and their families came in 1829. Daniel Cripe was a man of medium height, was broad shouldered and well muscled; his face was smooth shaven and his complexion light. Being of kindly disposition he made many friends and commanded the love and respect of all who knew him.

"He selected for himself about a half section of land on Elkhart Prairie, about two miles south of where the present Goshen courthouse stands. He at once erected a log cabin upon it and made other preparations for a future home. He with his friends constructed a rude plow, with a wooden moldboard, for the purpose of turning a few furrows to mark their claims and put out small crops to raise provisions for the coming winter. After making the plow the question arose, who should use it first? It was decided that the oldest should use it first; and as Daniel Cripe was the oldest the lot fell to him; and thus, according to tradition, he was the first white settler to plow a furrow on Elkhart Prairie."—Opperman.

In 1830 Elder Cripe made a trip to Ohio and returned with other emigrant families. Among these first families were some of his children. He at once began preaching to these pioner families, preaching largely in German. A church was organized about 1832. He was the first elder and minister. The first love feast was held in Elder Cripe's home. He himself furnished a ewe lamb for the supper.

Elder and Sister Cripe were the parents of four daughters and five sons. The sons' names were Samuel, Emanuel, John, Daniel and Benjamin. Of the daughters, Susan married Joseph Stouder, Catherine married David Mikesell, Polly married John Pippenger, and Elizabeth married Christian Stouder. One great-grandchild, Amos Cripe, became a minister in the Mennonite church. One great-grandson, C. C. Cripe, is a minister in the Church of the Brethren. Jacob Cripe, of Goshen, Indiana, was a brother to Daniel. Another brother settled at North Manchester and another at Wabash, Indiana. Many are the descendants of this first generation, and many of these are active in the service of the church.

Elder Cripe was not so able as a preacher, judged by the standards of today, but he had great influence among his people by his godly life among them. He was faithful to his holy calling and did a great work in the founding of the Church of the Brethren in a county that today is one of the most thickly settled with our people that we have in the church.

Jacob Cripe, a brother to Daniel Cripe, died in 1865 at the age of 98 years, 5 months and 14 days. He was the great-grandfather of John U. and Calvin, ministers of the Church of the Brethren in Indiana. His grandson, Jonathan Cripe, was a faithful minister of the church. Jonathan's son, Charles C., is a minister of the church, now located at Winona, Minnesota. A daughter, Una, is the wife of Elder Lafayette Steele, while another daughter, Winnie, is on the China mission field. Elder George W. Cripe, of Cerro Gordo, Illinois, and Jacob Cripe, a minister of Elkhart Valley, were grandsons of Jacob Cripe.

314. John Pippenger, Jr.

130.2.2.1 Mary (Polly) Cripe

This head of the Pippenger family in Elkhart County, Indiana was born March 10, 1798 in Pennsylvania, and was the third son of John and Rebecca (Bird) Pippenger, Sr. from New Jersey.

John was married near Perry Township of Montgomery County, Ohio on June 17, 1821[1] to Mary "Polly" Cripe, daughter of the Reverend Daniel Cripe and his wife Magdalena Miller. Mary was born January 8, 1797 in Pennsylvania. In 1829, John and Mary Pippenger moved from Montgomery County, Ohio to an area abundant with indians in Elkhart County, and migrated with a group of Brethren families with whom they would always be closely related,[2] one prominent one being the Cripe family.[3] They were enumerated on page 424 of the 1830 Census for Elkhart County, Indiana.

"The second spring after they came to Indiana, the first election was held in Union Township and there were only six voters: John Walburn, John Pippinger, Andrew Sheline, Daniel Landis, Christian Stouder, and Daniel Bainter.[a] A sugar bowl was used for a ballot box."[4] "John Ganger, an octogenarian who came here in 1828, told Billy Beane about a service that was held in the home of John Pippinger on the west side of Elkhart Prairie, on a farm afterward owned by Emanuel Cripe. Mr. Ganger said that Rev. Daniel Cripe, a dunkard minister preached first and was followed by Rev. Balser Hess, a Hard Shell Baptist. There were not more than twelve or fifteen people in the congregation. It was in 1829 or 1830 that this service was held."[5] Union Township was formed in the Spring of 1837.[6]

The old home of John Pippenger of Union Township, had eight rooms, a basement (or cellar), and thick, sound ceiling beams which were 16" square and of hewn walnut logs. An old dinner bell was mounted in the room to warn the time of meals.[7] The family is listed on page 47 of the 1840 Census for Elkhart County, Indiana. In 1849, John Pippenger was paid $1.13 tax by the County of Elkhart, for working on roads in Union Township. Others also paid included John and Andrew Keck, Emanuel Pippenger, Daniel Pippenger, Daniel Landis, and Joseph Keck.[b]

John Pippenger was listed on the 1850 (family 1564)[c] and 1860[d] (family 338 with $5,500 real estate and $750 personal property) Census for Union Township, Elkhart County, Indiana. The first annual meeting of the Pioneers Association was held at Goshen, May 11, 1857, and John Pippenger was a member of the executive committee.[8] Mary Pippenger died in Union Township on April 11, 1868 and was buried in row 11 of the Union Center Church cemetery of Union Township, located at the intersection of county roads 50 and 11.

CHAPTER SEVEN
256. John Pippenger, Jr.

This head of the Pippenger family in Elkhart County, Indiana was born March 30, 1790 in Pennsylvania, and was the third son of John and Rebecca (Bird) Pippenger, Sr. from New Jersey.

John was married near Perry Township of Montgomery County, Ohio on June 17, 1811 to Mary "Polly" Cripe, daughter of the Reverend Daniel Cripe and his wife Magdalena Miller. Mary was born January 6, 1797 in Pennsylvania. In 1829, John and Mary Pippenger moved from Montgomery County, Ohio to an area abundant with Indians in Elkhart County, and migrated with a group of Brethren families with whom they would always be closely related, one prominent one being the Cripe family.³ They were enumerated on page 424 of the 1830 Census for Elkhart County, Indiana.

"The second spring after they came to Indiana, the first election was held in Union Township and there were only six voters: John Waltz, John Pippinger, Andrew Shaffer, Daniel Lanes, Christian Stauffer, and Daniel Zollner.⁴ A sugar bowl was used for a ballot box."⁴ "John Dangery, an octogenarian who came here in 1828, told Billy Evans about a service that was held in the home of John Pippinger on the west side of Elkhart Prairie, on a farm afterward owned by Emanuel Cripe. Mr. Dangery said that Rev. Daniel Cripe, a Dunkard minister preached first and was followed by Rev. Walter Hoxie, a Hard Shell Baptist. There were not more than twelve or fifteen people in the congregation. It was in 1829 or 1830 that this service was held."⁵ Union Township was formed in the Spring of 1831.⁶

The old home of John Pippenger of Union Township, had eight rooms, a basement (or cellar), and thick, sound ceiling beams which were 10" square and of hewn walnut logs. An old dinner bell was mounted in the room to warn the time of meals.⁷ The family is listed on page 47 of the 1840 Census for Elkhart County, Indiana. In 1849, John Pippenger was paid $1.13 tax by the County of Elkhart, for working on roads in Union Township. Others also being included John and Andrew Waltz, Emanuel Pippenger, Daniel Pippenger, Daniel Lentz, and Joseph Metz.⁸

John Pippenger was listed on the 1850 (family 1863) and 1860 (family ...) census as ... Union Township, Elkhart County, Indiana. The first annual meeting of the Pioneers Association was held at Goshen, May 11, 1857, and John Pippenger was a member of the executive committee.⁸ Mary Pippenger died in Union Township on April 13, 1868, and was buried in row 11 of the Union Center Church Cemetery of Union Township, located at the intersection of County Roads 26 and 15.

John Pippenger died in Union Township, July 31, 1876 and buried in Union Center Church Cemetery. He donated property on which the cemetery is located, and lived in a farm house nearby. Their names were spelled Pipinger and Pipenger on their original cemetery headstones. After the weather had seriously eroded the soft white marble headstones of John and Mary (Cripe) Pippenger, great-grandson Joseph I. Pippenger replaced their stones by a larger monument adorned with a bronze plaque, and the original stones were stored at his residence.

DEATH TAKES COUNTY PIONEER

Mrs. Elizabeth Rensberger Born Near Goshen 97 Years Ago

130-2266

One of Elkhart county's oldest residents, Mrs. Elizabeth Rensberger Cripe, 97, a native of Elkhart township, died at 12:45 a. m. today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Brumbaugh, three miles southwest of Goshen. Death followed a seven weeks' illness of senility.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning, with prayer services at the Brumbaugh home at 10 o'clock and further services at the West Side Church of the Brethren, of which she was a member for three-quarters of a century, at 10:30 a. m. The Rev. Melvin Stutsman, assisted by the Rev. William Hess, will officiate. Burial will be made in the West Side cemetery.

Mrs. Cripe was born in Elkhart township October 11, 1838, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Cripe, and spent her entire life in this community. She leaves 132 descendants, three daughters and two sons, three step children, 45 grandchildren, 68 great grandchildren and 12 great great grandchildren.

In 1857 Elizabeth Cripe was married to Jonas Rensberger, who died in 1864. In 1874 she was married to John S. Cripe, who died in 1895. Mrs. Cripe became a member of the West Side Church of the Brethren in 1861.

Surviving are five children, Mrs. Brumbaugh, at whose home she died, Mrs. Isaac Cripe, of Goshen, Mrs. Ella Troup, of Elkhart, Jonas Rensberger of Goshen, and Henry Cripe, of north of Goshen, three step children, Lewis Cripe, of Middlebury, John Cripe, of Goshen, and Mrs. Henry Neff, of south of Goshen, 45 grandchildren, 68 great grandchildren and 12 great great grandchildren.

born three children: Barbara, Mary and Simon. After marriage Mr. and Mrs. Griner settled on a farm in Wayne county, Ohio, and here his wife died a number of years later. He subsequently married Salome Moonensmith, daughter of a German Reformed preacher, and five children were the fruits of this union: Harriet, Ann, Kate, Adam and Jane. In 1853 Mr. Griner moved to his present farm in Middlebury township, Elkhart Co., Ind. He bought 295 acres of improved land, for which he paid $5,500, and which had very good improvements for those days. On this farm his second wife died and Mr. Griner returned to Ohio, and was married in Stark county to Mrs. Sarah Neff, formerly Miss Jacoby. Mr. and Mrs. Griner are members of the Lutheran Church and Mr. Griner is the founder of the Griner Lutheran Church. He gave the land upon which it stands and he was also the largest contributor toward the erection of the church. He was one of the building committee, has been deacon for eight years and church trustee since the church was built. He has always been a prosperous man, but what he has accumulated has been by hard labor. At one time he owned 768 acres of land in Indiana, but much of this he has since sold and divided the money among his children. When starting out for himself he had limited means and was obliged to work very hard to get a start. For seven years he was a teamster, and before the railroads were built he drove six horses to a big old-fashioned Pennsylvania wagon, which would hold up tons, and hauled goods from Pittsburg, Penn., to Wooster, Ohio. He also followed threshing for eighteen years, two years in Ohio and sixteen after he came to Indiana. He is now nearly eighty years of age and is yet quite strong and hearty and retains his faculties to a remarkable degree. Such men as he have developed and improved the county and made it what it is. In politics he is a strong Democrat. His son, Simon, our subject, was born on his father's farm in Wayne county, Ohio, April 13, 1842, and at any early age was left motherless, never knowing her care. His stepmother, however, was a very intelligent woman and young Simon, through her kindness, never realized the loss of his own mother, as she treated him as well as she did her own children. His advantages for securing an education were received in Middlebury township, this county, whither he had removed with his parents when in his eleventh year. He learned farming when young and early began life for himself. On March 15, 1861, when twenty years of age, he married and subsequently settled down to farming in Middlebury township, renting land of his father. One year later he moved to La Grange county, Ind., where his father had timber land, partially improved a farm there, but sold this for his father and returned to Middlebury township. For about ten years he rented land of his father and about 1872 he bought forty acres of his father's land, a short distance south of the corporation of Middlebury. Later he sold this land and bought 110 acres further south on the same road. This land he still owns and on this he resided until he came to Middlebury in 1892. By thrift and industry he gradually added to his farm until he now owns 172 acres of good land. In 1892 he bought a pleasant residence in Middlebury and now makes that town his home. Mrs. Griner is a member of the Lutheran Church, and takes much interest in church work. Mr. Griner is a strict Democrat in politics. To Mr. and Mrs. Griner have been born five children: William, Edward, John W., Valentine, Oscar and Frank. The first named married Miss Frances Bedford, and is clerking in Middlebury. They have two children: John W., married Miss Effie Shutt, and is on his father's farm, and Valentine, married Miss Bertha Boles, and is a farmer on the home place. Simon Griner is one of the sterling citizens whose career has been one of industry and frugality. By thrift and perseverance he has accumulated a comfortable property, and to-day stands deservedly high as an honest, upright man. His word is as good as his bond. He is descended from good old colonial stock and may well take pride in his ancestors.

Samuel F. Cripe is a descendant of one of the oldest pioneers in Elkhart county, Ind., Emanuel Cripe, who is now living on Elkhart Prairie, where he been three children: Barbara, Mary and Simon. After marriage Mr. and Mrs. Gruber settled on a farm in Wayne county, Ohio, and here his wife died a number of years later. He subsequently married Salome Householder, daughter of a German Reformed preacher, and five children were the fruits of this union: Harvey, Ann, Kate, Adam and Jane. In 1853 Mr. Gruber moved to his present farm in Middlebury township, Elkhart Co., Ind. He bought 225 acres of improved land, for which he paid $5,000, and which had very good improvements for those days. On this farm his second wife died and Mr. Gruber returned to Ohio, and was married in Stark county to Mrs. Sarah Volt, formerly Miss Jacoby. Mr. and Mrs. Gruber are members of the Lutheran Church and Mr. Gruber is the founder of the Gruber Lutheran Church. He gave the land upon which it stands and he was also the largest contributor toward the erection of the church. He was one of the building committee, has been deacon for eight years and church trustee since the church was built. He has always been a prosperous man, but what he has accumulated has been by hard labor. At one time he owned 600 acres of land in Indiana, but much of this he has since sold and divided the money among his children. When starting out for himself he had limited means and was obliged to work very hard to get a start. followed farming during the greater part of the active years of his life. He is now in the eighty-sixth year, to which patriarchal age he has attained, without doubt, by correct living and by the possession of a sound constitution, inherited from his German ancestors. He was born in Dayton, Ohio, October 7, 1806, and was a son of David Cripe, a prosperous old farmer of Pennsylvania, but in an early day removed from Somerset county to Ohio, where he carved out a home for himself in the woods of Montgomery county. His father, Jacob Cripe, came from Germany, and until his death was a resident of the Keystone State. Daniel Cripe became a resident of the State of Indiana in the spring of 1829. His wife was Madeline Miller, by whom he became the father of the following children: Samuel, Benjamin, John, Daniel, Emanuel, Betsey, Susan, Kate and Polly, all of whom came to Indiana within a few years of each other, having married in Ohio. Mr. Cripe came to Indiana before the land had been opened for settlement, and the Indians were plentiful but peaceful. They often came to his house, especially in the watermelon season. He owned a good farm of 200 acres on Elkhart Prairie, and was the first Dunkard preacher in northern Indiana. He possessed many Christian virtues, led a simple and unostentatious life, and through his instrumentality many of the substantial, law-abiding and patriotic Dunkard families of that section came to the region. Throughout life he used the German language, and lived to be eighty-eight years of age. His brother Jacob lived to be ninety-nine years of age and also died in this county. Emanuel Cripe was born in Ohio in 1806, was reared on a farm, and after his marriage to Catherine, daughter of Joseph Miksell, he settled on land in Ohio, where their eldest child, Susan, was born. About 1830 he removed to Indiana, and there the remainder of his children were born, as follows: Samuel, Mary, Eli, Betsy, Nettie, Lydia, Rebecca and Noah. Mr. Cripe had driven a team through to this State in 1829 and entered land, which, by hard work and industry, he increased to 600 acres, besides three houses and lots in Goshen. Although his literary education was lacking, he was naturally an intelligent man, and it was owing to this and to his energy and thrift, that he acquired his property. He was a hard worker, retired at dark, rose at 4 o'clock in the morning and lost no time, for on rainy days his time was spent in spinning flax. Realizing the value of a good education, his children were given the advantages of the common schools, and when they started out in life for themselves he gave them a considerable amount of either land or money. In politics he has always been a Democrat. Samuel F. Cripe, his son, and the subject of this sketch, was born on the home farm, two miles from Goshen, July 27, 1832, and in that vicinity was reared to manhood and received some schooling. He was married to Elizabeth M———, daughter of Adam M———, a shoemaker, of Locke township, and to them one child was born, Susan, whose birth occurred September 29, 185–. Her mother died on the 8th of March, 1855, and on the 10th of June, 1857, Mr. Cripe took for his second wife Eliza Stomotis, whose maiden name was Myers, a daughter of Adam Myers, a farmer of Stark county, Ohio. To this second union the following children were born: Amos, born August 5, 18—; Ella Nora, July 11, ——; Jesse, October 28, ——; Ishmael, July 4, 1862; Jefferson, October 31, 1864; Mary C., May 18, 1866. After the death of his second wife, on the 16th of July, 1874, Mr. Cripe married, December 9, 1874, Mary Berkey, born August 30, 1836, daughter of Eliza and Nancy (Miller) Berkey. He was a substantial farmer of Somerset county, Penn. Mr. and Mrs. Cripe settled on a farm two miles southwest of Goshen, and lived there about fifteen years. By thrift he added to his farm until he was the owner of 300 acres of land, then moved three miles north of Middlebury, where his farm comprised 270 acres. This land he sold, however, in 1891, with the exception of eighty acres. Since that time he has owned and conducted a saw-mill in Middlebury, besides forty-one acres of land south of the town, and four lots and three residences in the town. He has been a member of the Dunkard Church for more than twenty years, and a deacon in the same for some fifteen years. He has been generous with his means in the support of this church, Elkhart Co.

and has reared his children in that faith with the exception of Jefferson. Mrs. Mary Cripe was the mother of five children by her first husband (Mr. Gardener): Anna Eliza, born August 25, 1849; Nancy J., born April 3, 1861; John F., born February 6, 1863; Eliza P., February 2, 1870, and Cora A., August 10, 1873.

James L. Robison. This experienced and successful miller of Clay township thoroughly understands every detail of his line of work, and the superiority of his product is well known and has become the means of placing it in every well-conducted grocery establishment in the county, which is, without doubt, the strongest endorsement the flour could have. Mr. Robison was born in Erie county, Penn., April 16, 1832, to James and Betsy (Gouldin) Robison, the former of whom was born in New York and the latter in Pennsylvania. The father was born and reared in Rochester, and during his youth learned the miller's trade in that famous city of grist-mills, to which occupation he devoted his attention the greater part of his life. He was married in Erie county, Penn., to Betsy Gouldin, a daughter of Naham Gouldin, who was born and reared on Long Island, N. Y. The wife of Mr. Gouldin was of Scotch descent. To Mr. and Mrs. Robison seven children were born: Clara, Jane, Louis, Louisa (deceased), Philenia, Alonzo and James L. After the celebration of Mr. Robison's marriage, he and his wife resided in Erie county, Penn., until their respective deaths, the former always devoting his attention to the occupation of milling, in which he was successful and proficient. James L. Robison, his son, was reared in his native county and learned milling under his father, in whom he had an experienced and intelligent teacher. He remained with his parents until he was twenty-one years old, but in 1853 removed to Coldwater, Mich., and purchased sixty acres of land near Batavia, where he successfully tilled the soil until 1887, when he disposed of his property there and purchased the grist-mill in Clay township, on the St. Joseph River, which he now owns and very successfully operates. Mr. Robison was married in September, 1870, to Miss Mary Ensley, who was born in Branch county, Mich., to George and Lydia (Great) Ensley, native Ohioans, who were early residents of the "Lake State." The marriage of Mr. Robison has resulted in the birth of five children: Jay, Cora, Fred, Bessie and Frank (deceased). Mr. Robison has always supported the Democratic party, and is an intelligent, well-posted and public-spirited man on all subjects.

~~Dr. Benjamin F. Teters. This professional~~ gentleman, ~~whose skill in the healing~~ art is well known not only through Middlebury township, but also throughout Elkhart county, was born in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, October 16, 1860, and inherits all the sturdy characteristics of the Teutonic ancestors from which he sprang. His great-grandfather was born in Germany, but at an early date came to America and was one of the pioneer settlers of Westmoreland county, Penn. His son, Daniel Teters, the grandfather of our subject, was born in Bedford county, Penn., but subsequently settled in Westmoreland county, Penn., where he reared his family of eight children. His son, Daniel Teters, father of subject, was born in that county and was there married to Miss Leah Stough, daughter of Daniel and Catherine (Claypool) Stough. Mr. Stough was born in Pennsylvania and of German descent. At an early date he moved to Tuscarawas county, Ohio, as a pioneer citizen, and became a wealthy farmer. He was the father of nine children: Leah, Solomon, John, Rachel, Elizabeth, Mary, Jacob, Daniel and Josiah. Mr. Stough was a member of the Lutheran Church and died in that faith when seventy-four years of age. The Claypools were of English descent and descended from an old and wealthy family. Mr. Teters settled in Tuscarawas county where he followed milling, and met with a fair degree of success in that calling. His marriage resulted in the birth of eight children, as follows: Josiah, John D., Marion F., Leah C., Marion E., Mary E., Barbara and Benjamin F. In politics Mr. Teters is a stanch Democrat and during the war he was a strong Union man. His son, Josiah, enlisted in the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry; John D., another son, in the Eightieth Regiment, and died of typhoid fever at Paducah, Ky.,

Death: Nov. 13, 2006
Wenatchee
Chelan County
Washington, USA

Lucelia Callison died Monday evening, November 13, 2006, in her home after a battle with cancer. Lucelia was born September 21, 1916 at Minot, ND and was adopted immediately by William and Johanna Swihart Strycker in Vidora, Saskatchewan, Canada. She moved back to the United States as a young child.

When Lucelia was almost five years old, the school teacher boarded in their home as was the custom of the time, and the teacher indicated that Lucelia could attend school. She rode to the one room schoolhouse on horseback each day. In 1937, Lucelia married Milton Stanley Callison in Tacoma. After living in Wenatchee for several months, the couple moved to Tacoma, for employment and this is where they raised their two sons.

Lucelia worked as a dental assistant at Western State Hospital for 25 years, retiring in 1978. She and Milton moved to Sunland Estates near Quincy when they retired, and spent many years traveling to various spots around the nation. They finally returned to Wenatchee in 1985, when Milton's health began to decline.

Lucelia and Milton were very active in their church in Tacoma and were long time youth workers who were very active with "their kids". They remained active in the Wenatchee Brethren Baptist Church when they returned to Wenatchee.

Lucelia is survived by sons, Michael Callison (Judy) of Huntington Beach, CA and Gary Callison (Ida Marie) of Wenatchee. Grandchildren include Dana Lesinski and Michele Barrett, both of Huntington Beach, CA; Kristin Callison of Seattle and Matthew Callison of Alameda, CA. Great-grandchildren include Rebecca, Joshua and Jacob Lesinski and Bridgett and Jeremy Barrett, all of Huntington Beach, CA. Lucelia was preceded in death by her husband Milton; and two sisters. She is also survived by a special niece, Karen Kooy of Quincy.

A Graveside Service will be held Saturday, November 18, 2006, at 1 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Park. The casket will remain closed at all times. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Central Washington Home Health and Hospice.

DEXTER - Ennis Pearl Clayton of Dexter, OR. died Feb. 3 at the age of 92. Her family chose not to list the cause of death. Ennis was born Aug. 20, 1911, in Lacomb, OR. to Charles and Ossie Carter Bedel. She married Loren Clayton in Eugene on Sept. 1, 1931. He died April 11, 1982. Her family settled in Dexter when she was two years old, and she lived on the same property for the rest of her life. She was a homemaker, and she enjoyed being outdoors tending her roses and working in her garden. She especially enjoyed hunting and fishing with her husband and they were familiar with the mountain roads and trails for miles around. Survivors include a niece, Marleen Klohn of Lost Creek. A son, John, died in May of 1998. Burial, Lane Memorial Gardens in Eugene. Arrangements by Musgrove Family Mortuary, Eugene, OR.

(On the Coulters, I can only identify three children, so my numbers are different from yours, but you will recognize their names)

C22-961-LEA GRANT COULTER (I always find him as LEA) except in the 1900 census he is listed as Alva L. Coulter, yet the children are the same as those listed in 1910 when he and children live with his sister, who is married to Cyrus Cripe. Lea Grant Coulter married Mary Hodges 8 March 1887, Cleveland County, Arkansas. She was born about 1870. I don't know what happened to her or when. I have not found a marriage record for him to Bertha, but they are together in 1900, Madison County, Arkansas.

C22-962-IDA MAY COULTER. I think you have her info.

C22-963-MARY ALICE COULTER-was born 27 May 1876 Jackson Co. Arkansas, and married Jasper Jason Cross on 19 August 1896, Elkhart Co. Ind. They divorced and later remarried 11 September 1920, Niles, Berrien Co. Michigan. Jasper Jason, son of Richard Cross and Calista Minerva Rogers, was born 20 July 1849, Lake County, Indiana, and died 23 December 1925, Elkhart Co. Indiana, and Mary Alice died there 11 October 1928. Burials are in the Pine Lake Cemetery, La Porte County, Indiana. They had one child: Vina May Cross. Jasper was previously married to Aurilla Warford who died in 1894.

C22-971-CLARA E. HOWARD-was born 16 May 1864, Woodson County, Kansas. She married Vance Reynolds Hamilton 14 December 1881, Harper County, Kansas. Vance, son of Thomas M. Hamilton and Mary E. Reynolds, was born 14 December 1858, Zalenski, Ohio, and died 2 March 1910, in Idaho. Clara died at Boise, Idaho, 14 December 1949, with burial in the Morris Hill cemetery. The known children are: Nellie Mable, Harold Vernon and Loy Thomas Hamilton.

C22-972-WILLIAM M. HOWARD-was born 7 December 1867, Woodson or Wilson County, Kansas. He married Edith Lillian Kuns about 1918 in Arizona.. Edith Lillian, daughter of George Kuns and Adda Horde, was born 14 January 1900, Macoupin County, Arizona, and died of influenza and pneumonia, 11 November 1918, Prescott, Arizona. Burial is in the Greenwood Cemetery at Prescott. William died 17 June 1951, Council, Adams County, Idaho, with burial in the Meadows Valley Cemetery.

C22-973-ARCHIE J. HOWARD-nothing more found.

C22-974-DELILAH-(LILA) E. HOWARD-was born 2 November 1872, Wilson County, Kansas. She married Joseph Preston Wilson 3 May 1891, Wallowa County, Oregon. Joseph, son of Valentine O. Wilson and Armilda Jane Boyer, was born 4 November 1856, Edgar County, Illinois, and died 9 June 1931, Grants Pass, Oregon. Lillie died at Grants Pass, on 16 May 1946. Interments are in the Granite Hill cemetery. They had a son, Willard Wilson. (Jeff, Joseph was previously married and had other children, in case someone thinks there are more children-first wife died in 1889)

C22-975-EVA C. HOWARD-nothing more found.

C22-976-ANNIE J. HOWARD-nothing more found.

C22-98-DAVID D. MIKESELL-committed suicide at Great Bend, Barton County, Kansas, 19 May 1914. With burial in the Neodesha Cemetery, Wilson County, Kansas. He was married to Anna Elizabeth McPaul, daughter of Thomas D. McPaul and Deborah McGrew. I found her parents' marriage for the name change for Anna's mother. You probably don't want to put this in your book, but the newspaper says "committed suicide this evening, using a loaded shotgun to blow out his brains". The papers used to be so "tell all", didn't they.

C22-981-CARL CURTIS MIKESELL-married Myrtle Hayes, 4 December 1901, Carter County, Oklahoma. She was born 19 Dec 1881, in Oklahoma. (I can't find her with her parents in 1900) She died 1 November 1974, San Bernardino County, California, and Carl Curtis died there 20 June 1960. These dates are from the California, death records index. The children I found listed in the census were: Cecil C, Glenn C., William, Helen and Lucy M. Mikesell.

C22-982-LUCY MABEL MIKESELL- married Lemuel Morrison 22 May 1904, Wilson County, Kansas, and died in 1963, Great Bend, Barton County, Kansas. Lemuel, son of James Morrison & Ellen (?), was born in 1867, Wilson County, and died in 1928, Great Bend, Barton County, Kansas. They are interred in the Great Bend Cemetery.

C22-983-DAVID PORTER MIKESELL-was born 30 July 1882, Wilson County, Kansas. According to a Deed Record in Wilson Co.in 1916, he was married to Genevieve (?) I cannot find a marriage date or them together in the census, nor her death date & place. They resided in Seattle, King County, Washington, at that time. David died 2 August 1926, Ferndale, Whatcom County, Washington, with burial in the Woodlawn Cemetery. On his death record it says his wife is Amelia. They got married about 1922. Amelia was born 27 July 1883, in Sweden, and died 18 July 1971. Her burial is at Ferndale in the Greenacres Memorial Park.

C22-984-MARY MARGARET MIKESELL- was born 1 September 1883, Wilson County, Kanas, and married John Russell Heath 10 May 1903, Wilson County. John Russell Heath, son of Arthur Heath and Mary Underhill, was born 13 March 1876, Wilson County. They moved to New Mexico, hoping the climate would improve Mary's health where she died 19 February 1912, Hagerman, New Mexico. Her remains were returned to Wilson County, Kansas, where she is interred in the Neodesha Cemetery. John Russell Heath died 26 April 1950, in Sedgwick County Kansas, and is interred in the Neodesha Cemetery. The children listed are: David Arthur, George Daniel, Lois Marie and Anna Alice Heath.

C22-985-BLAINE ALEXANDER MIKESELL-was born 17 May 1888, Wilson County, Kansas, and married Helen Elvira Lesco 12 February 1908, Wilson County. Helen, daughter of David A. Lesco & Mary Alice Johnson, was born 15 October 1891, in (?) Kansas, and died 19 October 1946, Thurston County, Washington. Blaine died there 11 December 1955. Interments are in the Odd Fellows Memorial Park. The children listed are: Fred, Jean, and Shirley Mikesell.

C22-99-HANNAH MIKESELL-married James J. Phillips who died 5 April 1915, Winn Parish, Louisiana, and is interred in the Neodesha cemetery. Hannah and James had only one child: Etta Phillips. (James death info from the Louisiana Statewide Death Index, and he was living there in 1910)

C22-991-LAURA, C22-992-ETTA, AND C22-993-CHARLES PHILLIPS-None of whom were born in Indiana, and only one is a child of Hannah Mikesell and James J .Phillips. That would be Etta Phillips, who follows. They never did live in Indiana.

C22-991-ETTA PHILLIPS-was born 16 January 1870, Wilson County, Kansas. She married Reuben B. Wilson 9 March 1890, Wilson County, Kansas. Reuben son of William Wilson & Emma Watkinson was born in 1863, Wilson County, and died there 29 March 1900. This was an accidental death when working in the oil field, as rig builder.

C229-(10)1-GRACE MIKESELL- correction on her birthdate from obit and cemetery is 24 June 1884. She and her husband both died in Wilson County, Kansas, with interments in the Neodesha cemetery. Grace's husband, Lyman Martin Greer, was the son of John M. Greer and Luella (Lue) Richardson.

C229-(10)2-FAYREN LOUIS MIKESELL-married Mattie Elizabeth May about 1909. Mattie, daughter of John T. May & Laura Belle Williams, was born February 1887, Brown County, Illinois. Mattie died between 1930 and 1932, in California. Mattie and Fayren had two children: Louis L. and John Fayren Mikesell. Fayren married again to Uridell (?) about 1932 in California. No children listed. Fayren died 8 January 1966, Los Angeles County, California. NOTICE MATTIE'S NAME INCORRECT ON OTHER REPORT.

C229-(10)3-ETHEL MIKESELL-was born 29 December 1887, Wilson County, Kansas, and married John Joseph Cummings 18 January 1905, Allen County, Kansas. He is the son of Thomas Cummings & Kathryn Sullivan. He was born 10 April 1882, New York, and died 28 August 1947, Tarrant County, Texas. Ethel died there in May 1981. Interments are in the Mt.Olivet Cemetery, Fort Worth Texas. The children listed are: Esther R., Joseph T., Margaret, Lois E., and John C. Cummings.

C229-(10)4-INEZ MIKESELL-married Harley W. Woody 20 September 1913, Harper County, Oklahoma. Harley, son of William and (?) was born August 1886 in Kansas. They were divorced before 1920. The date and place of his death is not known. Inez and Harley had a daughter: Joy Jane Woody.

Inez married second to Andrew J. Ashcraft about 1921 in Texas. Andrew, son of Andrew J. Ashcraft, Sr. and Josephine Shepard was born 30 May 1879, Fayette County, Alabama. He preceded Inez in death on 23 February 1943, Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas and Inez died there on 31 August 1959. Interments are in the Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Fort Worth. They had twin sons: Joseph Collins and Andrew Jackson Ashcraft.

C229-(10)5-COLLINS J. MIKESELL-married Dulcena Leah Horsley 9 August 1913. Dulcena, daughter of Benjamin Horsley & Mary J. Marrow, was born 12 February 1892, Walnut, Crawford County, Kansas. Her death date is not known, but she likely died in Tarrant County, Texas, where they resided in 1920. Collins died 14 October 1973, Hennessey, Kingfisher County, Oklahoma. They had one daughter: Mary Frances Mikesell.

C229-(11)1-KATE MIKESELL-I haven't found anything for Kate.

Following is something of interest.

C229-(11)-JOHN N. MIKESELL- you ask one time if I thought 1st wife Laura Wheeler was previously married and I say not, as she was only 16 in 1876.

On the birth of the infant male in 1890. Two recordings in Elkhart Co. IN, births.

Male - John & Laura Wheeler - 13 Jan 1890 Ch3 -75 ??

Male - John & Lara Kriter - 3 Jan 1890 H-5-16 ??

Notice-John & Laura/Lura divorced 1 June 1894 -and he married Louisa Alice Stotts Crider 2 July 1894.

Now I found this—Mrs. Laura Mikesell married Louis J. Cundiff in Missouri, 31 January 1894 in Livingston, County. They are together in the 1900 census and it says she is born in June 1860, Missouri, and has had 5 children with 1 living, which would be Kate. There was quite a spread between the three children who were born in 1876, 1880, and 1890, so it is quite likely she had other children. Her death record says she died in Carthage, Jasper County, MO., 20 November 1911. Burial is in the Park Cemetery, Carthage, Missouri. Whoever answered the questions didn't know who her parents were.

He got married in a hurry and she married before the divorce was done. Those births are strange, but if true—I would have left him too. I didn't know if you wanted to update your book, but thought you would be interested anyway.

I think Arkansas is abbreviated AR. I believe you have AK., and Washington is WA, and I believe you have WS for this one.

MRS. EMMA T. STOUDER

Mrs. Emma T. Stouder, 72, died suddenly Saturday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at her home, one-half mile south of Bristol, while seated in a chair. Death was due to heart trouble from which she had been suffering for the past several months.

She was the widow of Chauncey Stouder, who died two years ago last August. The deceased, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Teeter, was born in Harrison township. She was a member of the Church of the Brethren. She had resided near Bristol for 15 years, moving there from a farm west of Goshen.

Mrs. Stouder is survived by seven children, Mrs. Charles Crowell, of Goshen; Clyde, of Dunlap, Mrs. Earl Swinehart, of Elkhart; Mrs. Vernon King, of Bristol; Alonzo B., at home; Merle, of Elkhart, and Mrs. Grover Phillips, of Peoria, Ill., 17 grandchildren and three great grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace, of Elkhart and Mrs. Ben Yoder, of near Elkhart.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at the home at 1:30 o'clock and at the West Side Church of the Brethren, Goshen, at 2:30 o'clock. The Revs. Frank Krider and William Hess will officiate. Burial will be made in the West Side cemetery.

200 Years of Mikesell Family History

From 1756 to 1956

According to information received from Great Uncle Benjamin Mil[illegible]e Mikesell who was born Feby 25th. 1821 and who spent the active years of his life at Springfield Missouri the earliest trace of the Mikesells in their Pilgrimage through the Nations was as follows- From Cicily to Switzerland-From Switzerland to Germany-From Germany to Holland and from Holland to America.

Our Record obtained from Family Records in the old Dutch and English Family Bibles starts from Germany.

First Generation Recorded

Great-Great-Great Grand-Father Jacob Mikesell was born in Germany March 27th. 1756.
He emigrated from Germany to Holland and from Holland to America settling in Maryland but later moved to Pennsylvania.

Jacob Mikesell had four Brothers-Martin,John,-Andrew and Phillip.

We do not know just how many of these brothers came to America but Family Records state that one of these brothers John when he landed in Maryland had the folliwing inscription on the first page of his German Bible.

John Mikesell My Name.

Germany My Birth Place.

Maryland My Station

Christ My Salvation

Heaven My home.

Jacob Mikesell had four sons-Peter,Joseph,John and David and one Daughter Catherine.

Second Generation in our Ancestral line.

eat,
eat,
and-ther

Joseph Mikesell mentioned above amng the sons of Jacob Mikesell was born Oct. 29th. 1778 in Pennsylvania but later moved to near Dayton Ohio settling on Wolf Creek in Montgomery County.

This Joseph Mikesell had four sons Davis,Joseph,John and Benjamin and Three Daughters - Susanna,Catherine and Francis.

At least three of these sons eventulally came West the oldest David who heads the next Generation in our direct Ancestral line spending the latter part of his life at Neodesha Kansas while his brother Joseph settled at Fort Scott Kansas founding the Mikesells there and the youngest son Benjamin settled in Springfield Missouri establishing the Mikesell Family there.

Third Generation in our Record

The David Mikesell Family.

Great Grand-Father David Mikesell mentioned above among the sons of Great-Great Grand-Father Joseph Mikesell was born February 5th. 1803 near Dayton Ohio.
He married Catherine Cripe who was born May 6th. 1812.

In Feby 1836 with their four young daughters they emigrated to Goshen Indiana where most of their other children were born.

In 1853 they again emigrated with most of their family although some of the older daughers remained at Goshen Ing with the rest of the family emigrating to Cedar Rapids Iowa.

In 1859 again the family emigrated to Neodho Falls Kansas.

Most of the children were grown by this time and three of the sons Daniel,David and Joseph enlisted in ther Union Army for Service in the Civil War.

The youngest Son John not being old enough for Military Service.

This David Mikesell had the Record large family in our ancestral line there being the four sons who I have just mentioned above and nine daughters -Two of the daughters who were the youngest Amanda and Lydia dying in early xhildhood while the other seven daughters who grew to woman hood were Elizabeth,Fanny,Susanna,Catherine,Sarah, Mary and Hanah.

About 1869 most of the Family again enifrated to Wilson County Kansas the Parents , all four brothers the sons and two of the daughters Mrs.Jim Phillips and Mrs.Abe Howard settling in or near Neodesha .

Fourth Generation of our fanily Record

The Daniel L Mikesell Family.

Grand Father son of Great Grand-Father David Mikesell mentioned above was born April 3rd. 1836 at Goshen Indiana .

~~In 1853~~ In 1853 he emigrated with his family to ~~While livin~~ Cedar Rapids Iowa.

While living at Cedar Rapids Iowa he met and later married ~~Mary Jane Lingel~~ Mary Jane Lingel May 27th. 1857

Mary Jane(Lingle) Mikesell was a daughter of Thomas Lingle and Jane Starnes Lingle.

Thomas Lingle had emigrated from ~~Ohio~~ Pennsylvania to Ohio and from Ohio to Indiana settling near Goshen Ind. where Mary Jane was born and later moving to Cedar Rapids Iowa.

In 1859 Daniel L and Mary Jane Mikesell following the westward trend of population moved with other members of the Mikesell Family moved to Neosho Falls in Woodson County Kan.

Here they went through the hard-ships of the early Kansas settlers through the troubled Civil War period the Mother living on a Home-Stead with three young children while the Father was in Service in the Union Army.

They had Droughts then just as we do today and crops were uncertain.
They found the soil in Woodson county rather un-fertile so about 1869 they again moved this time to Wilson County so settling on a Home-Stead abou half way between where Fredonia and Neodesha were later located.
Again they endured the privations of Pioneer life.

A Log House was built and trees felled and rails split to make corrells for live-stock .
Fredonia was not even started but the site of Fredonia was then a meadow of prairie grass.

Neodesha was what was called an Indian Trading Post.

The Name Neodesha is said to be of Indian origen meaning -Where the waters meet- since Fall River and the Verdigris join just below Neodesha.

There was not a rail-road in this county.

The nearest rail road station was at Humbolt Kan. about 40 miles to the north-east.
To obtain necessary supplies the men had to make a trip to Humbolt by team and wagon .

There was no bridges and roads were little more than Indian trails.

The round trip required several days the settler camping out at night.

There was more Indians than White Settlers but the Indians were largely of the Osage tribe and friendly to the settlers.

When Daniel Mikesell home-steaded his land was at the very South edge of Government owned land.

Land to the south was still owned by the Indians.

However a few years later a treaty was made with the Indians giving them a reservation in what was then called -The Indian Territory- (Now Oklahoma) .

My older Sisters had vivid memories of the Indians but by the time that I was old enough to remember the Indians had all left Sothern Kansas for their Reservation to the South of Kansas.

I am glad that my Parents lived to see Wilson County develop into a stable and prosperous community with good rail-roads and towns and many of the comforts of modern life.

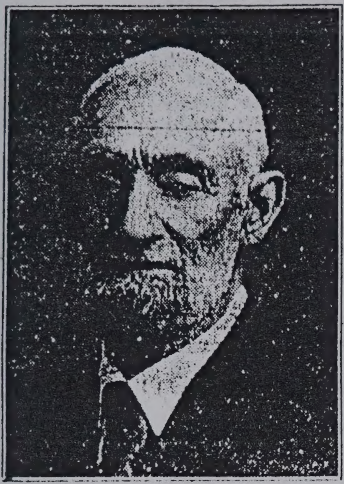
A PIONEER DIES

D. L. Mikesell, 93 Years of Age, Died Early This Morning



D. L. Mikesell, one of the oldest inhabitants of Wilson county, died at his home in Fredonia last night at 12:40 o'clock, after a life of 71 years in the state of Kansas. He has perhaps seen as much, or more of the development of Wilson county from an Indian nation to a modern community, than any man living in Wilson county today.

Three years ago the Daily Herald published the life story of Mr. Mikesell, from a conversation held with him, and that the many friends of this fine old pioneer and his family may better realize the vicissitudes and trials of our forefathers, we reproduce it in full:

Celebrating his 90th birth anniversary this spring, D. L. Mikesell of Fredonia, whose history we give below, stands first among our oldest citizens as well as one of our earliest pioneers.

Mr. Mikesell, who enjoys the best of health, and is yet, at his advanced age, quite active, enjoys also telling of the trials and tribulations of a pioneer of Kansas, of the bitter hardships that have been met and overcome, of the sorrows and the joys of early Kansas life. For the joys were great and were enjoyed, because they were won only at the expense of great toil and sorrow.

Mr. Mikesell was born April 3, 1836 at Goshen, Ind., in Elkhart county, and left that place in the spring of 1853, going to Iowa where he lived for five years at Cedar Rapids. He came to Kansas at the age of 22 years, bringing a young wife with him, locating at Neosho Falls in 1858. He resided at that place until February, 1869, when he came to Wilson county bringing as his personal property two yoke of oxen and two yoke of cows that he had brought to Kansas with him from Iowa.

Mr. Mikesell in those early days at Neosho Falls took a pioneer's part in the dangers of the early days before the war, and at its outbreak became a member of the militia in which he served for two years during the war, this being particularly a scouting organization, stationed at Humboldt in 1863, and later being a part of the regular army in 1864. With this militia scouting company he rode the plains of southeastern Kansas keeping in check the activities of the Missouri ruffians, the rampaging Indians and the riffraff and backwash of the mighty conflict raging in the more eastern states during the great struggle between the North and South.

At the end of the war, Mr. Mikesell was ordered to go to California and on the California stage line progressed as far as Ft. Lyon, Colo., where on account of illness he was left in a hospital, later to be discharged and returned to his home at Neosho Falls in 1865. At this time he was a member of Company I, 16th Kansas cavalry.

But Neosho Falls, though a frontier post, had become too cramped with civilization for a man of Mr. Mikesell's makeup and he and his family pulled up stakes and started for greener pastures, where as he expressed it, he might emerge from his cabin door of a morning and stretch, without striking his neighbor with his fists.

Taking a liking to the country that later became Wilson county, Mr. Mikesell took a claim ¾ mile northwest of Dun station, on what was then called the Osage Trust lands. This was then a wild country, the streams supported only a few adventurous, hardy settlers along their banks while the hills and uplands were completely unpeopled, given over to migrating Indians, the antelope and wolf.

At that time there were no Fredonia nor Neodesha, these future busy little towns being marked by only box shanties. At Fredonia Al Troxel and Mr. Mosley kept a little store and later Al Mariner kept another. There was nothing between Mr. Mikesell to the north until the Verdigris valley was reached, nothing but Indians to the south and to the west only one log house between Dun station and Elk City.

Mr. Mikesell stated that he had seen the two mounds that now are included in this city in 1863, when as a member of the cavalry he came through Wilson county hunting strayed horses. He stated that on this ride he found two heavy iron kettles at the salt springs near what is now Fall River city and that he stayed all night at Ft. Rowe, located on the Verdigris above the Moss bridge at what was then known as Mayes' crossing. Later this place was called the Neff crossing.

Mr. Mikesell took up eighty acres when he first came here and later another claim. Here he built his shanty and began the arduous task of carving a homestead from the wilderness.

He remembers the establishment of the town of Fredonia, but traded mostly for his meager wants at a little store at the foot of Little Bear mound near Neodesha, run by Doc McCartney and Alex Phelon. There were not many Indians settled in this part of the country at that time, although the south line of his place was located on the northern boundary of what was then the Osage nation. There was a settlement of these prairie nomads in Little Bear town near Neodesha and another at Whitehair ford, located where the Whitehair bridge stands on the Wilson-Montgomery county line. At that time the south tier of townships in what is now Wilson county had not been surveyed.

There was no law and order in those days and although Mr. Mikesell on this point is reticient, it may be sufficient to say that when he mentioned the fact that each settler or each group of settlers administered the law according to the known facts and the Bible, plus pioneer energy and determination, we may rest assured that the foundations of this state were laid by strong hands and stout hearts, that the way of the transgressor was hard and the fear of Judge Lynch kept the predatory instincts of the outlaw and the ruffian within due bounds except in the more remote places.

DANIEL MIKESELL DIED AT FREDONIA SATURDAY.

Daniel Mikesell, aged 93 years, 4 months and 6 days, father of E. P. Mikesell, died last Saturday at 12:40 a. m. at the family residence in Fredonia. Mr. Mikesell had been very ill for several days and his death was not unexepected.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was made in the family lot in Neodesha cemetery beside the grave of his wife, who died several years ago.

Daniel Mikesell was born in Indiana, in 1836, he later resided in Iowa, where he was married to May J. Lingel. In 1859 the Mikesell family moved to Woodson county, Kans., and in 1868 they settled in Wilson county. Mr. Mikesell was a veteran of the Civil war, serving with a Kansas company for two years. When the Mikesell family settled in Talleyrand township this was still a primitive country. Daniel Mikesell became one of the leaders among the settlers. He has resided in Fredonia for a nnmber of years since leaving the farm.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Mary J. Mikesell, wife of Dan'l L. Mikesell, died at her home near Dun station, in Talleyrand township, Thursday morning, July 5, 1906, aged 71 years. She was a native of Kosciusko county, Indiana. She was married in Iowa to D. L. Mikesell, where the family resided till 1859, when they moved to Woodson county, Kansas. In 1868 Mr. Mikesell and family settled in Talleyrand township, where he preempted 140 acres of land, improved it and has since made it their home. The deceased was the mother of five children, viz: Amanda, deceased wife of E. J. Rollins; Alice, a professional nurse of Colorado Springs but now in Italy; E. D. Mikesell, attorney of Fredonia; Alpha, who married W. E. Bowers and resides near Fredonia, and Larcen, who still lives on the old homestead.

In the death of Mrs. Mikesell Wilson county loses another one of its pure and noble women, a brave and patient pioneer, a devoted wife and affectionate mother. Through all the ups and downs of the early settlers she was a kind, generous neighbor and true friend, always helpful and cheerful to those about her. She always had a good word and pleasant smile for everyone and her departure causes sadness and tears in the homes of her many friends. The sorrowing husband and children have the profound sympathy of all.

Funeral services were held this forenoon and the remains were laid at rest in the Neodesha cemetery.

been carefully looked after, and one item of improvement in particular that should be mentioned is the notable increase in construction of substantial cement sidewalks. Mr. Sherwood is a member of the Anti-Horse Thief Association.

He and his wife are the parents of five children: Elizabeth, born December 1, 1898, a senior in the Grenola High School; Francis Marlin, born June 22, 1901, a member of the sophomore class of the high school; Joy Lester, born December 9, 1906, in the grammar school; Vera Maxine, born February 15, 1912; and Eula Pauline, born November 17, 1915.

EDWIN D. MIKESELL. The long and uniformly progressive career of Edwin D. Mikesell, of Fredonia, has been characterized by several noticeable personal traits, among which may be mentioned versatility of talents combined with thoroughness of preparation and depth of legal knowledge. A man of broad education and wide experience, of high personal character, courteous and able, he is not alone one of Wilson County's strong legists, but a man who has served his community and his state in positions of official importance, in which he has demonstrated unusual executive ability.

Mr. Mikesell was born on a farm nine miles southeast of Fredonia, in Wilson County, Kansas, November 13, 1871, and is a son of Daniel L. and Mary (Lingel) Mikesell. The Mikesell family was founded in America by Jacob Mikesell, the great-great-grandfather of Edwin D., who was a native of Germany and on coming to this country settled in Pennsylvania, where he spent the remainder of his life in agricultural pursuits. His son, Joseph Mikesell, was the great-grandfather of Edwin D. Among his children was David Mikesell, the grandfather of Edwin D. who was born in 1803 in Montgomery County, Ohio. In 1836 he removed to Indiana, later, in 1853, he continued west to Iowa, and finally, in 1869, located in Woodson County, Kansas, being a pioneer in all these states. His death occurred at Neodesha, Kansas, in 1877, when he was seventy-four years of age. Mr. Mikesell followed farming principally, but was also a mechanical wizard, and in the shop upon his farm made steel traps, spinning wheels and almost any article which his family or his neighbors required. Mr. Mikesell married Miss Catherine Cripe, a native of Indiana, who died in that state, and they had thirteen children: Elizabeth, Fannie, Susannah, Catherine, Daniel L., Sarah, Mary, David D., Hannah, Joseph, John M., Amanda and Lydia. All are dead except Fannie, who resides in Elkhart County, Indiana; Daniel L.; and John N., who is a carpenter of Neodesha, Kansas.

Daniel L. Mikesell was born in 1836, in Indiana, and was reared in Elkhart County, that state, until he was seventeen years of age, at which time he went with his parents to Cedar Rapids, Iowa. There he was married and remained until past twenty-one years of age, and in 1858 came to Kansas and settled near Neosho Falls, in Woodson County, where he pre-empted eighty acres of land. On that property he resided until 1869, when he came to Wilson County and took up a farm nine miles from Fredonia, there carrying on operations until his retirement in 1907, when he disposed of his holdings and removed to Fredonia. Mr. Mikesell has led a successful career, and now, in the evening of life, is in the enjoyment of a comfortable competency. He is a republican, but has not held office. In 1864 he answered the call of his country and enlisted in Company I, Sixteenth Kansas Cavalry, an organization with which he served during the remainder of the Civil war, participating in the battles of Westport, Newtonia, Mine Creek, Missouri, and following Price down into Arkansas at the time of that general's second raid into Missouri. Mr. Mikesell married Miss Mary Lingel, who was born in Indiana, in 1835, and died in Wilson County, Kansas, on the farm, in 1906, and they had six children, namely: Amanda, who died in Wilson County, Kansas, in 1899, as the wife of E. J. Robbins, now a real estate agent of Bloomington, Illinois; Elhanan, who died at the age of nine years; Alice, who is the wife of H. P. Shafer, a heating and plumbing contractor of Fredonia, Kansas; Edwin D., of this notice; Alforetta, who died in Wilson County, Kansas, in 1907, as the wife of W. E. Bowers, a farmer of Osborne County, Kansas; and L. D., who is a merchant of Fredonia, Kansas.

Edwin D. Mikesell received his preliminary schooling in the rural districts of Wilson County and remained on his father's farm until reaching the age of twenty years. At that time he entered the Kansas Normal College at Fort Scott, but after one year began teaching school, and for three years was an instructor in the country schools. In the meantime he prosecuted his law studies with Hon. S. S. Kirkpatrick, and May 7, 1897, was admitted to the bar and began practice at Neodesha, where he remained until January 1, 1901. In the previous fall he had been elected to the office of county attorney of Wilson County and on the date named came to Fredonia to take up the duties of his office, in which he remained four years. He then resumed his civil and criminal practice, but was not long allowed to remain out of public life, and in 1905 was made assistant attorney-general for Wilson County, a position in which he continued for two years. A republican in his political views, Mr. Mikesell has long held a high place in the councils of his party. At Neodesha he served as city treasurer and as city attorney. He has always been a friend of education, and since 1906 has been a member of the school board at Fredonia and for the past six years president thereof. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and secretary of the board of trustees thereof, and is fraternally connected with Harmony Lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, at Neodesha, and with Neodesha Chapter, Royal Arch Masons. Mr. Mikesell belongs to the Kansas State Bar Association and no man in the profession in Wilson County has a higher standing among his fellow practitioners. He has been identified with much important litigation in the state courts, in which he has demonstrated the possession of fine legal talent. His offices are located in the Paulen Building, while his home is at No. 631 North Sixth Street. He has been successful in a material as well as professional way, and is the owner of a farm twelve miles southeast of Fredonia, consisting of 236 acres, and some city realty. At various times he has been identified with enterprises of a business nature, and is now president and a member of the board of directors of the Fredonia Telephone Company. Mr. Mikesell has always been a citizen who has been ready to contribute of his time and abilities to the furtherance of public-spirited movements.

In 1898, in Cherokee County, Kansas, Mr. Mikesell was married to Miss Alice Browning, daughter of V. L. and Nannie Browning, farming people who now reside in the vicinity of Guilford, Montana, and to this union there have been born five children: Ralph E., who is a senior at the Fredonia High School; Alma, a member of the sophomore class at that school; Edwin and Helen, who are attending the graded schools; and Mildred Louise.

EDWARD D. MIKESELL—The present county attorney of Wilson county, ~~E. D.~~ Mikesell, of this review, is a native son of the county and was born November 13, 1871. He comes of parents, Daniel and Mary J. (Lingel) Mikesell ,of Indiana and Iowa nativity, respectively, who were among the first settlers of the state of Kansas. The father was born in 1836 and the mother in 1835 and the former, at the age of seventeen, went into the state of Iowa where he was married and resided till 1859 when he brought his family and effects to Woodson county, Kansas. In 1868 he settled in Talleyrand township, Wilson county, where he pre-empted one hundred and forty acres of land, improved it and has since made it his home. He served in Company I, 16th Kansas cavalry for two years during the war of the rebellion and in his service passed through the territory of Wilson county on a scout in 1864. Even when he settled in the county, four years later, things were yet primitive and he became one of a committee of three who selected the name of Talleyrand for his township. In religious sentiments he is a Newlite, a Republican in politics and rather a leader in local affairs. Between 1864 and 1868 both Neodesha and Fredonia were given birth and there were two houses in each when Mr. Mikesell took up his residence in the county. Robbins

E. D. Mikesell is one of a family of five children, viz: Amanda, deceased wife of E. J. Rollins; Alice, a professional nurse of Colorado Springs; Edward D., Alpha, who married W. E. Bowers and resides in Wilson county, and Larcen on the family homestead. Our subject acquired his education in the country schools and finished school with an attendance upon the Kansas Normal college at Fort Scott. He had in view the profession of teaching but he went into the mines of the lead and zinc country of Missouri in the spring of 1892, thinking to find a better opportunity than the school-room, but an experience at hard labor a few months convinced him that it was not mining that he was looking for. In the autumn of the same year he returned home and taught his first term of school. He farmed and taught, by times, while he was reading law and pursued the latter steadily and systematically till his admission to the bar in May, 1897. He read in the office of Kirkpatrick and with Kirkpatrick and Willets and June 3, after admission, he opened an office in Neodesha and was engaged in practice at that point till his removal to Fredonia to take the office of county attorney.

Mr. Mikesell is one of the "young crowd" of Republicans. He began his career as a public servant in the office of clerk of Neodesha township. He was next appointed city treasurer of Neodesha in the spring of 1899 and filled the office until January, 1901, when he resigned to take the office of county attorney to which he was elected in November, 1900. As an official he is efficient and painstaking, attending to the public business as he would his private affairs.

January 18, 1899, Mr. Mikesell was united in marriage with Alice Browning, a daughter of V. L. and Nancy J. Browning, natives of Illinois, and residents of Cherokee county, Kansas. Ralph Ellison is the issue resulting from this union; a son two years old. Mr. and Mrs. Mikesell hold membership in the M. E. church and he is a Blue Lodge Mason.

E. D. MIKESELL DIED SUDDENLY TUESDAY

Prominent Fredonian Passed Away at Mayo Clinic After Short Illness—Funeral Saturday, Oct. 3.

Wilson-co. people were shocked Wednesday morning when word was received that E. D. Mikesell Fredonia attorney had died Tuesday 9-29-42 at Rochester, Minn., where he had entered the Mayo clinic but a few days previous. While Mr. Mikesell had not been in good health for some time, he had remained active in his legal work until his departure for Rochester Friday evening, and was then in good spirits and apparent improved physical condition. No details as to the cause of death were available at noon Thursday but relatives assume that a coronary attack may have caused his sudden passing.

Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon, Oct. 3, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Sisney will be in charge of the service. Interment will be in the family plot in Fredonia cemetery. The Masonic orders will have charge of services at the grave.

Edwin D. Mikesell was born on a Wilson -co. farm nine miles southeast of Fredonia, Nov. 17, 1871, the son of Daniel L and Mary (Lingel) Mikesell. The father was born in Indiana but spent some years in Iowa where he met and married his wife, prior to their move westward to Kansas in 1858. The family settled first near Neosho Falls but in 1869 moved to Wilson-co.

Edwin D. received his early education in this county's rural schools but when twenty years of age, studied for a year at the old Kansas Normal college at Ft Scott. He then taught school here for three years, studying law at the same time under the tutelage of S. S. Kirkpatrick. May 7, 1897, Mr. Mikesell was admitted to the bar and began practice of the law at Neodesha where he remained until January 1, 1901. The previous fall he had been elected county attorney and came to Fredonia to take up his duties, serving for four years, after which time he resumed his private practice in the county seat. In 1905 he was made assistant attorney general for this county and achieved notable success in cleaning up the numerous "joints" which were operating in Neodesha despite existing prohibitory laws, in the two years following. An ardent "dry," Mr. Mikesell was always a firm ally of the W.C.T.U. and held honorary membership in that organization for life.

A consistent Republican, E. D. Mikesell was always ready and prompt in his service to the party of his political faith and throughout his long life was prominent and potent in his biennial efforts to support the GOP. Mr. Mikesell was likewise keenly interested in the progress of education and for many years served as a member of the board of education of school district 40, acting as president of that body for a number of years. He was a member of the Methodist church and held many positions of trust and leadership in the various groups of his church affiliation. He was an active member of several Masonic orders, the state and county bar associations, and was identified with almost every civic and community business effort for the past three decades.

He was a very successful attorney in both civil and criminal court practice. In addition he was expert in handling land titles and developed a considerable business in abstract and title work.

For years he was a member of the old Fredonia Telephone Co. directorate, owned and operated considerable farm acreage and held title to several town properties.

In 1898 in Cherokee-co., Ks., he was married to Miss Alice Browning and five children were born to that union, all of whom grew to maturity here and have since given pride and happiness to their parents as they developed their own places in the world. They are Ralph of Highland, Ind; Mrs. Alma Jewell, of Tulsa, Okla.; Edwin, who is a civilian instructor in the Mid-West Army Signal Corps training school at Camp Crowder, Mo.; Mrs. Helen Garrett, of Florence, Ala., and Mrs. Mildred Bridges of Meridian, Miss. Mrs. Mikesell suffered injuries in a fall at the home some time ago but is slowly returning to health. ,

E. D. Mikesell's sudden departure from the ranks of this community's active citizens has brought sorrow to the entire section and the multitude of friends who have esteemed and respected him for many years. His willingness to give freely of his time, knowledge and funds to further any movement that he deemed beneficial to the town or county, his keen interest in church, educational, civic, fraternal and political matters and his aggressive aid in every community service effort made him not only a porminent but an unusually virile influence. He was a community asset that can ill be spared as the town and its people face the present and troubled future. But his contribution to this community will not be forgotten and will be emphasized in value as his absence is noted in many quarters in the days to come.

A PIONEER DIES

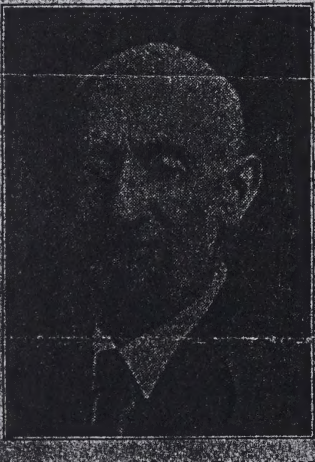
D. L. Mikesell, 93 Years of Age, Died Early This Morning

D. L. Mikesell, one of the oldest inhabitants of Wilson county, died at his home in Fredonia last night at 12:40 o'clock, after a life of 71 years in the state of Kansas. He has perhaps seen as much, or more of the development of Wilson county from an Indian nation to a modern community, than any man living in Wilson county today.

Three years ago the Daily Herald published the life story of Mr. Mikesell, from a conversation held with him, and that the many friends of this fine old pioneer and his family may better realize the vicissitudes and trials of our forefathers, we reproduce it in full:

Celebrating his 90th birth anniversary this spring, D. L. Mikesell of Fredonia, whose history we give below, stands first among our oldest citizens as well as one of our earliest pioneers.

Mr. Mikesell, who enjoys the best of health, and is yet, at his advanced age, quite active, enjoys also telling of the trials and tribulations of a pioneer of Kansas, of the bitter hardships that have been met and overcome, of the sorrows and the joys of early Kansas life. For the joys were great and were enjoyed, because they were won only at the expense of great toil and sorrow.



Mr. Mikesell was born April 3, 1836 at Goshen, Ind., in Elkhart county, and left that place in the spring of 1853, going to Iowa where he lived for five years at Cedar Rapids. He came to Kansas at the age of 22 years, bringing a young wife with him, locating at Neosho Falls in 1858. He resided at that place until February, 1869, when he came to Wilson county bringing as his personal property two yoke of oxen and two yoke of cows that he had brought to Kansas with him from Iowa.

Mr. Mikesell in those early days at Neosho Falls took a pioneer's part in the dangers of the early days before the war, and at its outbreak became a member of the militia in which he served for two years during the war, this being particularly a scouting organization, stationed at Humboldt in 1863, and later being a part of the regular army in 1864. With this militia scouting company he rode the plains of southeastern Kansas keeping in check the activities of the Missouri ruffians, the rampaging Indians and the riffraff and backwash of the mighty conflict raging in the more eastern states during the great struggle between the North and South.

At the end of the war, Mr. Mikesell was ordered to go to California and on the California stage line progressed as far as Ft. Lyon, Colo., where on account of illness he was left in a hospital, later to be discharged and returned to his home at Neosho Falls in 1865. At this time he was a member of Company I, 16th Kansas cavalry.

But Neosho Falls, though a frontier post, had become too cramped with civilization for a man of Mr. Mikesell's makeup and he and his family pulled up stakes and started for greener pastures, where as he expressed it, he might emerge from his cabin door of a morning and stretch, without striking his neighbor with his fists.

Taking a liking to the country that later became Wilson county, Mr. Mikesell took a claim ¾ mile northwest of Dun station, on what was then called the Osage Trust lands. This was then a wild country, the streams supported only a few adventurous, hardy settlers along their banks while the hills and uplands were completely unpeopled, given over to migrating Indians, the antelope and wolf.

At that time there were no Fredonia nor Neodesha, these future busy little towns being marked by only box shanties. At Fredonia Al Troxel and Mr. Mosley kept a little store and later Al Mariner kept another. There was nothing between Mr. Mikesell to the north until the Verdigris valley was reached, nothing but Indians to the south and to the west only one log house between Dun station and Elk City.

Mr. Mikesell stated that he had seen the two mounds that now are included in this city in 1863, when as a member of the cavalry he came through Wilson county hunting strayed horses. He stated that on this ride he found two heavy iron kettles at the salt springs near what is now Fall River city and that he stayed all night at Ft. Rowe, located on the Verdigris above the Moss bridge at what was then known as Mayes' crossing. Later this place was called the Neff crossing.

Mr. Mikesell took up eighty acres when he first came here and later another claim. Here he built his shanty and began the arduous task of carving a homestead from the wilderness.

He remembers the establishment of the town of Fredonia, but traded mostly for his meager wants at a little store at the foot of Little Bear mound near Neodesha, run by Doc McCartney and Alex Phelon. There were not many Indians settled in this part of the country at that time, although the south line of his place was located on the northern boundary of what was then the Osage nation. There was a settlement of these prairie nomads in Little Bear town near Neodesha and another at Whitehair ford, located where the Whitehair bridge stands on the Wilson-Montgomery county line. At that time the south tier of townships in what is now Wilson county had not been surveyed.

There was no law and order in those days and although Mr. Mikesell on this point is reticient, it may be sufficient to say that when he mentioned the fact that each settler or each group of settlers administered the law according to the known facts and the Bible, plus pioneer energy and determination, we may rest assured that the foundations of this state were laid by strong hands and stout hearts, that the way of the transgressor was hard and the fear of Judge Lynch kept the predatory instincts of the outlaw and the ruffian within due bounds except in the more remote places.

THE NEODESHA REGISTER, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1942.

SUDDEN DEATH OF E. D. MIKESELL.

Had Been A Resident of Wilson County All His Life.

[Fredonia Citizen.]

Wilson county people were shocked Wednesday morning of last week when word was received that E. D. Mikesell, Fredonia attorney, had died the evening before at Rochester, Minn., where he had entered the Mayo clinic but a fw days previous. While Mr. Mikesell had not been in good health for some time, he had remained active in his legal work until his departure for Rochester Friday evening, and was then in good spirits and apparent improved physical condition.

Edwin D. Mikesell was born on a farm northwest of Neodesha Nov. 17, 1871, the son of Daniel L. and Mary (Lingel) Mikesell. The father was born in Indiana but spent some years in Iowa where he met and married his wife, prior to their move westward to Kansas in 1858. The family settled first near Neosho Falls but in 1869 moved to Wilson county.

Edwin D. received his early education in this county's rural schools but when twenty years of age, studied for a year at the old Kansas Normal college at Fort Scott. He then taught school here for three years, studying law at the same time under the tutelage of S. S. Kirkpatrick. May 7, 1897, Mr. Mikesell was admitted to the bar and began practice of the law at Neodesha where he remained until January 1, 1901. The previous fall he had been elected county attorney and came to Fredonia to take up his duties, serving for four years, after which time he resumed his private practice in the county seat. In 1905 he was made assistant attorney general for this county and achieved notable success in cleaning up the numerous "joints" which were operating in Neodesha despite existing prohibitory laws, in the two years following. An ardent "dry," Mr. Mikesell was always a firm ally of the W.C.T.U. and held honorary membership in that organization for life.

A consistent Republican, E. D. Mikesell was always ready and prompt in his service to the party of his political faith and throughout his long life was prominent and potent in his biennial efforts to support the GOP. Mr. Mikesell was likewise keenly interested in the progress of education and for many years served as a member of the board of education of school district 40, acting as president of that body for a number of years. He was a member of the Methodist church and held many positions of trust and leadership in the various groups of his church affiliation. He was an active member of several Masonic orders, the state and county bar associations and was identified with almost every civic and community business effort for the past three decades.

He was a very successful attorney in both civil and criminal court practice. In addition he was expert in handling land titles and developed a considerable business in abstract and title work.

For years he was a member of the old Fredonia Telephone Co. directorate, owned and operated considerable farm acreage and held title to several town properties.

In 1898 in Cherokee county, Kan., he was married to Miss Alice Browning and five children were born to that union, all of whom grew to maturity here and have since given pride and happiness to their parents as they developed their own places in the world. They are Ralph of Highland, Ind.; Mrs. Alma Jewell, of Tulsa, Okla.; Edwin, who is a civilian instructor in the Mid-West Army Signal Corps training school at Camp Crowder, Mo.; Mrs. Helen Garrett, of Florence, Ala., and Mrs. Mildred Bridges of Meridan, Miss. Mrs. Mikesell suffered injuries in a fall at the home some time ago but is slowly returning to health.

E. D. Mikesell's sudden departure from the ranks of this community's active citizens has brought sorrow to the entire section and the multitude of friends who have esteemed and respected him for many years. His willingness to give freely of his time, knowledge and funds to further any movement that he deemed beneficial to the town or county, his keen interest in church, educational, civic, fraternal and political matters and his aggressive aid in every community service effort made him not only a prominent but an unusually virile influence. He was a community asset that can ill be spared as the town and its people face the present and troubled future. But his contribution to this community will not be forgotten and will be emphasized in value as his absence is noted in many quarters in the days to come.

Funeral services for Mr. Mikesell were held at the Methodist church in Fredonia Saturday afternoon, Oct. 3, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Sisney was in charge of the service. Interment was in the family lot in Fredonia cemetery. The Masonic orders had charge of services at the grave.

NEODESHA, KANSAS, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1907.

DEATH OF MRS. W. E. BOWERS.

Fredonia Citizen: Mrs. Alpha Bowers, wife of W. E. Bowers, who lives on Rainbow creek, on the farm of John Dooley, in the south precinct of Fall River township, 8½ miles southwest of Fredonia, committed suicide yesterday morning at about 11 o'clock by shooting herself. The weapon used was a shotgun and the tragedy occurred in the house. Death was instantaneous. The circumstances showed that the gun had been placed at the right temple and the trigger pulled by hand, the discharge mangling the head terribly. The deed was done while Mr. Bowers, the husband, and Bud Miller were standing outdoors about 40 or 50 steps from the house and the elder children had gone to the mail box.

Mrs. Bowers was formerly Miss Alpha Mikesell and was the daughter of D. L. Mikesell, who lives near Dun, where she was born. Her age was about thirty-three years. She was the mother of six children, all of whom survive her. She sustained a severe shock in the death of her mother which occurred July 5th of last year, and for a while was prostrated. From the effects of this, combined with poor health, Mrs. Bowers became mentally unbalanced, and her restoration was for some time considered doubtful. Two or three months ago her sister, Miss Alice Mikesell, came from Colorado, and under her kind and loving ministrations the unfortunate one steadily improved, and about three weeks ago Alice went to her father's, believing that her sister was quite fully recovered. It is obvious that a relapse to the former mental trouble must have ensued.

Mrs. Bowers was singularly kind and tender as a girl and a woman; was regarded as the 'fair' lily of the family by her parents, brothers and sisters. Gentle, pure and affectionate, she was also delicate and frail. The circumstances of her tragic death are peculiarly pathetic and touching. In their sorrow the mourning relatives and the children bereft of a loving mother have general sympathy.

The funeral was held this afternoon, services being conducted by Rev. J. R. McFadden, at the home and interment was made in the Fredonia cemetery.

Lawson Daniel Mikesell was born in Wilson County, March 8, 1880. He purchased 40 acres in southern Center Twp. and farmed until he became a grocer.

L.D. Mikesell, as he was known, was either in business with or worked for S.G. Clark in Clark's Grocery on the south side of the square. Mikesell's sister Alice also worked there. When Clark gave up the store, Mikesell took over, but moved to the north side of the square, and was in business for himself in 1910.

In June of 1919, the Mikesell Grocery moved to the east side of the square in what was known as the Frater Building where Dr. Phil Rindt's office is now. There was a door in the rear of the store to the back room where feed, kerosene, vinegar, and seed potatoes were stored. On the north side of the store toward the back was Mikesell's desk, over which hung a Seth Thomas clock and a calendar. This area was lighted with an oil lamp. There was a wood stove whose pipe went out the north wall.

After forty-five years, Lawson Daniel Mikesell went out of the grocery business in 1954.

Lawson Daniel Mikesell and Harriet Vena Loveridge were married 10/1/1911. The Mikesell family first lived at 735 N. 6th Street; later at 433 N. 9th Street. L. D.'s brother, E. D. Mikesell, a lawyer, built the house at 631 N. 6th Street. And Alice Mikesell, who later married Harry Shafer, a tinner, built at 727 N. 6th Street. The Mikesells' father Daniel L. owned a rental just south of Alice and, with his family, lived at 719 N. 6th. So all four families lived on the same street in the same neighborhood.

The Clark family lived where the First National Bank is at present.

CRIMINAL MATTERS.

On August 6, 1868, Charles Van Alstine killed J. C. Wheeler, near a saloon in Oswego in which they had been drinking. Van Alstine was tried and convicted of murder, and sent to the penitentiary. This was the first murder trial in the county.

In the latter part of 1868 a half-breed Indian was intoxicated and making a disturbance on the streets of Chetopa. He was arrested by an officer, who asked him where he got his whisky; he told the officer if he would go with him he would show him. He went to a shanty on the outskirts of town, opened a door, and stooping down to his saddle-bags took therefrom a revolver, saying, "That is where I got my whisky," and fired, the ball striking the officer on the forehead, but glanced instead of penetrating the skull. The Indian was again arrested, and taken before the justice. A somewhat rough character called Bob Broadus told him he would be killed, and, if he had an opportunity, to run. The Indian soon started off, and was at once fired upon by a number of parties and killed.

In 1870 John D. Coulter was postmaster at Oswego, and also agent of all the express companies that did business at that place. In the latter part of November of that year, without giving notice of his intention so to do, he left town, and was never seen here thereafter. He proved to be a defaulter to the Government and also the express companies in the sum of several hundred dollars.

Anthony Amend and John Pierce, living in Neosho township, had a difficulty over a child. Pierce shot and killed Amend, and then attempted to hide in the woods and tall grass. The grass was set on fire, and to escape, Pierce jumped into the Neosho and swam across. He was caught and taken to Jacksonville, where a vigilance committee hung him. This hanging took place in Neosho county. Several parties were arrested as being connected with it, but no one was ever convicted.

On October 3, 1874, on the fair grounds at Oswego, John Bagby stabbed William Hogsett and Charles H. Westfall, both of whom were special police. Hogsett soon died, while Westfall, after a protracted confinement, recovered. Bagby was sent to the penitentiary.

On November 2, 1870, Erastus E. and Liston P. Hopkins killed their Sudden Death.

Last night Mrs. Coulter, aged about 45 years, died suddenly at the house of William Arehart, north east of town. The deceased did a washing yesterday afternoon at Mr. Arehart's, working until 3 o'clock. In the evening she was prostrated, it is said, with paralysis, and died about mid-night. The remains were removed to the residence of Mr. David M. Cripe this morning, and the funeral will take place to-morrow at 1 o'clock from the German Baptist church, west of town.

Dear Jeff,

Attached and listed below are some updates on the David Mikesell and Catherine Cripe family. You may have some of it already but I'm sure I have not sent all of it to you. This is a kind of last pass on this unless there is something specific that you want us to look for.

C229.2.9 Geneza Berkey is a duaghter of Daniel Berkey and Malinda ______.

C229.2.10 Daniel Miller is son of Daniel Miller and Amary _____. This is not a totally sure thing but the place and date look good in the 1870 census for LaGrange Co., Ind.

C229.3.3 John Wogoman is son of George W. Wogoman and Emma E..

C229.5 Drusilla Stark - maiden name Wilkinson. She married first Henry Stark 16 April 1862 Piatt Co., Ill. She was a widow W/4 sons in 1900 at LaSalle Co., Ill. I don't know how she got to Kansas to marry Daniel L..

C229.5.5 Wilton E. Bowers is son of John J. Bowers and Christina ____.

C229.5.6 Lawson D. Mikesell. I finally got an obit and got a good death date 20 Oct. 1966 with burial in Fredonia, Ks. The date we had before was an interment date.

C229.5.8 Annie Elizabeth Mikesell - her obit didn't say where she was buried and we hadn't found but finally did - she is buried at the Neodesha Cem. on the same lots as her parents.

C229.5.10 Joseph Harvey Mikesell - the gravestone does have 23 Dec but the obit says he died on Christmas Day. I go with the Christmas Day as correct with the error being made on the gravestone.

C229.5.11 Pearl Mikesell son of John N. and Lura. The gravestone definitly has son not s/o and the census has it as a female. I go with the gravestone with the census taker putting female because of the name.

C229.6 John D. Coulter. We found the following in Labette County. They purchased city lots in Oswego in May of 1870. They sold those lots in Nov. 1870. John was postmaster at Oswego from 29 March 1869 to 12 Dec. 1870. There is a sheet enclosed that may tell why they are so hard to find after 1870. I'm wondering if took off and deserted the family of just what did happen? This may go along with what you said about Sarah's brother John helping her move to Indiana.

C229.7.1 Clara Howard marriaed Vance R. Hamilton in Harper Co. Ks 14 Dec. 1881 by James Merrick J.P. I believe this to be the oldest child of Abel T. and Mary. I couldn't find any more on them, they must have moved on with the rest of the Howard family (where?). I looked in 1900 soundex for Okla, Mo., Ind, Wa, Ore, Ca, N. Dak, Texas and found nothing on them. I did find Abel T. with his parents in Wisc in 1850, Rock county, Union twsp. Parents are Sylvester Howard and Betsy _____.

C229.8.2 Lemuel Morrison is son of John J. Morrison and Ellen _____.

C229.9.1 Hannah Mikesell and James Phillips. They had 1 child - Ettie. Ettie married Reubin B. Wilson 9 March 1890 Wilson Co., Ks. She died 7 March 1894 perhaps in childbirth (speculation) but she did leave a daughter. That we know from the obit on her husband's obit. Reubin died 29 March 1900. He had married again after Ettie died to Etta Shutt d/o Mr. & Mrs. J.K.Shutt. They had no children. She married again 1 March 1903 Wilson Co. to John Epperly (Rev.). She died 17 April 1967 Wilson Co with burial in Neodesha Cem. John preceded her. Parents of R. B. Wilson were William Wilson and Emma Watkinson (natives of England). I did a lot of looking in the census with Wilson's, Phillips etc trying to find the Wilson child left by Ettie. Ettie died in March 1894. There is a female, Edna, living with James J. Phillips and 2nd wife in 1895 and 1900. Her name is Edna and the 1900 census shows ner birthdate as Oct. 1893. It shows as a duaghter by name Phillips but I wonder if it could be grand daughter and the child of Ettie and R. B. We went to Crawford county but drew a complete on all the Phillips family. I did think we might find some marriages but the deaths all started going to Topeka, (state capitol) in 1913 so that may be why none were found. I did get a little more on the parents of James J. Phillips, the C. in C.M. is Calvin (his father) from 1850 census in Livingston Co., Ill. His mothers maiden name is Moore, Elizabeth Moore from early Illinois marriages. They were married in McLean Co and Livingston was made from McClean after their marriage - therefore James was born in Livingston Co., Ill.

Dear Delores-

I gave the information you first gave me on the MIKESELL family to Grace, so she can correct/update her files. She will then pass them on to Cora. Thanks again for all the information you and Bill have been able to find. Eventhough I would love to do research in Kansas, I would have a hard time, trying to find the time to get myself out there!

C-2296
All the information I have on the COULTER family, came from Grace and Cora, and they claim, it came from a book I have on the MIKESELL family (I have included the page for David Mikesell and family) I only had two children for Sarah and John, and Sarah's death information, I don't know where the death date for John came from, or where the other 4 children came from. I told Grace and Cora both that they need to locate where they got that information, because we can't use it, unless it's recorded somewhere. I always seem to make them mad, because I keep telling them we are not going to use any information unless we have the source to back it up.

C-229.2.8
I went to Rock Run cemetery, where Arminta (Cripe) Ganger is buried. Her stone reads- 1869-1895. The only thing that I can think of, is that her stone wasn't put up right away after she died, but later on, and whoever did it, must have had the wrong dates put on it. It is a big enough stone that the numbers are a good 3 inches high, big enough that you can actual read them.

C-229.2
You are right about Emanuel Cripe & Frances Mikesell only having 10 children, I was looking through my old records when I sent you that first information. I think Grace figured out that Minnie would be the nickname for Arminta.

C-229.11
I can't seem to find anymore information on John Mikesell, his wives or the child born in 1891. I guess I'll try to look for a divorce record the next time I go to the court house.

Thanks again for all the information!!!!!

Sincerely

Jeff

P.S. I'll ask Cora to check the Price information you wanted!

David had 13 children, 4 sons and 9 daughters. In February 1836, with their 4 young daughters, they immigrated to Goshen, Indiana, where most of their children were born. In 1853, they again immigrated with most of their family to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, although some of their older daughters remained in Goshen. In 1859 again the family went to Neosho Falls, Kansas. Most of the children were grown by this time, and 3 of the sons, David, Daniel and Joseph enlisted in the Union Army (Civil War). The youngest son John was not old enough for military service. The two youngest daughters, Amanda and Lydia died in early childhood. About 1869, most of the family again immigrated to Wilson County, Kansas.

24 April 2002

Delores,

So are you sick of my letters yet? I went to the court house this morning and found the divorce papers for John N. Mikesell and his first wife, Lura (Wheeler). It took some time because all of the "older" books have been moved to a different building on the other side of town.

In the petition for John Mikesell, he was the one who filed for divorce, it stated that he had been a resident of Elkhart County for the last 6 years, which meant that he came in 1887. I remember someone saying that Sarah (Mikesell) Coulter was brought back to Elkhart County by her brother, this would make that story true!

~~1888~~

1885

The birth record I found in Elkhart County was for John Mikesell & Lura Kriter. Do you think John might have had a child by someone he wasn't married to?, or do you think they meant to put down Wheeler?

John married Alice (Crider) Stotts, 2 July 1894, in Elkhart County, IN. She was born in Ohio and was 38. She was the daughter of Moses & Diane (Immel) Crider. It was also her 2nd marriage.

This is your copy of the divorce! I'm going to go back next week and see if there might have been a divorce for the 2nd wife, and also maybe a divorce for John & Sarah (Mikesell) Coulter. Since her husband was not named in the obituary.

I sent the information you wanted on the Price woman to Cora, if she finds anything, she'll be sending it to you. I'll be hooking up with Barb and Jann on Monday to plan the reunion. I hope you and Bill will be able to join us this year at the reunion. Have fun at your 55th!, you must have been the youngest in your class!

LEA GRANT COULTER

Lea Grant Coulter, 92, a native of Neosha Falls, Kans., but a resident of Goshen for 50 years, died at 7 A. M. today at the Elkhart County Home to which he was taken from his home, 212 Wilkinson Street, in 1952.

Mr. Coulter was born Feb. 28, 1864, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Coulter. His wife, the former Bessie Roberts, to whom Mr. Coulter was married in 1895, died in 1903. He was a woodworker by occupation.

Surviving are two children, Mrs. Glenn (Charlotte) Berkey and Henry V. Coulter, both of Goshen; three grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Friends will be received at the Culp Funeral Home from Wednesday noon until the hour of the funeral there Thursday at 2 P. M. The Rev. Spencer Gentle will officiate and burial will be in Oak Ridge Cemetery.

GLENN C. BERKEY

Glenn C. Berkey, 80, 313 South Thirteenth Street, Lafayette, formerly of Goshen, died Tuesday noon at the Home Hospital in Lafayette, where he had been a patient two days. Mr. Berkey had been ill three months.

Born in Goshen on Nov. 12, 1895, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram (Sadie Compton), he moved to Lafayette three years ago from Goshen. He was employed at the Salem Bank and Trust Co. for a number of years and had retired from Goshen Churn and Ladder. He was a veteran of W.W. I and a member of the American Legion.

On May 2, 1918, he was married to Charlotte M. Coulter, who survives with two sons, William A., Elkhart, and Russell, Lafayette, and nine grandchildren.

Friends will be received from 2 to 4:30 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at Yoder-Culp Funeral Home, where services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday. The Rev. Spencer Gentle of First Brethren Church, of which Mr. Berkey was a member, will officiate, with burial in Oak Ridge Cemetery.

I had some free time today so I stopped at the library and tried to look up the people you told me about. I was unable to find Bessie Coulter & Jasper Cross, but I did find Mary Cross. She was killed by a train. She was deaf, and was unable to hear the train coming down the track. I guess she was a little "beat up" from the train. Her arm and leg were cut off. She has been born in Ark, came to Goshen at a early age. She had moved to Laporte 25 years earlier [c1903], and moved back to Goshen about 5 or 6 years ago [c1923]. She is buried in Laporte. She was survived by a daughter, Vina Smith, in LaPorte. Mary made the front page, but back then I guess train accidents were the thing of the day to hear about. She had just strated working at a job, and was walking home for lunch when the train hit her. I looked up in the WPA death records for Bessie Coulter, and couldn't locate her in Elkhart County in 1904.

DAVID MIKESELL TAKES HIS LIFE.

Yesterday morning John R. Heath of Neodesha receiving a telegram stating that David Mikesell had died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lem Morrison, at Great Bend, Kansas, and that the body would be brought to this city for burial, expecting to arrive here at 4:30 p. m. on the Frisco yesterday.

Members of Humphrey Post G. A. R. met last evening's passenger train in a body, but the funeral party did not arrive, due it is said to high waters out west. The body arrived in Neodesha last night and was taken to the home of Mr. Heath on South Second street, where funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 conducted by Rev. J. Kansas Morgan of Pittsburg, and interment was made in the Neodesha cemetery.

The following dispatch appeared in yesterday's Topeka Capital: "Great Bend, Kan., May 19.—David Mikesell, an old soldier, 72 years of age, committed suicide this evening, using a loaded shotgun to blow out his brains. He was one of the earliest settlers of the state, and served in the Kansas cavalry during the Civil war. He settled in Neodesha in an early day, and until three years ago made that place his home. Since he had been living on a farm near this city with his soninlaw, Lem Morrison, and family. His 10-year-old grandson was the only person in the house at the time of the suicide. The body will be taken to Neodesha for burial."

David D. Mikesell was a native of Indiana, but came to Kansas before the Civil war. He enlisted at Neosho Falls in Company D, Ninth Kansas Cavalry, and during the war received a bullet wound in his right arm and another in his right leg, which caused partial paralysis in his right side and he was never afterward able to do much work. After the war closed he returned to Kansas and located in Neodesha, and a few years later was married here to Miss Ann Eliza McPaul, who died in this city about 24 years ago. Mrs. N. A. Bevans, who still lives in this city, is her sister. To Mr. and Mrs. Mikesell were born three sons and two daughters, all living except Mrs. John Heath. The others are Mrs. Lem Morrison, of Great Bend; Carl Mikesell of Shawnee, Okla.; Dave Mikesell of Seattle, Wash., and Blaine Mikesell, residing some where in Missouri. Mr. Mikesell went to live with his daughter at Great Bend about two years ago. Other relatives of the deceased are D. L. Mikesell of Fredonia and John Mikesell of Neodesha, brothers, and E D. Mikesell, a nephew, of Fredonia.

The death of Mr. Mikesell in this manner was a great shock to all his friends in this community. He was a good and honorable man and the deepest sympathy of all the friends and acquaintances are extended to the bereaved ones. Mr. Mikesell was a member of Humphrey Post and the pall bearers were composed of members of that veteran organization.

WIFE OF C229.8

Died—Mrs. D. D. Mikesell.

Ann Mikesell, wife of one of our decrepit and afflicted old veterans, died at her residence in this city last Saturday morning of lung disease, of which she has been afflicted for some months past. Her funeral services occurred Sunday, at 2: p m. from the residence, being conducted by Rev. T. B. Woodard. They were largely attended by our citizens by whom the deceased was held in high esteem, because of her untiring industry and praisworthy devotion to her family cares and duties. Her life, beginning a short while after her marriage, was one continual round of self sacrifice and devotion to her infirm husband and young children. All pleasures, such as are loved by the light and careless temperament were foregone and her privilege it was to posess the higher pleasure of an approving conscience and the satisfaction of knowing that the duties of her life were being fulfilled to the best of her ability. Her husband could not complain of a want neglected or of a need ungratified which she could remedy and the pleasing manners, good, studious habits and high ambitions of her elder children prove how well she performed the duties of a mother.

More honor is often due and greater reward merited by such as she, than by those whom the world calls great. Her family seem almost helpless without her but the good effects of her Godly example will probably be felt by them during their future lives.

Mrs. Ann Mikesell was a daughter of Thomas and Rebecca McPaul, with whom she came to this city in 1870 when she was about 16 years of age. When she was about 23 years of age she was united by marriage to the husband who survives her and by whom she became the mother of five children. As a result of disease and wounds contracted in the army, her husband soon became almost helpless and upon her devolved to a great extent the cares of the family which duty she fulfilled in the manner described. She was 37 year of age when she yielded to the ravages of the disease which had preyed upon her lungs since that scourge, la grippe visited our country. May she awake in peace on that morn when the Savior, in whom she professed unwavering trust, shall appear and say "Well done good and faithful servant! Enter into the joys of thy Lord."

Lucy M. Morrison on her oath deposeth and says -- I am a daughter of David D. Mikesell, deceased, late of Neodesha, Kansas. He died intestate, without a will, at my home on or about May 19, 1914. He left no debts and at the time of his death owned the following described real estate situated in Wilson County, Kansas, towit:

Lots 13 and 14 in block 59 in the City of Neodesha, Kansas, and no claim can come up against said lots.

He died a widower, and left the following named children, viz:-- Carl C. Mikesell. David P. Mikesell, Blaine A. Mikesell and myself, Lucy M. Morrison; and he left the following named grandchildren viz: -- David A. Heath Lois Heath and Anna Heath, the children of his deceased daughter Mary M. Heath, deceased, who died on or about February 19, 1912 and he left no other heirs.

In the conveyance of Catherine Mikesell and her husband David Mikesell to David D. Mikesell, of the above described real estate, on or about April 8, 1872 the record shows the said David D. Mikesell's name to be David T. Mikesell. This is in book D at page 9 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wilson County, Kansas, and is a mistake in the record.

The said Mary M. Heath having died before the said David D. Mikesell died, the husband surviving her, John R. Heath, does not take any inheritance in said lots, and as I bought out all the heirs the title to the lots is now perfect in me.

Lucy M. Morrison.

Mrs. John Heath Is Dead.

Mrs. John Heath died at Hagerman, New Mexico, Monday, February 19, 1912, at 2 o'clock p. m., of consumption, aged 29 years, 5 months and 18 days. It is expected that the body will arrive in Neodesha this evening, accompanied by Mr. Heath and three children, and that funeral services will be held at the Baptist church tomorrow, the 23d, at 2 o'clock p. m., conducted by Rev. J. B. Frisbie. Interment will be made in the Neodesha cemetery.

Mary Margaret Mikesell was a daughter of D. D. Mikesell of Sixth and Ohio streets, this city. She was born September 1, 1883, at or near Fredonia, but lived in Neodesha most of her life. Eight or nine years ago she was married in this city to John R. Heath, who has since been in the grocery business here. The latter part of last August Mr. Heath and family moved to New Mexico, locating at Hagerman, in the hope that the change would be beneficial to Mrs. Heath's health. At first the high and dry climate of that country seemed to agree with her and for a while she improved. Mr. Heath then opened a store at Hagerman, retaining his interest in the firm of Heath & Arnold in Neodesha. His wife later commenced to fail, steadily growing weaker until the end came on Monday. Besides the husband and three small children, a boy and two girls, Mrs. Heath is survived by a father, D. D. Mikesell of Neodesha, three brothers, Dave Mikesell of Seattle, Wash., Carl Mikesell of Shawnee, Okla., and Blaine Mikesell of Neodesha; also one sister, Mrs. Lem Morrison, of Great Bend, Kansas.

Mrs. Heath was a member of the Baptist church in this city and of the Triple Tie lodge. As a wife and mother she was very devoted to her family. On account of poor health the last few years of her residence here she did not go about much. She was a kind, generous and considerate neighbor, and a pleasant patient, good woman. To the bereft husband and children is extended the profound sympathy of numerous friends.

NEODESHA REGISTER 4 MAY 1950 WILSON CO., KANSAS

JOHN RUSSELL HEATH.

John Russell Heath passed away peacefully at 10:05 p. m. April 26, 1950, at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Wichita, Kansas, at the age of 74 years, 1 month and 13 days. Mr. Heath had been ill three years and three months and the cause of death was arteriosclerosis.

John R. Heath, the third child of Mary Albina Underhill Heath and Arthur James Heath, was born March 13, 1876, on a farm near Fredonia, Wilson County, Kansas. His father was a well-known farmer, cheesemaker and dairyman. John's mother died when he was four years old. In 1890, he graduated from Maple Grove School and later attended the Fredonia High School. At the age of nineteen, he started working in Hubbell's Grocery Store and worked in it two years in Fredonia and two years in Neodesha. He then enlisted in the U. S. Army and served during the Spanish-American War from April 6, 1899, until April 5, 1902. Mr. Heath was a Private in Companies M and G, 23rd U. .S Infantry, which was the first regiment to encircle the globe, and he was in the Philippines during most of his enlistment. In 1906, he bought a grocery store and owned and operated it from then until last July.

On May 10, 1903, Mr. Heath was united in marriage to Mary Margaret Mikesell at Fredonia. Of this marriage, there were four children: David Arthur, George Daniel, Lois Marie and Anna Alice. Mrs. Mary M. Heath passed away February, 1912.

On October 20, 1914, Mr. Heath was united in marriage to Mary Imogene Lines at Neodesha. Of this marriage, there was one child, Mary Elizabeth.

Mr. Heath has lived in Wilson county almost all his life. He has always been very active in social, civic and church affairs. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, having served as an elder and the treasurer of the church for a great number of years, had a lifetime membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, was a member of the Volunteer Firemen of the Neodesha Fire Department over fifty years, was a member of the Chamber of Commerce, having been a director four years, and also was a member of the Lions Club, of Harmony Lodge No. 94 of the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, of Chapter No. 29 of the Order of Eastern Star, and the Orlin Berlew Post No. 24 of the United Spanish War Veterans.

John R. Heath was preceded in death by his parents, his step-mother, Mary Alice Sharp Heath, his first wife, his two sons, George in 1907 and David in 1923, and by four sisters, Miss Jennie Heath, Mrs. Charles Woodley, Mrs. Henry Steffens and Miss Mary Alice Heath.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Mary I. Heath of the home; three daughters, Mrs. Edward E. Erbe of Fredonia, Kansas, Mrs. Heeseler J. Thomas of Bremerton, Washington, and Mrs. Hilbert H. McCord of Neodesha; eight grandchildren, three of whom are named for their grandfather, Larry Erbe of Kansas City, Missouri, Russell Erbe of Coffeyville, Nadine Erbe of Fredonia, Kansas, Kenneth John Thomas of New Haven, Connecticut, David and Gregory Thomas of Bremerton, Wash., and John and Jane McCord of Neodesha; one half-brother, H. Clint Heath of Portland, Oregon, and one half-sister, Mrs. Charles Steffens of San Diego, California.

The funeral services for John Russell Heath were held Sunday afternoon, April 30, 1950, at 2 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. W. W. Pfautz presiding. The services were in charge of the Wm. Fawcett Funeral Home, and H. C. Tralle was an usher. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful.

Mrs. Lerch Smith, Mrs. Robert Tracy, Mrs. Dick Dodge, Mrs. W. W. Pfautz, Miss Florence Casey, Mrs. Franciska Winters and Mrs. James Tuft sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "Beyond the Sunset," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Ross Porter.

Casket bearers were Martin Wernsman, Walter Morrison, Lester Nunn, Paul Stephens, Forrest Fink, and Johnny Moore. Interment was in the Neodesha cemetery.

The Masonic Lodge held its ritualistic service at the graveside and the American Legion Seward-Ayers Post No. 1 conducted a military service with Bernard J. Grabner in charge. Color bearers were Oscar Skaggs and Jack Brown; color guards were Lester Meanor and Charles Eaton; firing squad was Don Martin, Dan Hogan, Louis Kammerer, Dr. S. C. Sutherland, Charles Freshwater and Reuben Klayder, and buglers were Charles O'Harra and James Newby.

Out of town relatives attending the services were Mrs. Heeseler J. Thomas of Bremerton, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Erbe and Nadine, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Brady of Fredonia; Larry Erbe of Kansas City, Mo.; Russell Erbe of Coffeyville; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Axtell of Joplin, Mo.; Joe Lines of Bartlesville, Okla.; Mrs. F. E. Howerton, Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Arnold of Chanute.

Out of town friends attending the funeral were Mrs. George Roebuck and Robert Derr of Morrisville, Mo.; Mrs. Pearl Peyton of Chanute; Roy J. Clark of Cherryvale; Miss Nettie Canvall, Miss Hazel Coleman, Mrs. Louie Rankin, Mrs. Lola Wright, I. C. Hollingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. George Otto, Mrs. D. J. Sheedy, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. John Barth, Mrs. Reoel T. Minton, Mrs. Minnie Dixon, Mrs. Blanche Brockway, Mrs. Lizzie Skaggs, Mrs. Elmo Davis, Mrs. C. Ed Morris, Mrs. A. Maude Koch, Mrs. Mertie Reed, John P. Lennahan, Everett Bronson and Mrs. Mabel Henderson, all of Fredonia, Kansas.

Mr. Heath was a devoted husband and kind and loving father. He was a sincere, generous and completely honest man who loved all people and was widely known and loved and respected by all who knew him. He enjoyed life to the utmost by being kind and helpful and lived a very full life. He will be lovingly remembered as long as any remain who ever came in contact with his likable and sunny disposition.

J. H. Mikesell's Funeral.

The funeral of J. H. Mikesell whose sudden death was noted last week occurred Christmas day, at 2 p. m. The funeral services were conducted by Elder Bays, Mr. Mikesell's pastor. As the residence was small many persons who came were compelled to leave but the house was filled by friends and relatives who listened attentively to Mr. Bays' eloquent remarks. The remains were interred at the Neodesha cemetery after the close of the sermon.

Mr. Mikesell has many friends in this community who will miss his good natured face and jolly, good natured manner.

He was a native of Indiana where he was born in 1847 and came to Kansas with his father's family just before the war. In '64 he enlisted in the 16th Kansas, his elder brothers having previously enlisted in the Union army. Though young, he made an excellent record as a soldier. He came to Neodesha about 1870 with his father's family and resided here ever since. He was married to the wife who now mourns his loss in 1884 and leaves her with five children. His brother, Dave, who lives next door to his little residence, is also in precarious health as a result of his army life. Dan, another brother resides near Dun, and was by Joe's side when he was stricken. It was a sad and sudden death.

VINING, NANCY JANE

F777

Nancy Jane Babcock was born 18 March 1851 in Blackhawk County, Iowa just five years after it became a state. Nancy was the daughter of Ezra B. and Nancy (Wright) Babcock. She moved with her family to Gentry County, Missouri, Albany postoffice, by 1860. There she met and married Burr Hamson Ashlock on 30 March , 1866 in Gentryville. Burr was born 1843 in Hardin County, Kentucky, and in 1850 he is seven years old and living in the 2nd district Southern Township. By 1860 Burr had traveled to Gentry County and was working as a farm laborer with the Samuel Barton family. He died 22 September, 1873 and is buried Rosehill, Johnson County, Missouri.

The three children are Sarilda Jane, named after Burr's youngest sister, was born 17 September 1867 in Chilicothe, Livingston County, Missouri. She was married 30 January 1884 in Wilson County to Joseph H. Mikesell, son of David D. and Catherine (Cripe) Mikesell. They had four children all born in Wilson County: J.H.; Ethel born 28 December 1887; Inez born 9 November 1889; and "Collie" Collins born 25 August 1891. The family moved to Woodward County, Oklahoma Territory after Joseph died 25 December 1896 in Wilson County. Sarilda remarried 12 April, 1905 at Woodward to John A. Augsburger and moved to Texas.

James Ashlock born 22 August 1869 in Gentryville, Missouri and died 1 April, 1879 in Wilson County; Isaac Ashlock was born the winter before his father died, 22 December 1872 in Rosehill. "Uncle Ike" as I knew him married Jenettie E. Keiling 28 January 1908 Woodward Oklahoma. Around 1918 they migrated to the Grasslands of Alberta, Canada, where Ike died 11 June, 1945. He had four girls: Bessie, September 1912; Nancy, June, 1914 both in Branson, Missouri; Isobel, April, 1916 in Lamar, Colorado and Iris, 2 July, 1940 Alberta, Canada.

After Burr died, Nancy and her three small children joined her parents in Wilson County. Census records show that she lived close to her family even after her marriage to Henry Vining in 1874.

ERBE, EDWARD E. AND LOIS M. HEATH

F240

Edward E. and Lois M. (Heath) Erbe live about seven miles west of Fredonia at the present time. Both were born in Wilson County, Edward at Altoona and Lois in Neodesha. They were married February 25, 1928.

Edward worked as a pipe fitter at Sinclair Refinery in East Chicago for six years, and as a pipe fitter for the U.S. Government during World War II. He served the Fredonia area as a plumber for over twenty years.

Lois taught thirty-five years in elementary schools, including both Neodesha and Fredonia School Districts. She has both a Bachelor's and a Master's degrees from Pittsburg State College, with post-graduate work from Emporia State College and Kansas State College at Manhattan.

Both Edward and Lois are fourth generation families in Wilson County. Edward is the son of William and Mary Alice Alta (Johnson) Erbe of Neodesha. His father was a building contractor. His grandparents Erbe and great grandparents Newland came to Wilson County in a wagon train in 1869 and pre-empted land in Chetopa Township. They were farmers.

Lois is the daughter of John Russell and Mary Margaret (Mikesell) Heath. Her father was a Neodesha merchant for 50 years, owning the Heath's Grocery, later called the Heath's Help-Yourself-Grocery, the first of its kind in Wilson County. Her paternal grandparents, Arthur and Mary Albina (Underhill) Heath also came to Wilson County in 1869 with their families and pre-empted land in the Maple Grove district west of Fredonia, where they farmed and ran a cheese and butter factory. Her great-grandparents, John and Elizabeth (Ashley) Heath settled in what is now South 8th. Street in Fredonia, where he plied his trade as a wagon maker.

Lois's maternal grandparents, David D. and Anne (McPaul) Mikesell settled in Neodesha in 1869. David, having both arm and leg wounds from the Civil War and having spent a period in Andersonville Prison, was a cripple. But after losing his wife early in life, he managed to raise his five children by gardening and playing a fiddle (which he held in his lap) at public affairs. He was later joined by his three sons. Lois's great grandparents, the McPauls, pre-empted land just east of Bethel Church near Neodesha, also in 1869.

The Erbes have three children, Lawrence Allen of Manhattan, Kansas; William Russell of Independence, Kansas; and Lois Nadine Compton of Fredonia, Kansas. They have six grandchildren, and at the present time they have ten great grandchildren.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

R. B. Wilson, an Employe of the Forest Oil Company, Has His Brains Dashed Out By The Laverty Gas Well's Awful Force

Tuesday forenoon about 5:30 o'clock while the Forest Oil Company's crew of rig builders were preparing to build a new rig at the Laverty gas well west of town, R. B. Wilson, the foreman of the crew, received terrible injuries from which he cannot recover.

In order to begin work on the new rig it was necessary to reanchor the casing. To do this the well had to be "blown off" and the work done while the well was uncapped. Jay Gustin was the proper man to uncap the well but for some reason he had not done so and Mr. Wilson decided to undertake to do that part of the work himself in order to not delay the work any longer. A 2-inch blow-off pipe is attached to the well and extends up a few feet from the top of the casing, then extends horizontally a couple of feet. At this time there was an elbow left on the end of the horizontal pipe, it having been used to connect the blow-off pipe with a pipe leading to the river, and this fact is responsible for one of the most horrible accidents that can happen to one man. The gas well had just tested 400 pounds rock pressure and when Wilson turned the gas loose it came with a mighty roar and sent the horizontal pipe spinning like a top until it turned itself off. Wilson was thrown, mangled and bleeding, to one side several feet and the pipe followed. Those who saw the accident were: John Wilson and Howard Wilson, brothers of R. B. Wilson, and Frank Whitesell and Will Lees. The thing was done so quickly that they do not know exactly how it occurred but when Reub was picked up it was found that his skull was crushed in on both sides exposing the brain, his left arm and shoulder were both broken and crushed, and he was unconscious.

The injured man was carried on a stretcher to his residence on the Shutt farm adjoining the townsite on the north, a distance of over two miles, and Drs. Allen, Moorhead, Sharpe and Blakeslee were all out to see him and all agreed that there was nothing that could be done. He was unconscious and was therefore not suffering so the wife and brothers and sisters and father and mother could only watch at his bedside and await the end.

R. B. Wilson is aged about 37 years and is the third son of a family of eight sons and three daughters all of whom are grown and have families of their own. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, are natives of England and have long lived on their farm east of town. If we are not mistaken no death has yet occurred in the family. The boys are all hardy industrious fellows and Reub was especially well liked among his associates. He was first married to Miss Etta Phillips and she died, leaving him a little daughter, and about two years ago he married Miss Etta Shutt. They have lately moved onto the Shutt farm to care for it while Mr. Shutt was away.

Reub is a carpenter and has been employed by the Forest as rig builder more or less ever since they began operations here.

Later—Death came yesterday morning at seven o'clock.

The funeral services will be conducted at the residence this afternoon by Rev. Smith of the Christian church.

Deceased was a member of the Christian church and of the Knights and Ladies of Security. He carried $2000 insurance in the lodge.

A Frightful Accident.

Last Tuesday about 11:30 R. B. Wilson met with a very serious accident. He was working with a gang of men on the Lafferty well No. 1 about three miles up the river from Neodesha. His brothers' Howard and John and Wm. Leese were with him at the time the accident accurred. From his brother John we learn the following particulars of the awful occurance: Rube was in the act of loosing up the valves in pipe preparatory to "blowing" the well. He stooped over and turned one of the valves just a little and the dirt started to blow out. He then loosened it up a little more when very suddenly the gas rushed into the arms of the pipe, which happened to be in such shape that the force of the gas caused them to to have a centrifugal motion. They first started slowly but with the gas coming on they very soon were going at a high rate of speed. They swung 'round and struck Rube first on the arm then on the leg and then again on the head, mashing it and crushing the skull. Both sides of the head showed signs of having been badly bruised and there appeared to be a hole, about the size of a bullet hole, clear through his head.

It all happened in such a short space of time that it was difficult to give all the details. Dr. Allen was sent for and went out to where the accident occurred and gave orders that Rube be carried to his home on a stretcher as he thought it would be easier on the wounded man. This was done, the men taking the nearest route in order to reach home as soon as possible. An examination of the wounds were made and it was decided that nothing could be done to save him. A physician from Independenc was sent for and came up but he was of the same opinion which Dr. Allen had formed and made no attempt at an operation.

Mr. Wilson is a son-in-law of S. J. Shutt, who resides just north of town and he and Mrs. Wilson have many friends here who will be pained to learn of the sad accident and will extend to them their deepest sympathy. Mr. Wilson lingered along till Thursday morning when he died.

The funeral service was held at the residence and was conducted by Elder J. A. Smith. Burial at the Neodesha cemetery

VINING, HENRY F.

F772

My grandfather, Henry F. Vining, a Civil War veteran, came to Wilson County, shortly after 1870. He was born 17 September, 1837 in East Windsor, Connecticut, the son of James M. and Almira (Burkland) Vining. By the time Henry was three years old, the family had traveled west across New York to the Great Lakes, through the northern section of Indiana and Illinois to the newly created Van Buren County of Iowa, by 1840 Henry's brother Erastus was born in Iowa in 1841. With the wanderlust still with them they moved south into Missouri to the St Louis area, where Isreal A. was born 1842 and Charles Augustus in 1844. Then Henry's grandfather Alvin Vining became ill and died in 1847, back east, and the family returned to Connecticut where James M. Jr. was born in 1848; Franklin E. in 1853 and the only sister Jane A. in 1855. All three born in the East Windsor vicinity.

By the time the Civil War began, the Vining's had made the long trek across the country again to the midwest. Arriving at Madison Centre, Madison County, Kansas Territory in April 1857, they had little time to prepare for the harsh Kansas winter. When the war enveloped even Kansas, four of the brothers enlisted at Leavenworth; Henry Erastus, Isreal and Charles. Most of Henry's four years were spent in northern Nevada territory, helping build Fort Halleck and maintaining it for protection from the Indians. He was in the 9th Kansas Cavalry Co. B. By the time Henry returned from the war, his mother had passed away, 17 March, 1864 and his father had remarried 3 August, 1864 in Burlington to Rhoda Dernell. They were divorced in 1868. Around that time Henry sold his Greenwood County homestead and bought first in Woodson County Sec. 31&32. T,26,R.15 in 1874, then later in Wilson County Sec. 28,, T.29,R.17 in Newark Township.

Henry met and married Nancy Jane (Babcock) Ashlock, a widow with three children, Scrilda 7, James 5, and Isaac 2, on 15 March. 1874 in Wilson County. They had met at John Vining's home, as his wife Ellnor was Nancy's sister. John and Ellnor were married in Wilson County 1st September, 1870. Farming was almost a necessity with a big family like Henry and Nancy raised. A total of 13 children were born to this marriage. #1 Julie (see Julie Vining); #2 Sarah, called Sadie, was born 17 November, 1876 and when she 18, she suffered severe brain damage as sult of typhoid fever, and she had to be itted to the state hospital in Osawatomie July, 1894, where she died 8 October, , after living 64 years in the mental ital. #3 Jacob was born 10 May, 1878 and ried Ida ?. They had three children: vin, Edith, and Lloyd. Jacob died Nober, 1914. Then on 1 April, 1879 Nancy's James Ashlock died from spinal meningi- The next year was also a bad time for cy, as she lost another son, this time her baby William H., who was born 22 March and died in November of that same year ruptured blood vessel. #5 Lucy born 5 ober, 1881; #6 Francis Henry born 24 ch, 1883; #7 Belle born 14 September, ; #8 May born 26 March, 1886; #9 Bessie 5 October, 1887; #10 Luther born 5 ember, 1889; #11 Scelia born 1 Septem- 1892; #12 Albert born 28 January, 1894 #13 Ruth born 10 June, 1897.

enry F. Vining died 28 July, 1897 just six ks after his youngest daughter was born he is buried at Harrison Cemetery in son County. Nancy lived to see her ngest married. She died 6 January, 1924 is buried by her husband.

L. M. GREER DIED WEDNESDAY OF LAST WEEK.

Lyman Martin Greer, familiarly called "Bus" Greer by his many friends and a life-long resident of this community, died at the Wilson County Hospital Wednesday, February 21. He had been in failing health for several years and his death was attributed to aortic aneurism.

Lyman Martin Greer was born in Neodesha October 31, 1880, and was 64 years, 3 months and 20 days of age at death. He had lived in and near Neodesha all his life. On June 25, 1902, he was married here to Grace Mikesell. In his earlier years he worked for the Frisco Railway Co. out of Kansas City and later he worked as a driller, tool dresser and at various other jobs in the oil fields in the early days of the oil development in this field. For the past 24 years he has farmed near the Newland schoolhouse east of Altoona. He held a place in this section of Wilson county which alone belonged to him. He was the son of pioneers of this community and his friends were limited only to his acquaintances. His outstanding trait was his honor and integrity and a man whose word was never questioned. He was a devoted husband and father and will be greatly missed by his family and many friends.

Besides his wife, he is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Gaynell McDonald of Altoona, Mrs. Ethel Wilson and Mrs. Grace Gruetzmacher and Miss Betty Lou of Independence and Colleen Greer of the home, six sons, Robert of Richmond, Calif., John Joseph of Grass Valley, Calif., Pvt. William, U. S. Army in New Guinea, Jack in the Aleutian Islands, Cpl. Edwin, U. S. Army, in the Philippines, and Pfc. Rex of the U. S. NOTE: This child was born to John Mikesell and Laura Wheeler - so Laura was with him in Indiana. I think she and the child died in child birth and were buried in Indiana - probably Goshen. We have been unable to find documents confirming this.

John married again in 1894 to Alice _____. I would guess they seperated or she died in Indiana. He is back in Wilson Co, Kns by 1915.

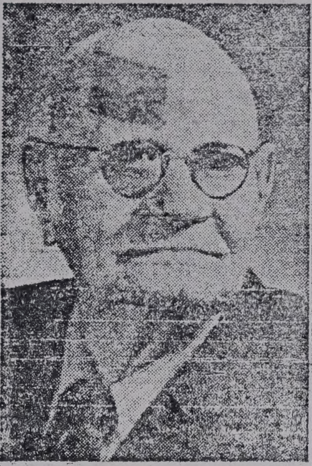
FORMER RESIDENT TO OBSERVE 90th BIRTHDAY, SEPTEMBER 6th

1970

(Mrs. Esther Taylor, daughter of former resident, Sylvan Cripe, both of North Manchester, Ind., sent the following information concerning her father's 90th birthday on September 6th.)



Sylvan Cripe

130-245.1.2

Sylvan Cripe, born in Cerro Gordo, Sept. 6, 1880, will be 90 years old on that date. His parents were Daniel and Mary Carver Cripe, deacon and deaconess of the Church of the Brethren.

His grandfather, Elias Cripe, operated a blacksmith shop in the two story brick building near the railroad, now a machine shop.

Early memories include helping around the shop, fishing trips with his grandfather along the Sangamon River, husking corn for farmers in the area, and pranks at school, stories of which now delight his three great-grandsons. He has one grandson, James Taylo

In 1898 he came to North Manchester to attend Manchester College, later married and made this his permanent home. Since the death of his wife in 1957, he has lived with his daughter, Mrs. Esther Taylor, 617 E. Fifth St.

After retirement as service man for Public Service Indiana in 1947, he served several years as the town's Fire Chief. He also was the town's first Santa Claus and enjoyed helping children and their families with fun at Christmas.

He is a member of the First Brethren Church and Izaak Walton League.

FORMER RESIDENT TO OBSERVE 91st BIRTHDAY SEPT. 5

'71

Sylvan Cripe, who was born in Cerro Gordo on September 6, 1880, will observe his 91st birthday, September 6, at his home in North Manchester, Indiana, where he lives with his daughter, Mrs. Esther Taylor.

Mrs. Taylor writes that her father enjoys reading The News and keeping up with what is going on in his home town and often recalls his vivid memories of boyhood days.

His first trip to Indiana was made on a bicycle when he was 18 years old. He attended Manchester College, met and married a local girl and remained there to make his home.

Mrs. Taylor says they send their copy of The News on to Mr. Cripe's sister, Mrs. Theo (Flaura Cripe) Swanson, 93, of Peoria, Ill., who is also a native of Cerro Gordo.

Sylvan E. Cripe, former local resident, now of North Manchester, Indiana, will observe his 94th birthday on September 6, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Esther Taylor. His address is 617 E. 5th St., North Manchester, Ind. 46962.

Dear Sir;-

Enclosed find claims for allowance in the Susanna Jones estate amounting to total of $947.39,as follows;-

L.W.Engelhardt,funeral expense	$188.00
R.A.McIlhenny,M.D.medical services,last illness	$191.00
E.A.Evans,M.D.,medical services,last illness	$ 10.00
R.A.McIlhenny,M.D.medical services prior to last illness	$ 29.00
E.M.Harris,M.D.medical services prior to last illness	$ 12.00
Home Telophone Co. claim	$ 10.54
Rock Island Lumber Co.,claim	$ 31.58
Lottie I.Pippenger;money furnished for nurses,and for household expenses during last illness	$375.00
Arthur L.Jones.money furnished for household expenses during last illness	$ 60.00
John Jones,money furnished for household expenses during last illness	$ 40.00

Lottie I.Pippinger,Arthur L.Jones and John Jones are children of Susanna Jones,deceased,who came here after the mother had in a time of unbalanced mind poured coal oil over herself and set it afire,burning herself frightfully. Indeed think the two first named children were here and mother was ill before time of the bruning. These children stayed here faithfully,dropping their business elsewhere,until decease of the mother. All three were in my office and exhibited to each other memoranda of monies furnished,and all agree to the bill of each other. I have no question as to the equity of the claims. This estate had a little personal property in the way household effects,the gross proceeds of which at public sale on April 27th,1918 amounted to $213.05,as per report of sale now on file in your office;the remainder of the estate consists of three pieces of real estate,of unknown value,until sold. W.W.Schwinn,now has this realty in hand,for purpose of quieting title,and putting it in shape for merchatable title,so it can be sold for payment of debts. Kindly issue your order for allowance,classifying same,of these claims,and mail to me for my files.

Yours truly,C.C.Taylor Adm.

CONWAY SPRINGS, SUMNER COUNTY, KANSAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1910.

Another Pioneer Passes on.

I. G. Jones, one of the best known aged citizens of Conway Springs died Tuesday afternoon, after an illness of many weeks. Because of his age and the nature of illness his death had been expected for several days. The funeral services are being held from the Brethren church, of which he was a member, this afternoon, conducted by Elders Whitmer and Downing and interment will be made in the Conway Springs cemetery.

Mr. Jones was an old soldier and served in the Civil war in Co. D, 30th Maine Vol. Inf. He came to Conway Springs in 1882 and has resided here since that time, on main street, one block west of the depot, excepting two years which he and his family spent at Alamosa, Colorado.

Mr, Jones will be missed, not only by the bereaved wife and family, but by the people of Conway Springs with whom he had associated so long. He was a good man, kind and genial at all times, and a familiar figure on our streets until he became too ill to get around a few months ago. He had the ill will of no one and many will remember his kindly words and hearty greetings. One by one they are passing on and but few of the early day residents of this country are left with us.

1. G. Jones was born at Unity, Waldo county, Maine, January 8, 1832; died at Conway Springs, Kansas June 21, 1910, aged 78 years, 5 months and 13 days. He was married to Hannah Ratcliff at Unity, Maine, in 1850. Four children were born to this union—Mrs. Lizzie Kelly, now of East St Louis, Ill.; Joseph and William, deceased, and Mrs. Jennie Boyd, now of Boston, Mass. Being left a widower, he was again married June 7, 1870, at Cerro Gordo, Ill., to Susanna Cripe, who survives him. Five children were born to them—Arthur L, now of Newton, Iowa; Charles E., of Viola, Kansas, Mrs. Lottie I. Pippinger of Cushing, Okla., Edith E., deceased; and John of Tacoma, Wash. The children at his bedside when he died were Arthur, Lizzie, Lottie and Charles.

Charley Jones Is Dead

Charley Jones, who was reared in Conway Springs, a son of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Jones, early day settlers here and long time residents of Conway Springs, died at Belle Plaine last Saturday and the body was brought here that afternoon. Funeral services were conducted from the Brethern church Sunday afternoon by Eld. A. J. Smith of that church and the pastor of the Methodist church at Viola. Interment was made in the Conway Springs cemetery.

Mr. Jones had charge of the telephone central office at Viola for some time, but several months ago was transferred to Belle Plaine and moved his family to that place. He has been in poor health for quite a while.

Charels Edwin Jones was born near Vandalia, Ill., on May 19, 1874. He came to Kansas with his parents in 1885 and settled near Conway Springs. He was married to Miss Grace Lee Harris July 15, 1896. To them six children were born, five boys and one girl, all of whom survive him. His father, died at Conway Springs June 21, 1910. He leaves two brothers, Arthur L. of Newton Iowa. John of Spanaway, Wash., one sister, Mrs. Lottie I. Pippinger of Cushing, Okla., his mother Mrs. Susan Jones of Conway Springs and his wife and children.

He joined the Brethern church in youth and this was his chosen church to the last. He died August 17, 1912, aged 38 years.

died 17 aug. 1912

Seriously Burned

Mrs. I. G. Jones was seriously burned at her home here this morning. She spilled coal oil over her hair and clothing from a lamp and the saturated clothing caught fire in some way. Before the flames could be extinguished by her son Arthur and his wife, who were in the house at the time and went to her assistance as soon as they heard her call. She was so badly burned that the physicians who were called immediately consider that her condition is very serious.

There is little hope for her recovery.

Death of Mrs. Susan Jones

Mrs. Susan Jones, a well known resident of Conway Springs, died last Thursday evening, after an illness of about three months. Funeral services were held from the Brethren church Saturday afternoon, conducted by Pastor Wm. E. Thompson, after which a very large crowd of old friends and neighbors followed the remains to their last resting place in the Conway Springs cemetery.

Susan Cripe was born near Lafayette, Indiana, August 22, 1848, and died at Conway Springs, Kansas, March 28, 1918, aged 69 years, 7 months and 6 days. At an early age she, with her parents, moved to Cerro Gordo, Illinois, where she was married to Ichabod Gibson Jones on June 7, 1870. In the spring of 1885 they moved to Conway Springs, Kansas, where she resided until her death. Her companion preceded her to the spirit world June 21, 1910. To this union were born five children, three of whom are living— Arthur L. Jones of Newton, Iowa; Lottie I. Pippinger of Cushing, Okla.; John Jones of Tacoma, Wash. Edith E., and Charles E., preceded her several years ago.

"Grandma Jones," as everyone knew her, united with the Church of the Brethren at an early age. She was an earnest seeker after the truth and spent much time in the study of the Bible. She had a very large circle of friends and those who knew her best loved her best, for she was always ready to extend a helping hand to those in need of help.

Mrs. I. G. Jones was seriously burned at her home here this morning. She spilled coal oil over her head and clothing from a lamp and the saturated clothing caught fire some way. Before the flames could be extinguished by her son, Arthur and his wife, who were in the house at the time and went to her assistance as soon as they heard her call, she was badly burned. The physicians who were called immediately consider that her condition is very serious. There is little hope for her recovery.

MARTIN V. BOSTETTER was born in the house in which he now lives, September 22, 1837, son of John and Mary (Brumbaugh) Bostetter. John Bostetter was born in the same house in which his son Martin first saw the light; he was a son of Jacob and Anna (Martin) Bostetter.

Andrew Bostetter, the father of Jacob, was the founder of the family in this region. He came to America from Germany at an early day, settled in what is now Washington County, and here struggled with the difficulties of pioneer life, while the savage red men were still numerous. Andrew Bostetter left his native country because of a punishment inflicted upon him by his father. This was a course not uncommon at that time among young men in whose hearts there was already a burning desire to seek a home in the New World, where every one might follow the dictates of his own conscience, and worship God as he saw fit. When Andrew Bostetter arrived in America, with his small treasure of gold and silver safely stowed away in a belt which he wore, he had no acquaintances to greet him. But he soon found work to do, and proved himself a useful, and consequently a successful citizen.

In course of time he married. His son, Jacob Bostetter, who was for many years a distiller, purchased about 235 acres of land, where Martin V. Bostetter now lives. Here, in 1807, he built a large brick dwelling which is today as firm and solid as when first erected. In this house he lived and died. Jacob Bostetter married Anna Martin; they had eight children, as follows: Andrew, who was a soldier in the war of 1812; Jacob, who settled in Ohio, where he died; Daniel, who also settled and died in Ohio; John; Elizabeth, who married Andrew Friedly; Catherine, who married Friedly, who died, and she married Christian Scheller; Maria, who married Henry A. Gearhart; Susan, who married John Carter, a soldier in the French and Indian war; she died near the Nunnery, in Franklin County, Pa. Jacob and Anna Bostetter were probably members of the German Baptist Church.

Their son, John Bostetter, was educated in subscription schools, in the days when they were held in log cabins, with slab seats, puncheon floors, window lights made of greased paper, &c. The vocation of his life was farming. In 1826, John Bostetter married Mary Brumbaugh, who was born in 1806, married in 1826, and died in 1886. Mrs. Bostetter was an aunt of J. N. Brumbaugh, Judge of the Orphans' Court of Washington County, whose family history appears in this work. At the time of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. John Bostetter settled on the farm on which Samuel Foltz now resides, and which they owned for many years. They subsequently removed to the house which is now the home of Martin V. Bostetter, where they resided until 1864. They then removed to a brick dwelling, now the property of their son, Martin V., situated in a village known as Bostetter. Here, in 1879, John Bostetter died, and was buried in the German Baptist church-yard, at Broad Fording. From that time, his widow resided with her son, Martin V. Bostetter. She died in 1886, and was also interred at Broad Fording, she and her husband having been members of the church there. Their children were: 1. Andrew, who married Rebecca Miller; he is dead, and is survived by his widow and four children: Mary (Mrs. Charles Smith); John H.; Emma (Mrs. Edward Johnson); Elmer; 2. Elizabeth, who married D. M. Holsinger, and has one child, Norman B.; 3. Martin V.; 4. Isabella, who married Simon Stouffer, both deceased, leaving no children; 5. Catherine (Mrs. Ezra Summers); 6. John S., who first married Nancy Sprecher, and had children, Albert, William and Florence; afterwards married Ann Johnson, and had children, Edward, Howard, Mary S., Stella and Anna.

Martin V. Bostetter was educated in the common schools, and brought up as a farmer. He was married, January 8, 1864, to Barbara A., daughter of David and Mary Sprecher. Their children are: Mary, who married Joseph Young; Charles; David A., who married Della Miller; Anna, who married H. L. Kauffman, a box manufacturer, of Hagerstown; Ella; Barbara.

At the time of his marriage, Martin V. Bostetter settled on the old homestead, where he was born. Here he has given his attention to rural pursuits, and has succeeded in accumulating a handsome competency, being the owner of 150 acres of fine land surrounding his dwelling, a house and 2 acres in the village of Bostetter, and ten acres near Halfway. His possessions are mainly the product of his own labor and economy. In politics he is Democratic. Mr. and Mrs. Bostetter are members of the German Baptist Church at Broad Fording.

THE KOOGLE FAMILY.—The progenitors of the Koogle family were of German blood. Between the year 1765 and the beginning of the Revolutionary War, five brothers of that name emigrated from Darmstadt, Germany, to America, and settled near Bolivar, about three miles west of Middletown, Frederick Co., Md. So far as is known, they were all farmers, and of that sturdy type which adds strength to any community.

One of those brothers, Henry Adam Koogle, great-grandfather of Charles E. Koogle, lived on a farm near Mount Tabor Church. He was the father of two sons and three daughters, as follows: 1. John, who emigrated to Kentucky early in the nineteenth century; a few years later, he paid a visit to his early home in Maryland; after his return to Kentucky, nothing more was heard from him; but descendants of his have been found in various western States; 2. Henry Adam; 3. Elizabeth, married Daniel Zittle, and 4. Catherine, married Michael Zittle; Daniel and Michael Zittle were brothers, and they and their wives lived and died at Zittlestown, Washington County, Md.; 5. Mary, married Gideon Slifer, of the neighborhood of Bolivar, Md., where she lived and died.

Henry Adam Koogle, second son of Henry Adam Koogle, first, was born January 16, 1792. He married Magdalene Ludy, who was born July 4, 1804. For two years, they lived at "the Ludy Saw-mill" property; then Henry Adam Koogle purchased and removed to the farm now owned by his son, Capt. Jacob Koogle, one mile and a half northwest of Myersville, in Frederick County. Here he followed his chosen calling, that of tilling the soil, until his death, April 21, 1853. His wife survived him for twenty-seven years; she died October 11, 1880, aged 76 years. Their remains repose in the old St. John's graveyard at Church Hill.

To Henry Adam and Magdalene (Ludy) Koogle were born nine children, five sons and four daughters, as follows:

1. George, born May 25, 1829. He received a rural education completing his studies at Wittenburg College, Springfield, O. He married Mary

The Family Tree
"Henry Warner, Randolph Twp. Pioneer" Mtgy Co Ohio
by Roger Rhoads

Henry Warner (1754-1815) was my 5x great grandfather. He was born in Frederick Co., Maryland colony, to Nicolas and Anna Maria Warner. Nicolas was the Immigrant having arrived probably from Wuerttemburg, Germany in ca. 1754. In ca. 1774 Henry married Susanna Bostetter (1754-1820), daughter of Andrew Bostetter and Elizabeth Long.

By 1775 he was in old Bedford Co., PA, east of Altoona, and during the Revolutionary War he was in the Pennsylvania militia. Ten children were born to Henry and Susanna, the first six being married in Bedford Co.

- Jacob (1775-1835) who married Rosanna Lingenfelter,
- John (1777-1859) who married Catherine Nicodemus,
- Elizabeth (1779-1815) who married William Snider,
- Henry, Jr. (1781-1860) who married Elizabeth Nicodemus, Catherine's sister,
- Andrew (1784-1823) who married Catherine Brumbaugh,
- David (1787-1862) who married Esther Brumbaugh, Catherine's sister,
- Susannah (1791-1825) who married Samuel Folkerth,
- Daniel (1792-1826) who married Sarah Eller,
- Samuel (b. 1795, d. bef. 1810),
- Catherine (1797-1865) who married John Mast.

Henry amassed a number of farms in the Bedford and Huntingdon Co. areas, but apparently wanted his children and their families to live more closely together. Therefore, in 1811 when he was 57 years old, he sold all of this land and together with his nine surviving children and their families took the road west to the Ohio River where they boarded flatboats for Cincinnati and then came overland by wagon to Randolph Twp.

Prior to the trip he had one of his sons go ahead to buy land. Divided among the various families it comprised a strip almost three miles long extending west from what is now Rt. 48 (old Covington Pike) and lying on the north side of Sweet Potato Ridge Rd. It became known as the "Warner Settlement."

After settling in, it was time to help start a new church. The Warners were founders of present-day Salem Church of the Brethren in 1817, at the corner of Diamond Mill and Phillipsburg-Union Rds. One son became an elder while another was a deacon of that church.

Henry back in Bedford Co., was Brethren and probably attended Clovercreek Brethren Church east of Martinsburg that dates from before 1790. Certainly, his children were of that faith, and they married families that were Brethren as well. Two of the children moved on from there. John moved to Koskiusko Co., IN, after his wife's death. Henry, Jr. in his later years moved to near Bradford.

Henry died in 1815, and along with some of his children and their spouses, he is buried in the Old Warner Cemetery (aka Herr Cemetery) on Sweet Potato Ridge Rd. about one mile west of Rt. 48. This little burial site was ravaged by time and vandalism, and Henry's tombstone has been lost. However, several years ago, local members of the Warner family, refurbished the remaining stones and placed a granite memorial to Henry and his family.

Back in old Bedford Co., George Rhodes, another 5x great grandfather of mine, lived a few miles away from Henry. In 1810, three of his sons moved to Montgomery Co. and two of them homesteaded 160 acres a bit north of Farmersville. In 1814, George and his wife decided to come to Ohio with a daughter's family. They got as far as Pittsburgh where George got sick and died. His widow filed a petition for his estate's administration from near Wolf Creek Pike and Diamond Mill Rd., south of Brookville.

The sons helped found Slifers Church in 1816 on the corner of Clayton and Chicken Bristle Rds. It was a union church composed of Evangelical Lutheran and German Reformed congregations.

Later one of the sons, Jacob, moved a bit further north, and in 1825 homesteaded 80 acres on Little Richmond Rd., a bit east of Brookville-Johnsville Rd. His son, Jacob, became an elder at the Providence Lutheran Church.

Now, moving forward almost a hundred years, in 1907 Earl Rhoads (1886-1969), 3x great grandson of George Rhodes, married Alma Warner (1888-1920), 3x great granddaughter of Henry Warner. He was Lutheran and lived on Providence Rd. south of Brookville. She was Brethren and lived near Phillipsburg.

I have always wondered how my grandparents from such similar geographical but totally different religious backgrounds ever got together. They lived only ten miles apart but many more than that from a Christian theology point of view. One of the great mysteries of my family's history.

Editor's Note: Roger Rhoads, who contributed the above article, lives in Mentor, Ohio. Last year he made a very important donation to the historical society - an original postcard dated 1899 that had been sent out by then postmaster Welby Waymire, announcing the name change from Harrisburg and Iamton P.O. to Englewood, Ohio.

Whereas I Andrew Bosteter of Washington County have made and duly executed my last will and testament in writing bearing date the twelfth day of Aprile in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and six, which said last will and testament and every clause bequest and devise therein contained I do hereby ratify and confirm saving and excepting such bequests, devises therein mentioned as are by me herein after revoked and made void and being desirous to alter some parts thereof, do therefore hereby make this Codicil, which I will direct shall be taken and held as part of my said will and testament in manner and form following that is to say, Whereas since the making of my said will I reflected on and duly considered the unsteady and changing disposition of my son-in-law John Murry: and whereas I by my said will did give and bequeath unto my daughter sums therein mentioned I do hereby revoke the said legacy and do give and bequeath said legacy unto the children of my said daughter Elisabeth to be equily devided among them after the death of her my said daughter but dureing her natureal [life] She my said daughter shall be entitled to and receive the interest of said legacy annually And whereas I did by said Will and testament give and bequeath unto my grandaughter Maria Murry the sum of fifty pounds Maryland Currency: now I do hereby revoke the said legacy as she is intitled to a proportionable part of her mother's legacy as above mentioned. In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed my seal the eighth day of June in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and Six.

Washington County to wit
On the 17 day of July 1806 came David Long and Jacob Bosteter and made oath
&c that this is the true and whole will of Andrew Bosteter late of Washington County deceased that hath come to their hands and possession and that they do not know of any other. At the same time came Daniel Reckart, John Long and Jacob Richart the three subscribing witnesses to the annexed will and made oath &c that they did see the testator herein named sign and seal this will that they heard him publish pronounce and declare the same to be his Last Will and testament, that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their apprehensions of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding and that they subscribed their names to this will in the presence and at the request of the testator.

Certified by George C. Smoot Reg.

[NOTE: Twice I asked the Maryland State Archives to see if they could find the original will, rather than this recorded one, but they said it no longer exists.]

Roger,

Since I have deed records of Andrew Bostetter in the 1780s, including one in 1786 giving his residence as Washington Co., MD, my guess is that Andrew Bostetter remained in Maryland throughout this time period (deeds in 1790s also and death in 1806 all in same place). Whether his daughter Magdalena married in MD or PA, that's anybody's guess, unless there's actually a marriage record of some sort. I thought I had records of the Gribes/Cripes living in Maryland during this timeframe but I could be wrong. The birthplaces of their children given on census records would likely be of assistance here. Yes, I just looked up their son John B. Cripe (1850 Census, Elkhart Co., IN) and it shows he was born ca. 1788 in Maryland.

Thanks, Joe, for posting the will of Andrew Bostetter again. The actual mention of Susannah Varner comes not from the will but the settlement records. I have tried to get a copy of the original settlement record but no one seems to know where it went. So I have had to rely on this (faulty) transcription, though I am not sure if the transcription or the original clerk is at fault!

Mary Kay

[NOTE: The will of Andrew BOSTETER says his daughter was a GRIBE rather than GRISE and a listing in the inventory mentions a Jacob GRIPE. A deed also says Andrew's daughter Christina was the wife of Samuel SHATT (or SHOTT[S]) not SHATTLEY. Perhaps the Samuel SHAD(D) found in Washington Co., MD, may be a possibility. Susannah is supposedly wife of Henry WARNER; Mary wife of John TYSHER/TEISHER; Rosannah wife of David MARTIN s/o Nicholas; Catherine wife of Jacob SNYDER Jr.]

CONWAY SPRINGS STAR, Friday January 3, 1902

Miss Edith Jones, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. I. G. Jones, died at one o'clock New Years Day . She had been in poor health for many years. She was born in Fayette County, Illinois, on November 20, 1878, and died in Conway Springs on January 1, 1912. She had lived here about 18 years and was a member of the Methodist Church.

The funeral was held at the Dunkard Church, with burial in the Conway Springs Cemetery.

CONWAY SPRINGS STAR, Thursday, June 23, 1910

I. G. Jones, a pioneer here, was an old soldier, who served in the Civil War, Company D 30th Maine Volunteer Infantry. He came to Conway Springs in 1882, and resided 1 block west of the depot, except two years he and his family spent at Alamosa, Colorado.

I. G. Jones, was born in Unity, Waldo County, Maine, January 8, 1832, and died at Conway Springs June 21, 1910, age 78 yrs, 5mo. 13 day. He married Hannah Ratcliff at Unity, Maine, in 1850. They had 4 children: Mrs. Lizzie Kelly, St Louis, MO.; Joseph and William are deceased; Mrs. Jennie Boyd of Boston, Mass. Left a widower he again married June 7, 1870, Cerro Gordo, Illinois, to Susanna Cripe, who survives. Five children were born to them: Arthur L., of Newton, Iowa; Charles E. of Viola, Kansas; Mrs. Lottie I. Pippinger of Cushing, OK; Edith E., deceased; and John of Tacoma, Washington. The funeral was held at the Brethren Church with interment in the Conway Springs Cemetery.

CONWAY SPRINGS STAR, Thursday, August 22, 1912

Charley Jones is dead. Died at Belle Plaine, last Saturday. The funeral was held at the Brethren Church Sunday afternoon, with interment in the Conway Springs Cemetery. He had charge of the telephone central office at Viola, for sometime and several months ago transferred to Belle Plaine.

Charles Edwin Jones was born near Vandalia, Ilinois, May 19 1874, and came to Kansas with his parents in 1885, and settled near Conway Springs. He married Miss Grace Lee Harris July 15, 1896 and had 6 children. Five boys and 1 girl, all survive. His father died June 21, 1910. He leaves two brothers: Arthur L., Newton, Iowa; John of Spanaway, Washington; one sister, Lottie I. Pippinger of Cushing, OK.; his mother, Mrs. Susan Jones of Conway; and his wife and children.

Charles died Saturday, August 17.

Delphi Presbyterian church Sunday evening, February 8. The speakers have not been announced and the names of these are to be a surprise. The subject of Stewardship in regard to service, ability, love of Christ and time will be carried out in the program.

SOME WATER FACTS.

The first 9000 feet of the new inflow pipe was completed about ten days ago. It would naturally be more or less unsanitary from being much handled in manufacturing and the shipping of about 1000 miles.

As required by law it was washed with a solution of chloride of lime. After laying the pipe the water was flushed thru and drained into the creek for one day. Even though enough remained in the pipe to cause objectionable oder and taste for several days.

Many years ago two large underground reservoirs were constructed, one at the plant and one a few hundred yards from the plant, while no criticism is offered to those who installed them yet the mistake was made of having no means of cutting one tank while the other was cleaned. Because of this there is an accumulation of sediment in the reservoirs.

At this time the city is providing means of shutting off one while the other is being used so that they may be kept clean.

This condition has in a measure, caused the need of chlorinating. It is hoped that after all the change is made and reservoirs well cleaned it will no longer be necessary to use the chlorine. This work is being done under the instructions and supervision of one of the best engineers in the state.

In reply to an inquiry to the State Board of Health they say: "The presence of chlorine solution in the water will not produce illness. It will produce unpleasant taste but with no danger to health."

While all this is causing some annoyance and inconvenience at this time the city asks the indulgence of the public until the work is completed.

Inspection of O. E. S. Chapter.

Florence Stunkard, district deputy of the Eastern Star lodge was at Cutler Monday evening where she held inspection. She will go to Rossville today where a luncheon was served in her honor and that of Mrs. Francis E. Curtis of Monon, Worthy Grand Matron who accompanied her. In the afternoon inspection of the lodge was held.

RS TOGETHER!

of Religious Education to be held at the Flora M. E. church February 15-20.

Four courses will be offered as follows: "New Testament", instructor, Rev. O. Paul Manker; "Story Telling", instructor, Miss Martha Shotts; "Principles of Teaching", instructor, Francis C. Schlater; "Young People's Materials and Methods", instructor, Raymond A. Pitzer.

The first session will be a mass meeting Sunday afternoon, February 15 at 2:30. The text books and assignments can be secured at the close of this session.

The class work begins Monday night, February 16 and continues for five nights closing Friday night, February 20th.

The first class period will be from 7:00 to 7:50, worship assembly 7:50 to 8:10, second class period 8:10 to 9:00 o'clock.

Each student may choose one course. The registration fee is 50 cents. The school is open to workers from all the churches in the county and it is hoped large numbers of workers and young people will find it possible to set aside these evenings for special training in the work of Religious Education.

Enrollment blanks can be secured from your Sunday school superintendent, so secure your blank and enroll and help promote this training school.

MRS. HANNA MICHAEL.

[illegible]

Mrs. Hannah Michael, the loving daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cripe, was born on November 10, 1854. She united in marriage at the age of 14 to Mr. William J. Michael in 1868 and departed this life at Logansport on Thursday, January 29, 1931. She was the mother of 9 children, of which 4 preceded her in death; the five still living are Mrs. Ida B. Viney at whose home she died; Mrs. Lillie Taylor of Logansport, Mr. B. F. Michael of Wheeling, Mr. William H. Michael of Mishawaka and Mrs. Alice Brady of east of Delphi. She is also survived by 35 grandchildren; 56 great grandchildren and 3 great great grandchildren. She leaves a host of friends and neighbors to mourn her loss.

CHILD BURIED HERE.

James, the 23 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hefner who died Wednesday of diphtheria at the home southwest of Yeoman, was buried at Monticello Friday afternoon. Besides his parents, the child leaves another brother six years old.

REGULATING BASKETBALL

The Peru Tribune says:

The Indiana State Legislature is going to take a hand in state high school athletics, particularly the basketball feature of it, which has been known and sponsored by the Indiana High School Athletic Association, alleged to be a private concern. Two bills have been introduced in the state Senate placing all high school athletics under the control of the state board of education, with seven members constituting the board.

This desired action by the legislature is long past due. Taxpayers, school patrons and school officials all over the berries and make only one field goal during the game. So the Oracles are not the only top notch team in the state that's going down to defeat.

—S—O—

Greencastle and Horace Mann are top notch teams, too. Both are going good and both were pointed for the Oracles. And hit us in our slump.

—S—O—

Now the less said about our games last week the better. The Oracles led by 8 to 3 at one time in the Horace Mann game so that's one consolation Thats while the regulars were all in and before Whiteman was taken out.

—S—O—

Whiteman is hardly able to play basketball at the present time because of illness and several other of the boys also have colds and other minor troubles.

—S—O—

But it's better that they should get well than that Delphi should win right at the present time. Then at tournament time they'll be in good shape.

—S—O—

Alexandria comes to the local gym Friday night with an excellent record and a heavy win over Elwood Friday night.

—S—O—

The second team upheld the honors of Delphi, Wednesday night, by winning over the Greencastle yannigans but they, too, flopped Friday night and took a beating from Cutler 28 to 21.

—S—O—

Cutler put up a mighty fine game with excellent passing and shooting.

—S—O—

We repeat our confidence in the Delphi Oracles. Let's forget all these games lost and go forward to better and better games in March.

And so take your time, Oracles. Get well first and then show us what you really are.

—S—O—

HORACE MANN OF GARY DOWNS ORACLES 20 TO 10

The Oracles took their second beating of the week on their home floor when they lost to Horace Mann 20 to 10. The boys snapped out of their lethargy of Wednesday night but again were unable to hit the hoop caging but 4 of 33 attempts while the Horsemen connected 8 of 27. The accuracy of the visitors on long one-handed heaves was the deciding factor, six of their eight baskets coming in this manner.

At the start of the game the Oracles battled their way into the lead, finally running the count to 8 to 3 about four minutes before the close of the first half. At this point Whiteman, weakened by his recent illness, was taken out. This fighting guard had been playing a great game and his absence was immediately felt, the Horsemen going into a 10 to 8 lead at the half.

At the start of the second session three consecutive long one-handed shots put the visitors into a commanding lead and they went into a stall. The Oracles were able to secure the ball for plenty of shots but could not connect.

In the curtain raiser the Little Oracles after leading almost all the way were victims of a belated rally and lost to Cutler 28 to 21.

Donald Lynch, the Michigantown lad who was accidentally shot several days ago, is now on the high road to recovery, and it will not be necessary to amputate the left arm, as was at first thought to be the only means of saving his life. In the boy's case a most remarkable fact is presented, inasmuch as while the left arm will live, there will be no pulse at the wrist, the artery having been shot away.

The death of Charles N. Westfall, one of the best known citizens of Brookston, occurred Monday afternoon. Death was due to concussion of the brain, caused by being thrown from a load of straw ten days previous. Mr. Westfall was born in Mackenburg, Germany, March 21, 1837, and came to this country when 16 years of age. He was married twice and leaves a widow and several children. He served in the 48th Indiana regiment during the civil war. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon. [illegible]

The funeral of William J. Michaels was held from the Brethren church, south of Camden, last Saturday morning, Rev. John Musselman conducting the services. Burial in the Moss cemetery. #8 ✓TAYLOR—Michaell Lillie, daughter of John and Hannah ~~Katie~~ Mikei, was born April 20, 1882, at Rossville, Ind., and passed away June 13, 1966, at the age of 84 years, 1 month, and 23 days.

On April 19 she was taken to the Goshen General Hospital. She was taken to the Luann Nursing Home at Nappanee about 4 days before she died.

On July 7, 1900, she was united in marriage with Brother Nathan Taylor. He passed away March 8, 1963. Early in life they were baptized into the Old German Baptist Church, where they remained faithful until death. In 1951 they moved from Logansport to Goshen.

She leaves to mourn her departure 3 sons: Charles, Jerry, and Jesse; 4 daughters: Mrs. James (Ida) Randolph, Mrs. Harvey (Lorrie) Wysong, Mrs. William (Irene) Luse, and Mrs. Harley (Maudie) Meek; 33 grandchildren; 50 great-grandchildren; and 7 great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held June 16, at 9:30 a.m., in our east meeting house, by the home brethren. Rev. 21 and John 14 were used. Burial was made at 2 p.m. in the Burrows Cemetery, there to await the call of her Savior.

Notes

Jacob's obit reads: "J.C.CRIPE, FORMER BERTHOLD MAN STRICKEN THERE MONDAY. J. C. Cripe was stricken with paralysis Monday afternoon when taking the lunch out to the men in the field. He was taken to the Mahugh home about five o'clock and died shortly afterwards. Mr. Cripe and his son Elmer, former residents of Berthold but now of Gladstone, Mich. had motored up here where they were both working on the Porter Black threshing rig. His body will be shipped to Stanley where he will be buried beside his wife who passed away several years ago. He leaves a daughter Maud who lives in Gladstone, Mich. and one son Elmer who was with him at the time of his death." The Ward County Independent September 29, 1927.

Kirk, Mary Ann (Cripe), daughter of John and Mary Ann Cripe, born February 15, 1860, near Hillisburg, Indiana, and died December 31, 1938. She joined the Church of the Brethren early in life. Married Joel Cripe at Hillisburg, November 22, 1875. They had six children, 3 preceding her. Her husband died May 12, 1910. Later she married Dan Cripe, who passed away January 4, 1916; and John Shiltz who passed away August 8, 1930. 1932 married Walter R. Kirk, who survives.

She was a kind and thoughtful mother, always present in sickness and sorrow, ready and willing to do her part. She was living in Osceola, Missouri at the time of death. She leaves husband, 2 sisters, 1 brother, 3 children, 7 grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends. Funeral at Pleasant Mound Church of Brethren with interment in the nearby cemetery. (L. M. Baldwin, Osceola, MO.)

Cause of death: Result of a broken hip at age 96

Notes

Sam was born in 1869 in Pennsylvania moving to Indiana and later to North Dakota with his parents. He later went to Worden, Wisconsin. He and his brother, Dave drove a horse and buggy to Wisconsin. They left North Dakota because they didn't like the winds. It was in Wisconsin where Sam met and married Mary Ellen Cripe. When his brother, Reuben married Lily Garber, the wedding supper was prepared by Sam's wife, Mary Ellen and served in their home. Mary Ellen became homesick in Wisconsin so they decided to make their home in Osceola, Mo. Sam was a faithful Christian being a deacon in a Brethren church in Worden, WI and Osceola, MO. When Luther Welch (husband of Anna Belle Stong) was dying he had Sam come to pray for him.

Sam was a carpenter by trade, and while in his nineties he climbed up on a roof to "supervise the shingling".

At age 96 he broke his hip and death was the result of this injury. The day before he died, as he was saying the blessing at breakfast, his words were "Oh God, this is the first time I've been with you and this is such a beautiful place."

Sam is buried in the Osceola Church of the Brethren Cemetery.

Ma[illegible]rds are taken from the family Bible, and family records.

Sam and Mary Ellen had a double wedding with Sarah Elmira Stong and Isaac Daniel Cripe. Isaac and Mary were brother and sister. Sam and Sarah were brother and sister.

Irene was a school teacher. Her marriage announcement reads: DAUGHERTY---STONG Married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stong of Ulrich Bend, Miss Irene Stong and Glen Daugherty. There were a number of friends and relatives present to witness the caeremony which was performed by Elder Simmons, pastor of the Dunkard church, of which the Stong family are members.

The bride is one of the most pleasant and amiable young ladies of the county, and has a host of friends, whom she has made by her sweet and pleasant disposition. The groom needs no recommendation in the county--a young man of the highest ideals and character, loved and respected by all who know him. He is one of the county's most successful school teachers, and has taught the High Hill school several terms, where not only his pupils but the parents were endeared to him and join in wishing him and his charming bride a happy and successful voyage over life's seas.

The marriage ceremony was most impressive, and the young people were surely attractive. The bride wore a dress of sky blue crepe and the groom was attired in the usual conventional black. After the ceremony a bountiful dinner was served. The afternoon was spent in conversation and singing some beautiful songs. Mrs. E. Lyon presiding at the organ. It surely was a pleasant event.

Notes

Jacob died in Minot, N. Dak. while there with his son Elmer threshing. He was stricken while he took lunch out to the workers in the field. He and Elmer both were living in Gladstone, Michigan at the time. His body was taken to Stanley, Wisconsin and buried along side of his wife, Elizabeth.

His obit from the Ward County Independent, Sept 29, 1927....J. C. CRIPE, FORMER BERTHOLD MAN STRICKEN THERE MONDAY......J. C. Cripe was stricken with paralysis Monday afternoon when taking the lunch out to the men in the field. He was taken to the Mahugh home about five o'clock and died shortly afterwards. Mr. Cripe and his son, Elmer, former residents of Berthold but now of Gladstone, Mich. had motored up here where they were both working on the Porter-Black threshing rig. His body will be shipped to Stanley where he will be buried beside his wife who passed away several years ago. He leaves a daughter, Maud who lives in Gladstone, Mich., and one son, Elmer who was with him at the time of his death.

All evidence seems to support her 2nd marriage

1. The Troxel Book gives her death date as 3 Feb 1893 but does not state where. I assume they had some proof.

2. In the Pyrmont cemetery is Daniel Cript d. 20 Apr 1872 age 57-6-1. The stone was probably difficult to read. Computed age is 56-6-1 according to those dates.

3. ELIZABETH is buried in the Old Order cem. Clinton Co. giving her age 73y. 11m. as wife of David Y. Miller. One of his sons Christian D. Miller is buried beside her and Christian's wife, Sarah Rule.

4. DAVID Y. MILLER is listed in Old Order Notes as b. 1809 Ohio d. 1898 Yellow Creek, Ind. - an Old Order Minister. Elizabeth Troxel Cripe & nearly all of the Cripe's in that family were Old Orders.

5. Listed in the Yellow Creek Brethren cemetery at Elkhart, Ind. are -

    1. EVE, wife of David Y. Miller d. 12 March 1876 age 64-2-2. Her obit in the Brethren (Vol X11 #4 Winter 1981) gives her maiden name Eve Banter - had 13 children - d. of pneumonia.

    2. Elizabeth, 2nd wife of David Y. Miller d. 17 Oct 1879 - maiden name unknown nor is age given.

    3. DAVID Y. MILLER d. 4 Aug 1898 age 89-3-19 (he s/o John Miller & Esther Miller.)

    4. CArroll Co. Death Records gives Christian D. Miller's dates - #447.

Daniel L. Cripe or "D. L." as he was known to his friends, was born in Petit, Ind., Sept 1873 and came to Peterboro 27 years ago with his family, buying the Elmer Cramer farm, which he operated until a year ago when he sold it. Mr. Cripe was a member of the local unit of Dairymen's League and served for two years as Justice of Peace for Smithfield. Upon giving up farming he became janitor of the local school. He was a member of the Church of the Brethren at Kings Ferry.
Surviving are his widow, a son Russell Cripe of Utica, three daughters Mrs. Giles Bliss of Stuyvesant, Mrs. Willis Dale, Mrs. Roger New of Canastota, 11 grandchildren, 3 sisters and a brother in the west.
Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Cripe celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary by going out to dinner.
Later that night he suffered a heart attack.
Services were held from the home Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Elmer Nedrow of King Ferry officiating with burial in Lenox Rural cemetery.
The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Mr. Cripe was always kind and cheerful and will be missed about town.

Amos Cripe, being first duly affirmed, says:

That he is a son of Daniel B.Cripe, who was the grantee in a deed from David Yost and Sarah E.Yost, his wife, dated January 10,1872, and recorded in Deed Record [illegible], at page 294, in the office of the Recorder of Clinton County, Indiana, and affiant states that the said Daniel B.Cripe, died, intestate, in said County, on or about the   day of   18   leaving surviving him as his sole heirs at law and next of kin his widow, Elizabeth Cripe, and his children, Mary A.Ulery, wife of Samuel Ulery, John C.Cripe, Susanna L.Cripe, Henry J.Cripe, Catharine Michael, wife of John Michael, Amos Cripe, this affiant, and Elizabeth Cripe.

Affiant further states that Susanna Cripe, who is one of the grantors in a deed to George Williare, dated August 12,1876, and recorded in Deed Record 44, at page 121, in the office of the Recorder of said County, was unmarried at the date of said deed, and that Susanna Cripe, whose name appears thus in the granting clause of said last mentioned deed, is the same person as Susanna L.Cripe, who signed the same, and is also the same person as Susannah Cripe who acknowledged the execution thereof.

Affiant further states that Elizabeth Cripe, the surviving widow of the said Daniel B.Cripe, who is also one of the grantors in said last mentioned deed, was a widow and unmarried at the date of the execution and acknowledgment thereof.

Affiant further states that Amos Cripe, this affiant, who is also one of the grantors in said last mentioned deed, was unmarried at the date of the execution and acknowledgment thereof.

Affiant further states that Elizabeth Cripe, sister of this affiant, who is also one of the grantors in said last mentioned deed, was unmarried at the date of the execution and acknowledgment thereof.

Affiant further states that he was personally acquainted with George Williare, who is the grantee in said last mentioned deed, and that said George Williare is the same person as George Williard, who is one of the grantors in a deed to Henry J. Cripe, dated March 18,1878, and recorded in Deed Record 46, at page 104, in the office of the Recorder of said County, and that George Williard, whose name appears thus in the granting clause of said last mentioned deed, is the same person as George Williar who signed and acknowledged the same, and that Susannah Williard whose name appears thus in the granting clause of said last mentioned deed, is the same person as Susanna Williar who signed the same, and is also the same person as Susan Williar who acknowledged the execution thereof.

The Eight Mile Old German Baptist Brethren District to which Mary belonged is located near Baldwin City, Kans. near Centropolis, where Andrew was living when Jacob Root wrote his booklet in 1889. After Mary died Andrew must have gone back to Ozawkie and lived only a few weeks after Mary died, and may be buried on the farm in the cemetery where Elizabeth is buried. Hence, why I couldn't find any markers for them when I was at the Ozawkie cemetery in 1981. Andrew's obit. states he is survived by two sons who are Brethren Ministers and a daughter Katie Holler. Christian C. Root b 10 June 1839 Carroll County, Ind. d. at Denver, Colo 22 May 1909. Son of Andrew Root and Elizabeth Cripe. Married c 1860 Sarah A. Iman who died 14 April 1884. He was Elder and Minister in church of the Brethren. When his oldest child Eli was a child they moved to Caldwell County, Mo. He was in Mirabile, Mo. Caldwell County, in 1881 (I found in records of Church of Brethren in Carthage, Mo. Jasper County.) When his youngest son Acquilla was ~~25~~ 23 years old he accompanied his father in Prison Mission Work.It was always reported that there were only two children. Garoldine Nelson, a Root decendant found five other children, All in between Eli and Acquilla. She has listed some with no record at all. Some may have died in infancy these five other children possibly may be Christian C. Children:

the institution. During these years he completed the work requisite for the Master's degree, which distinction was conferred upon him by Pomona College, California, in 1916. One summer he taught bird study at the Pomona College Marine laboratory at Laguna Beach, California. Two other years he attended the summer school of the University of California. In 1918, he obtained leave of absence from LaVerne in order to attend the University long enough to obtain the doctorate, but just at the opening of school the government claimed his services. He responded and was stationed at the State Agricultural College of South Dakota, at Brookings, where his special field was entomology. The school year of 1919-1920, Professor Nininger taught in Southwestern College, at Winfield, Kansas. In September, 1920, he became a member of the faculty of McPheson College.

In 1914, Professor Nininger became known to the scientific world through a notable discovery which he made relative to the mouth parts of the orthoptera. This discovery was embodied in a brief paper which brought to the subject of this sketch words of commendation from many men of science. Other valuable magazine contributions have followed. Professor Nininger is a member of the following learned societies: American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Association of Economic Entomologists, Kansas Academy of Science, Entomological Society of America, and the American Ornithologists' Union.

Professor Nininger is much interested in church work. He became a member of the Church of the Brethren in the Paradise Prairie church, Oklahoma, in November, 1900. At present (1921) he is the teacher of a young men's class in the college Sunday School at McPherson.

ELI RENNER

Eli Renner, son of Noah and Fanny Weaver Renner, was born on September 6, 1839, near Dayton, Ohio. While he was yet a mere child his parents moved to a farm near Portland, Indiana, where he grew to manhood. His education was very much limited. On January 14, 1862, he was united in marriage with Miss Diana Cubbison of Bloomfield, Indiana, who was his companion for over fifty years.

Four sons were born to this union. Two of these, with a foster daughter, survived the father.

The subject of this sketch was baptized in November, 1865, in the Bear Creek church, near Bloomfield, Indiana. In about 1874, he was elected to the ministry in the same church. In the fall of 1879, he came to Kansas, locating at Burr Oak, where he resided until his death, with the exception of a six months' stay at Meriden in 1896. In the Burr Oak church he was ordained to the eldership on February 1, 1882, by Elder John Forney. From May 28, 1892, to July 28, 1894, he was elder in charge of the Burr Oak church.

Elder Renner passed away on February 9, 1913, as the result of an attack of la grippe and a stroke of paralysis. The last act of his life was to sign a check in payment of his share to the support of his pastor. He was kind and considerate of others in his attitude and was continually concerned about the welfare of the church which he loved.

ELI DAVID ROOT

Eli David Root, son of C. C. and Sarah Iman Root, was born at Rossville, Ind., on Aug. 15, 1861. He was the oldest child in the family. In early childhood he moved with his parents to Caldwell county, Mo., where he grew to manhood.

On Dec. 30, 1883, he was wedded to Miss Elizabeth F. Brammell of Ozawkie, Kansas. Two sons, Leonard H. and Ernest C., were born to this union. After the birth of their first son they moved to Ozawkie where they resided for several years. The Ozawkie church elected Bro. Root to the office of deacon. On their removal to the East Maple Grove congregation, near Gardner, Kans. on February 19, 1898, he was elected to the ministry. He served this church faithfully four years and was ordained to the eldership (November 26, 1904) just before leaving to take charge of the church at Fredonia, Kans.

Elder Root served the Fredonia church two years. During this time the church made a splendid growth under his careful pastorship. He then served the Independence church under the direction of the District Mission Board of Southeastern Kansas. Here again his efforts were highly appreciated and his labor rewarded with increase for the Kingdom.

His last residence was at Newton, where under the Mission Board of Southwest Kansas and Southeast Colo-

Elder Charles W. Shoemaker

Charles Wesley Shoemaker was born in Marshall County, Ind., Sept. 17, 1858, and died March 12, 1943, at his home in Douglas County, Kansas, at the age of eighty-four years, six months and five days.

He came to Kansas at the age of twenty years. He made his home in the Centropolis community for a short time, then moved to the Appanoose community, where he resided the remainder of his life, having lived over fifty years in the home in which he died.

He was baptized into the Church of the Brethren at the age of sixteen years, was elected deacon in October 1886, was elected to the ministry in 1896 and was ordained as elder in 1906. He spent his entire life in service to the Appanoose church and community.

He was married three times. On March 6, 1881, he was married to Melissa E. Brown, who died in 1886. In 1887 he was married to Mary F. Kinzie, who died in 1901, and to Minnie Kinzie in 1902. Those surviving are: his wife, Minnie; two sons, Fred of Pomona, Kansas, and Elmer of Topeka, Kansas; two daughters, Mrs. Olive Ikenberry and Mrs. Florance Lauver, both of Overbrook, Kansas.

Funeral services were conducted at the Appanoose church by the writer, assisted by J. M. Ward of Pomona, Kansas. Interment was in the Appanoose cemetery.

ABOUT THE CHURCHES IN OSAWKIE

The first church erected was in 1863 by the Catholics. It was kept up for many years but was finally sold in 1882. No one seems to know much about it other than this.

In point of time the Ozawkie Church of the Brethren was the fourth oldest in the state of Kansas. It was first known as the Grasshopper Falls Church. Jacob Brown, originally a Pennsylvanian but later of Iowa, was the first member of the Church of the Brethren in Jefferson County. Just when he came to Kansas is not known. In the summer of 1860, after living for five months in Brown County, Henry Royer and wife, formerly of Wabash County, Indiana, settled near Ozawkie. In the fall of 1862 Elder William Gish compelled to flee from Missouri because of the fury of the Civil war, also made Ozawkie his home. Other Missourians, among them Christian Nininger and wife, were also compelled to leave Missouri at this time.

Before the war, apparently, services had been held in the neighborhood by some visiting minister, among them Abraham Rothrock and John Bowers of Douglas County. It seems indeed that monthly meetings were held. The organization of the church took place in 1862. Services were first held at Rock Creek, west of town, in what is better known as the Mt. Pleasant School house. But the membership at Ozawkie became more numerous than at Rock Creek. The Gish School house, which was also known as the Pleasant Hill School house west of town was used for the services for sometime. The names of the early members, as far as can be learned were, William Gish and wife, Christian Nininger and wife, Jacob Brown and wife, Abraham Firestone and wife, Henry Royer and wife, Isaac Keim and wife, Jacob Crowel and wife, Reuben Henry Brammell and wife, Daniel Marker and wife, and A. L. Pearsall and wife.

Elizabeth Root [illegible]

In 1863 the church received a welcome addition when two families came from Tippecanoe County, Indiana. These were the families of Andrew 12th and 10th David Root, twenty persons in all. They were attracted to Kansas by favorable reports coming from John Royer and from John K. and Joseph Root, nephews of Andrew and David Root. John A. Root, son of Andrew, who was living at Ozawkie, then a youth of twenty-one, was one of the party of emigrants. They came to St. Joseph by rail and from there ferried the Missouri river. While crossing Doniphan County, west of St. Joseph, the party was headed off by a company of some seven or eight "Home Guards," who began to question them regarding their political preference and intentions in coming to the new state. Satisfied as to the peaceable intentions of the emigrating Brethren, they then sought to sell them land. Proceeding toward the southwest, however, the Roots came to the government land office town of Ozawkie, where David Root bought one hundred and sixty acres of land for four hundred and seventy-five dollars. This land was located two miles west of town.

The Brethren at Ozawkie experienced but little persecution during the war. However, the presence of seven grown-up men in the Root party created a little suspicion in the neighborhood. On the night of July 3, 1863 the leader of the Union League, apparently a local patriotic organization, came to the home of David Root and demanded that the men be present at the celebration on the next day. Desiring to avoid all trouble, they went. The celebration was military character, and after the Brethren had fallen in line and done a little marching with the crowd, they satisfied all doubters as to their loyalty to the Union. They therefore, experienced no molestation.

In 1864, there was an influx of settlers. Most of them were from the Somerset Church of Wabash County, Indiana. Among them were: James McFarland and wife, Aaron Puderbaugh and wife, Decatur Werst and wife and Reuben Michael and wife. All of the foregoing were related to Sister Winnie Cue Root.

Ministerial help came in 1866, in the persons of Christian Holler and David Priddy, both elders. Also Jacob Priddy, a son of David Priddy and he was a minister.

Ozawkie church perhaps had the first prayer meeting among the Brethren in the state of Kansas. Started by J. A. Root in 1877. The first Ladies Aid Society was organized in the state at the Brethren Church in Ozawkie on April 1, 1885.

The first elder of the church was William Gish. John A. Root succeeded him in 1888 and served for thirty years. Harvey L. Brammell succeeded J. A. Root in the year of 1908 and served his church in that capacity until 1938 when he suffered a stroke. Thus serving forty-four years.

The membership of Ozawkie has fluctuated considerably in 1884, it was one hundred and th In 1892, it was one hundred and ninety—the highest mark it ever reached. The lowest figure was sixty. This was in 1907 and 1908.

The following men were called to the ministry in Ozawkie; Andrew Root in (September 15, 1863); J. A. Root (September 15, 1863); Isaac Keim (December 15, 1863); A. L. Pearsall (1866 or 1867); David Kimmell (October 1867); Aaron Puderbaugh (1878); Harvey L. Brammell (November 3, 1894) Walter Brunton (November 3, 1894); Guy H. Brammell (November 2, 1916); Ernest A. Marker (November 2, 1916); Robert Kennedy (November 2, 1916); Otto Keintz (June 19, 1920); Willard Brammell.

The Seven Day Adventists church was organized in 1879, and disbanded in 1938.

JOHN A. ROOT

John A. Root is the son of Andrew and Elizabeth Cripe Root, both natives of Darke County, Ohio. The parents early emigrated to Carroll County, Indiana, where the subject of this sketch was born on February 9, 1841. At the age of twenty, John A. united with the church of the Brethren at Pyrmont, Indiana. In May 1863, with his parents, he started for Kansas, and on May 11, of that year they reached Ozawkie, in Jefferson County. Here with the exception of one year spent in Missouri, Brother Root lived out his lif that wrote the sketch of his life.

In September, 1863, he was united in marriage with Anna Saltsman. Just two weeks thereafter he was called to the ministry (September 15, 1863). In 1870 he was advanced to the second degree of the ministry and in 1876, he was ordained to the eldership. In 1880, the Ozawkie congregation called him to the oversight, in which position he served for over thirty-three years. Although he thrice sought to be relieved of this responsibility, it was not until 1914, that the church felt willing to choose his successor.

In 1864, Sister Root passed away, leaving a babe a month old. In 1886, Brother Root married Miss Winnie Cue, who was the companion of his old age. To them were born seven children, six sons and one daughter. Two sons died in infancy and one in his youth. The other three sons and the daughter grew to maturity and all were united with the Ozawkie church while young.

JOSEPH ROOT, tinner, was born in Miami County, Ohio, in 1839. In 1844, he removed to Montgomery County and lived there and in Darke County until 1853, from thence to Wabash County, Ind., where he remained until 1861, when he enlisted in the Eighth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, serving over four years. In 1863, he was veteranized, serving in the Western Division; was in the battles of Pea Ridge, Vicksburg and Champion Hill. After coming out of the army, he returned to Wabash County, and learned the tinner's trade. In 1871, he emigrated to Kansas and located in Howard County, and took a claim on Section 22, Township 31, Range 11. After living in this State five years, he came to Elk Falls, and the following year put up a tinshop and has followed the business since. He was married in 1866, in Darke County, Ohio, to Miss Amelia Nowlin. They have two sons—William and Thomas. He is a member of Rollins Post, No. 26, Grand Army of the Republic.

I always thought my Mom looked a lot like her Grandma Catherine Root Firestone. There are two pictures of them, each holding a daughter. Their faces seem very lovely to me. Both are lovely ladies. I know one is a wonderful Mother from personal experience.

I love you Mom - Happy Mother's Day.

confidence and respect. In 1866, Mr. Moore was first married to Miss Alzina W. Freeman, daughter of Elijah and Martha Freeman, of St. Charles, Ill., and they became the parents of the following children: Mary H., Allen F., Arthur L., Dwight M. and George E. Mrs. Moore died April 4, 1884, and Mr. Moore was again married in May, 1890, to Miss Belle Hamilton, who survives him and resides in the handsome Moore home at Monticello. Mrs. Moore, who was educated in the grammar and high schools, and took a course at the Normal college, is a daughter of John and Rebecca (Pritchard) Hamilton, natives of Harrison County, O. They came to McLean County, Ill., about the year 1850, and there passed the remaining years of their lives, Mr. Hamilton being engaged in agricultural pursuits.

MURPHY, James H., was born in North Carolina, November 8, 1817, and came to Monticello in 1872, engaging thereafter in a general contracting business. In September, 1846, he was married to Elizabeth Scott, and they had five children. Mr. Murphy held a number of offices of public trust.

MURPHY, John S., owner, publisher and editor of the De Land Tribune, is one of the live, progressive men of Piatt County who are engaged in molding public opinion and placing before its people the news of the day in a reliable manner. He was born at Canton, Ill., June 24, 1852, a son of James H. and Elizabeth (Scott) Murphy, natives of South Carolina and Ohio. The father came to Fulton County, Ill., during the winter of 1832-3. The mother was a daughter of Dr. John Scott, a close relative of Gen. Winfield Scott. After their marriage, the parents located at Canton, Ill., where the father conducted a lumber business under the firm name of Murphy & Allen for over a quarter of a century. In 1872 they moved to Monticello, where the mother died in September, 1892, and the father March 4, 1897. After going to Monticello he continued his lumber operations until 1881, when he retired.

John S. Murphy attended the common and high schools of Canton, Ill., and until 1876 was with his father in the lumber business. After 1876, he taught two terms of school and then began learning the printer's trade at Monticello, following it there until 1884, in which year he went to Taylorville, Ill., to become foreman of the Taylorville Republican, and so continued for ten years. In 1898 he came to De Land and in 1905 bought the De Land Tribune which he has since conducted, inaugurating a number of innovations and improvements, making it one of the leading weeklies of this section. A sound Republican, Mr. Murphy gives his own support and that of his paper to party candidates and measures, and is a forceful factor in politics.

In June, 1886, Mr. Murphy was married to Margaret Shackel, born at Rochester, Ill., a daughter of John and Susan Shackel, natives of Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy have the following children: Raymond, who is managing the office of the De Land Tribune; Leota, who is at home; Haidee, who is Mrs. Jesse T. Gray, of Champaign, Ill.; and Marian, who is at home. In religious faith Mr. Murphy is a Methodist. His fraternal connections are with the Knights of Pythias and Modern Woodmen of America. A fearless writer, Mr. Murphy has always espoused the cause of the people, and his organ may be counted upon to support those measures looking toward moral uplift and betterment of existing conditions.

MUSSULMAN, David, now living retired at La Place, was for a number of years one of the leading farmers of this section, and is still a heavy landowner of Piatt County. He was born in Tippecanoe County, Ind., January 15, 1846, a son of George Washington and Esther (Waggoner) Mussulman, natives of Shenandoah County, Va., and the vicinity of Dayton, Ohio. The parents were married in Ohio, but lived in Indiana until 1850 when they crossed the plains with teams to California, where the father died nine months after their arrival. Mrs. Mussulman lived in Indiana until 1867, when she moved to St. Clair County, Mo., and there was married (second) to Aaron Ulrey, a farmer.

While living in Indiana David Mussulman attended a back woods school where he was grounded in the rudiments of learning. He is the only survivor of four children born to his parents. When his mother moved to St. Clair County, Mo., he accompanied her, and resided there until 1874, when he came to Piatt County, and bought eighty acres in Cerro Gordo Township. This he operated for fourteen years, and then sold this farm and bought 160 acres of land four and one-half miles south of Milmine, that was partly improved, and had a shanty standing upon it. There was also an orchard, and other improvements, but Mr. Mussulman has erected all the present buildings, fenced the fields, put in tiling, and made the place thoroughly modern in every respect. Here he lived until November 10, 1913, when he rented his farm, and retired to La Place. Here he owns his handsome residence and seven city lots, and he and his wife are enjoying a well earned leisure.

While living in St. Clair County, Mo., Mr. Mussulman was married, March 17, 1870, to Susan Cripe, born in Carroll County, Ind., December 31, 1851, a daughter of Christian and Catherine (Replogle) Cripe, born near Dayton, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Mussulman became the parents of the following children: Dora, who is Mrs. John L. Shively of La Place, Ill.; Luther, who lives at Eagle Grove, Ia.; Ernest C., who also lives at Eagle Grove, Ia.; Anna, who is Mrs. Samuel Shively of Cerro Gordo Township; Grace, who is Mrs. George Benjamin Arnold of Cerro Gordo Township; and Chester W., who is running his father's farm.

The Church of the Brethren holds Mr. Mussulman's membership, and he has been one of its deacons for many years. In politics he is a Democrat, and while living in Cerro Gordo Township he served on the school board, was road commissioner and held other township offices, his neighbors placing trust in him and his ability to discharge the duties of public office as shown by his repeated return to them.

NEAL, Samuel, born in Maryland, came to Piatt County in 1846 and lived at Monticello until his death, in 1851. He was married to Margaret Painter, and they had twelve children, three of whom located in Piatt County, namely: John, Mattie, and Samuel. Mrs. Neal survived her husband until 1870, when she too passed away.

NOE, Joseph Reese, a highly respected citizen and very successful general farmer of Willow Branch Township, was born at Knoxville, Tenn., June 25, 1875, and is a son of William Sterling and Eliza J. (Dike) Noe, the former of whom was born May 10, 1838, at Morristown, Tenn., and the latter in the same state in January, 1840.

William Sterling Noe, who is an honored resident of Auburn, Ill., has passed safely through many experiences in his useful life of seventy-eight years, surviving the hardships of war and military imprisonment and for years afterward being an exponent of religious precepts. When a schoolboy of nineteen years he was drafted into the Confederate army, in the Civil War, in which he served about one year and was made a prisoner of war. He utilized his time during his prison days by applying himself to the study of medicine, and after his release secured a position with a doctor of medicine and thus was able to still further study, subsequently engaging in the practice of medicine in Tennessee for two years. Mr. Noe then entered the ministry of the Dunkard church, a religious body that at that time required no special course of study, and for sixteen years Mr. Noe preached Christian doctrine according to the Dunkard faith in Tennessee, and his ministry was everywhere welcomed. He then moved to Dayton, Ohio, where he preached for two years, coming then to Piatt County. Here he engaged in farming in Cerro Gordo Township in connection with preaching in the church near Cerro Gordo, and often he held services additionally in the schoolhouses. He remained in Piatt County for about fourteen years and then began to feel the weight of age and retired, purchasing a home property at Auburn, Ill., where he lives in comfort. In 1866 he was married to Eliza J. Dike, who was born in his own state and still survives and they became the parents of the following children: Mack, born in 1873, lives on a farm in Unity Township, Piatt County; Joseph Reese and Anna, twins, the latter of whom died in 1899; Tennie, born in 1877, died in 1908; Sarah, born in 1879, resides at St. Louis, Mo.; Mary, born in 1879, lives with her father; and Samuel, born in 1883, is an instructor in the Chicago University.

Joseph Reese Noe attended the public schools in Piatt County until sixteen years old and then worked on a farm for his father until he was twenty-one. After marriage he began farming for himself, renting eighty acres for three years, following which he moved to a farm of 120 acres, in Unity Township, on which he remained one year and then settled on his present place, a farm of 230 acres in Willow Branch Township, belonging to Herman B. Bauman of Milmine. Mr. Noe in his farming operations follows modern methods and does not seem to regret assuming the responsibility of cultivating so large a property, a love of the work and experienced judgment making his undertakings usually very successful.

In 1898 Mr. Noe was united in marriage with Fannie B. Myers, born at Bement, Ill., in December, 1877, a daughter of George W. and Susan (Lux) Myers, the latter of whom was born in Piatt County. The father of Mrs. Noe was born in Ohio and came to Piatt County when twenty years old, locating first on a farm in Willow Branch Township and later in Bement Township, where he died in 1910. Mr. and Mrs. Noe are active members of the Christian Church at Milmine, he being superintendent of the large Sunday school and a member of the church finance committee. Politically he is a Republican and fraternally a Mason and Odd Fellow, being a member of the auxiliary orders, the Eastern Star at Bement and the Rebekah at Milmine.

NOECKER, William, M. D., not only was one of the early physicians of Monticello, but inaugurated and carried on several very successful business enterprises, and always lent his assistance in forwarding the prosperity of the community in which he made his home for so many years of his useful life. He was born in Bucks County, Pa., in April, 1823, a son of John Noecker, also a native of Pennsylvania. When he was a young man, he went to Ohio and there he not only attended school, but taught in one to gain funds to pursue further the medical studies he had started by himself. After attending medical lectures, he entered the Columbus (Ohio) Medical College, from which he was graduated about 1853. That same year he came to Monticello, Ill., upon the invitation of Dr. P. K. Hull, one of the first practitioners of Piatt County, and here Dr. Noecker established himself in a general practice, in which he continued for many years.

While carrying on his practice, which was a large one, and spread over a wide territory, Dr. Noecker opened a drug store and carried it on for a long period. He also started a private banking institution, of which Otis Moore was his first cashier, being later succeeded by John Dighton. This bank was later organized as the First National Bank of Monticello, of which Dr. Noecker was president until his death, which occurred May 4, 1897. Mrs. Noecker retains an interest in this bank. Believing firmly in the future of Piatt County, Dr. Noecker proved his faith by investing in farm lands in

FETTER FAMILY OF PENNSYLVANIA--from The Press and Journal, Middletown, PA, 8-29-1979, "Our Keystone Families" by Schuyler C. Brossman

On September 10, 1731, Michael Fetter, Katrina Feter, Helena Feter, Johanna Fetter and another Katrina Feter, all above the age of 16 arrived at Philadelphia There were two children under the age of 16, Michael and Katrina. They arrived on the ship "Pennsylvania Merchant" commanded by John Stedman which came from Rotterdam by the way of Dover, England.

Michael Fetter bought 100 acres of land in Philadelphia County, PA on October 26, 1736. Michael Feather, Jun. bought 25 acres next to Michael Feather, Sen. in Alsace Twp., Philadelphia Co. (now Berks County) on June 10, 1749. On the same Warrantee Twp. Map of Alsace Two., Berks Co., the name appears as Fetter.

On March 21, 1768 Michael Feather bought 300 acres of land on Dunnings Creek in Bedford Co., about eight miles from present Bedford, PA. By the time of the Revolutionary War he owned additional land in Frankstown Twp., Bedford Co. Tax records indicate there were 189 acres in this tract, but the original warrant granted to Peter Van Bushkirk in 1762 was for 250 acres.

Michael built a grist mill on this property and there was a blockhouse type of fort located next to the mill called Fetter's Fort. At one time there were as many as 25 men able to bear arms in the fort. The site is now called the Vipond Estate and is located two miles west of Hollidaysburg, PA.

Michael and Catharine had seven boys and two girls: George, Michael, Jr., Daniel, Jacob, John, Peter, Samuel, Elizabeth and ______. After Michael Sr.'s death on the homestead on Dunnings Creek the property was sold to Jacob Fetters by the others: George, Michael, Jr., Daniel, John, Peter and Samuel as well as John Helms and Amos Edwards, the last two possible brothers-in-law.

By the early 1800's the children started moving west. Daniel and his wife Susanna (Shoup), daughter of Sebastian Shoup, and Peter and his wife Eve (Dibert), daughter of John Dibert, moved to Randolph Twp., Montgomery, Co. Ohio in 1806. Samuel and his wife Hannah (Ullery), daughter of John Ullery (Ulrich?) moved further west to Miami Co, Ohio in 1811. Michael Jr's. children lived in Lewis Co., Kentucky and Adams and Clinton Co., Ohio, when Michael Died in 1828.

George and 10 of his children moved to Stark Co., Ohio, in 1812. Two of George's sons, Jacob and peter, remained in Huntingdon co., PA, although Peter could have moved west later. Jacob died in 1815 in Antis Twop, just north of the city of Altoona, PA. He left 10 children, six of which were under age, the youngest Michael, only three months old.

Today there are still Fetters-Feters living in Bedford and Blair Co., PA as well as the cities of Altoona, Lewistown, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, PA. They are also found in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and parts west.

Thanks to Mr. George S. Fetters (#42) who sent this information along to us. He adds: "My father is still living in Lewistown, PA. He was born in Tyrone on 24 September 1903. I was able to go back seven generations in Blair Co. My grandparents, George Herbert and Alta (Glassco) are buried in Grandview Cemetery, Tyrone. His parents, George and Catharine (Dannley), as well as George's mother Mary (Sodders) Fetters are in the Birmingham Cemetery. Mary's husband Michael was only three months old when he lost his father, Jacob. Mike's grandfather put his land up for the maintenance of the grandchildren. George lived in Stark Co., Ohio, but still owned land next to John Coleman in Antis Twp. This George is the oldest son of Michael who had the grist mill and fort west of Hollidaysburg."

Name: Johan Michael FETTERS
Sex: M
Birth: 02 DEC 1727 in Freinheim, Bad Duerkheim, Rheinland-Pfalz, GY
Death: 1789 in Bedford, Co., PA
Note:

Occupation: Wheelwright
Tax records of the day give an insight into Michael's holdings before and after the war: the Bedford Township Taxables list for 1772 shows he owned 100 acres, twenty of these improved, He also owned two horses, and three cows. Eleven years later in 1783 he held 200 acres, two horses, three cows and four sheep. The next year he claimed two sections: the 200 acres and another of 170 acres. The big family house was on the 200 acre lot and held a household of ten: Michael; his wife, Catharine; and their eight children.
Frankstown Township records for 1779 show that he owned 189 acres, three horses and ten cows at Fetter's Fort. Five years later in 1784 he claimed the same acreage, but by 1788 the tax was assessed on only 170 acres, two horses, four cows and one grist mill for a full value of 222 pounds. State tax was 14 shillings and 8 pence, while county tax was half of that sum.Michael sold part of "Feather's Farm" to John Echis (Ickes) on November 21, 1785. John was from York county and settled on his land in Dutch Corner in 1787. A deed dated December 8, 1792, Deed Book G, page 47, Bedford county, confirmed title to the land and was signed by George Fetter, Daniel Fetter, and Catherine, widow of Michael FetterMichael died in 1789 at the age of 64 with no will. His wife gave the right of administration of the estate to three of her children: George Fetters; Michael Fetter, Jr; and Daniel Fetter when she signed a paper on December 8, 1789. In further legal action on December 10, the two older brothers: Jacob Fetter and John Fetter, agreed to the administration of the estate by the three others named above. That same day, Michael Fetter, Jr. relinquished his right leaving the estate adjustment in the hands of George and Daniel. Three months later, in March of 1790, the three youngest children were legally assigned guardians. Elizabeth chose her mother and her brother, Michael Fetter, Jr. since she was over 14. Peter chose John Hallem (Helms?) of Bedford County as his guardian as he was over 14. (We believe John Helms was his brother-in-law.) The youngest, Samuel, was assigned to the care of Michael Fetter, Jr. Jacob Fetter was able to purchase "Feather's Farm" for 180 pounds from the family members who had shared in the estate. Catherine (the widow), Michael Jr., George, Daniel, John and Samuel all of Huntingdon County, and Peter Fetter, John Helms and Amos Edwards of Bedford County sold the homestead on February 6, 1796. (Amos Edwards is believed to be the younger Elizabeth' s husband.) Both Peter Feather and Jacob Feather are listed in the Bedford Township Taxables List of 1796 The February Term, 1798 of the Huntingdon County Orphans Court recognized the petition of George and Daniel Fetter, administrators of Michael Fetter, late of Frankstown Twp, yeoman, deceased. The two administrators found a balance of 65 pounds, 17 shillings, 11 pence and half penny subject to distribution. Having had considerable expense and trouble they asked for allowance which had not been set by the register. The court granted distribution of $138.00 to the petitioners far their trouble and expense and confirmed the account

!Before her father wrote his will in 1779, Elizabeth had been married and had two daughters surving from that marriage: "The two daughters of my daughter, Elizabeth, shall have One Hundred Acres in Frankstown where their mother used to live and they shall pay for the land Thirty Pounds: their mother and step-father shall live unmolested on the land during their natural life and after their decease the two daughters of Elizabeth shall have it free if the Thirty pounds are paid." That marriage had ended, presumably with the death of the husband, and Elizabeth had remarried. According to a FETTERS researcher, this Elizabeth Cripe was the wife of Michael Fetters, Jr., who died 1828 in Lewis Co., KY, and she was the mother of all of his children. According to Fetters researchers, the widow of this Michael Fetters, Jr., was known to have been named "Elizabeth." According to them, they found that info in his will. Increasingly, it looks to be so. The Michael Fetters, Jr., said to be the husband of this Elizabeth served as guardian of his youngest brother (Samuel) after their father's death. The woman who Samuel Fetters married would have been a first cousin to Elizabeth Cripe (the daughter of Jacob Greib/Cripe & Elizabeth Ulrich).
If this Elizabeth Cripe/Michael Fetters, Jr., connection is correct, a descendant of this couple is Leslie Kozak, 1760 East Trails End Drive, Belfair, Washington 98528, phone 360-275-6594, e-mail JKozak@sincom.com

FETTER FAMILY OF PENNSYLVANIA--from The Press and Journal, Middletown, PA, 8-29-1979, "Our Keystone Families" by Schuyler C. Brossman

On September 10, 1731, Michael Fetter, Katrina Feter, Helena Feter, Johanna Fetter and another Katrina Feter, all above the age of 16 arrived at Philadelphia There were two children under the age of 16, Michael and Katrina. They arrived on the ship "Pennsylvania Merchant" commanded by John Stedman which came from Rotterdam by the way of Dover, England.

Michael Fetter bought 100 acres of land in Philadelphia County, PA on October 26, 1736. Michael Feather, Jun. bought 25 acres next to Michael Feather, Sen. in Alsace Twp., Philadelphia Co. (now Berks County) on June 10, 1749. On the same Warrantee Twp. Map of Alsace Two., Berks Co., the name appears as Fetter.

On March 21, 1768 Michael Feather bought 300 acres of land on Dunnings Creek in Bedford Co., about eight miles from present Bedford, PA. By the time of the Revolutionary War he owned additional land in Frankstown Twp., Bedford Co. Tax records indicate there were 189 acres in this tract, but the original warrant granted to Peter Van Bushkirk in 1762 was for 250 acres.

Michael built a grist mill on this property and there was a blockhouse type of fort located next to the mill called Fetter's Fort. At one time there were as many as 25 men able to bear arms in the fort. The site is now called the Vipond Estate and is located two miles west of Hollidaysburg, PA.

Michael and Catharine had seven boys and two girls: George, Michael, Jr., Daniel, Jacob, John, Peter, Samuel, Elizabeth and ______. After Michael Sr.'s death on the homestead on Dunnings Creek the property was sold to Jacob Fetters by the others: George, Michael, Jr., Daniel, John, Peter and Samuel as well as John Helms and Amos Edwards, the last two possible brothers-in-law.

By the early 1800's the children started moving west. Daniel and his wife Susanna (Shoup), daughter of Sebastian Shoup, and Peter and his wife Eve (Dibert), daughter of John Dibert, moved to Randolph Twp., Montgomery, Co. Ohio in 1806. Samuel and his wife Hannah (Ullery), daughter of John Ullery (Ulrich?) moved further west to Miami Co, Ohio in 1811. Michael Jr's. children lived in Lewis Co., Kentucky and Adams and Clinton Co., Ohio, when Michael Died in 1828.

Hannah
3.12.10.-

George and 10 of his children moved to Stark Co., Ohio, in 1812. Two of George's sons, Jacob and peter, remained in Huntingdon co., PA, although Peter could have moved west later. Jacob died in 1815 in Antis Twop, just north of the city of Altoona, PA. He left 10 children, six of which were under age, the youngest Michael, only three months old.

Today there are still Fetters-Feters living in Bedford and Blair Co., PA as well as the cities of Altoona, Lewistown, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, PA. They are also found in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and parts west.

Thanks to Mr. George E. Fetters ('42) who sent this information along to us. He adds: "My father is still living in Lewistown, PA. He was born in Tyrone on 24 September 1903. I was able to go back seven generations in Blair Co. My grandparents, George Herbert and Alta (Classco) are buried in Grandview Cemetery, Tyrone. His parents, George and Catharine (Dannley), as well as George's mother Mary (Sodders) Fetters are in the Birmingham Cemetery. Mary's husband Michael was only three months old when he lost his father, Jacob. Mike's grandfather put his land up for the maintenance of the grandchildren. George lived in Stark Co., Ohio, but still owned land next to John Coleman in Antis Twp. This George is the oldest son of Michael who had the grist mill and fort west of Hollidaysburg."

which the female names are to be cross indexed.

It has been my pleasure to serve as president of the Blair County Genealogical Society and to serve with such dedicated officers and hardworking committees this past year. New officers for 1982 will be elected at the October meeting. I'd like to wish them a fine, productive year and continued success in our young and growing society.

Sincerely,

Bert Bravin
President

Edward H. Malott, an employe of the Lake Erie shops, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home on West Sixth street, of strangulation of the bowels, aged 29 years. He was taken ill on Sunday last and whether or not his affliction was the result of a strain, is not known, but it is supposed that it resulted from lifting a stove. He leaves a wife and three children to survive him. The funeral will occur at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. J. H. Jackson. His sister, Mrs. Carter and husband of Wabash, are in the city, and his father, Thomas Malott, of Marion, and brothers, Frank of Lexington, Ky., Harry of Marion, and Charles, of Chicago, besides other relatives are expected in the city to-morrow to attend the funeral.

The remains can be viewed from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Sunday.

Clyde and Betty Mae (Pound) Bair

Although the Bair family has roots reaching into Ohio and northeastern Indiana, Clyde Bair (surname spelling was changed from Bear in 1860) was born in Minnesota in 1914, and returned to Indiana in 1933. He resided in the Leesburg area for several years and moved to Warsaw in 1938.

In February, 1939, he was married to Betty Mae Pound of the Oswego area. Betty was the oldest child of Merl and Jessie (Rosbrugh) Pound. Loren J. Pound, a brother, continues to reside on the "Family Farm," and a sister, Evelyn (Pound) Fawley is deceased. Betty is the granddaughter of Jacob H. Pound, whose half brother, John, owned and operated the grocery store and Post Office in Oswego. The building has subsequently been used as a museum for the Kosciusko County Historical Society.

Clyde and Betty Bair continued to reside in Warsaw where a son, Roger Allen, was born in 1942. In 1943, the family returned to the Oswego farm to aid in its operations, which was as so many others, affected by the war. After various employment in Warsaw, the Bair family moved into the town of Leesburg in 1950, where Clyde and Betty continue to reside. After establishing residence in Leesburg, Betty Bair was employed as secretary-treasurer for the Leesburg School. She continued in that position for twelve years, retiring in 1964.

ICE FISHING TRIP ENDS IN TRAGEDY

William Malott, 44, Drowned Sunday at Hawk Lake; Funeral Wednesday.

Despite the heroic efforts of two companions to effect his rescue, William Malott, age 44, a workman employed here on a federal relief project, was drowned early Sunday afternoon at Hawk lake where he broke through rotten ice while on a fishing expedition. The lake is adjacent to Lake Maxinkuckee, at Culver.

Malott, who resided at 15 East Second street, was in the company of Earl Kellar, 38, of 478 East Fifth street, and Henderson (Lefty) Sheets, 48, of 268 West Fifth street. Sheets escaped a similar fate when he managed to make his way to the shore after breaking through the ice.

Final rites for Malott were conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Drake funeral home with the Rev. Robert Ashman, First Brethren church pastor, in charge. Burial was in Corinth cemetery, four miles west of Mexico.

Were Leaving Lake

The Peru men had driven to the upstate lake early Sunday and had spent the morning fishing through the ice near another group of Peru men. After the second group left, the trio decided to return to Keller's car and come home or go to another lake to continue fishing. Although Keller indicated to his companions that the ice appeared to be unsafe, they continued.

About 150 feet from the lake shore the ice about Sheets, who was a few feet ahead of Malott, began to crack and he fell into the water just as Malott, the heavier of the two, went down into a five-foot depth. Sheets did not lose his presence of mind and slowly made his way in the icy water to the bank. Malott apparently was dazed and began to struggle.

"I knew it would be foolhardy for me to go out on the ice," Keller said, "and so I yelled to Malott to stop struggling and started to run to a nearby farmhouse. The farmer sensed what had happened and ran to meet me carrying a rope. In the meantime Sheets had tried to reach Malott with a pole, but it was impossible.

Slumps Under Water.

"We threw the rope and it struck immediately beside Malott, but apparently his strength was so sapped that he could not lift his arms to grasp it. A moment later his head slumped in the water with just the top part showing above the surface," Keller said.

Malott died in an upright position; his feet were buried in the mucky bottom. Both Sheets and Keller agreed that had not Malott spent his strength in useless struggles, he might have been removed from the shallow water safely. A pulmotor was rushed to the scene from Culver, but efforts to revive the stricken man were futile.

Aside from bruises on his arms and legs, received when he fought his way through the broken ice, Sheets did not suffer ill effects from his experience. Keller was only slightly wet.

Malott was born in Indianapolis on June 15, 1893, a son of the late Edward and Lavina Malott. He was united in marriage with Geneva Lunsford in 1920 and was a world war veteran. Surviving besides the widow are a daughter, Geraldine, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Eva Scott, Mexico, and Mrs. Howard Fincher, Peru.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH. C717

David Martin, aged about 65 years, a teamster in this city, died very suddenly Monday. While unloading lumber at the new ice house west of town, his eyes became glassy and his muscles rigid and he fell to the ground. His companions assisted him into the wagon and he revived for a few minutes, only to be attacked a second time on the way home. After arriving at his home on East Canal street he soon fainted again and died without a struggle. Doctors differ in their theories as to the cause of death, and as no post mortem examination was made the mystery will not be settled.

Loren and Jo Ann (Reed) Pound

Philip J. Pfund was born in Wurtenburg, Germany on May 16, 1815 and immigrated to America with his parents when four years of age. They settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania where Philip grew to maturity. He became a naturalized citizen in 1838 and some time later changed his ancestral name to Pound. He traveled to Montgomery County, Ohio in 1839, and there met and married Rosanna Martin who was a native of that state. He purchased 80 acres of land on the Troy Pike about seven miles north of Dayton, and resided there for a number of years.

Philip and Rosanna were the parents of three children, Mary C., John F., and Sarah Ellen. Rosanna died in 1853, and later Philip married Anna Wolf, while still living near Dayton. This marriage produced one son, Jacob H. Pound, grandfather of Loren J. Pound.

In 1859, Philip moved his family to Elkhart, Indiana where he purchased 100 acres of land near Goshen, Indiana.

In 1870, Philip sold his interest in Elkhart County and moved his family to Kosciusko County, purchasing 120 acres near Oswego on which he resided until his death in 1891. Philip was a good Republican, and it was said that he moved from Goshen to get away from the Democrats.

Ellen Pound, Philip's daughter, never married. She lived for a number of years on her own farm located three miles northeast of Warsaw.

John F. Pound served as trustee of Plain Township, and was postmaster and proprietor of the "John Pound Store" in Oswego for more than 30 years. John F. Pound was married to Sarah J. Denman and they were the parents of a son, P. Harold, and a daughter, Adria A. Harold married Flossa Davis, and in 1967 they deeded the John Pound Store building to the Kosciusko County Historical Society. Adria married William A. Orr, and they are the parents of Sarah Ellen, who married John E. Buhrt, and William F., who married Elizabeth "Betty" Lou Goshorn.

Jacob H. Pound married Nancy Ellen Bowman, and together they owned 147 acres one-quarter mile south of Oswego, where they lived for several years, and where Merl Pound was born in 1884. Upon Philip's death in 1891, Jacob H. Pound bought his brother and sister's share of 133 acres. At this time Jacob moved his family to the original farmhouse on the 133 acres. They rebuilt the house, built a scale barn which was used by neighbors for weighing grain, and also built new barns. These buildings are all in use today. The second son, Howard W. Pound, was born in 1896. Jacob and Nancy lived on the farm until some time around 1914, moving to Warsaw where Jacob died in 1937.

Merl Pound married Jessie Rosbrugh in 1911, and to this family were born: Betty Mae in 1916, Evelyn in 1921 (now deceased), and Loren J. in 1933. The farm by this time was 300 acres. His wife, Jessie, died in 1940. Merl Pound was active in community affairs and was musically inclined. He was a member of the Leesburg Silver Cornet Band. He had a rare sense of humor and enjoyed life to the fullest.

Howard W. Pound married Lillian Walton, and they resided in Chicago, Illinois and Louisville, Kentucky.

Betty Mae married Clyde Bair, and to this family was born a son, Roger Allen, who married Sally L. Albert. Clyde and Betty owned and operated Hull's Transfer Company in Warsaw for many years. Evelyn married Philip K. Fawley, and to this family was born a daughter, Nancy Ann. Evelyn was employed by the Wawasee Community Schools for many years as a bookkeeper, and Philip is currently head of the English department at Wawasee High School.

Loren J. Pound married Jo Ann Reed, and to this family were born Terrie Jo, Karen Kay, Linda Lee, and Jeffrey J. Terrie Jo married Stanley P. Trout, and they have one daughter, Laurie Jo; Karen Kay married Douglas J. Conley, and they have a son, Adam D. and a daughter, Keriann K.; Linda Lee married James L. Howard, and they have two daughters, Sara A. and Shawna L., and a son, Scott L.; and Jeffrey J. is unmarried.

Upon the death of his father, Merl Pound, Loren J. bought his sister's share of the 300 acres, and continues operating the farm and lives with his wife, Jo Ann, in the house built by his grandfather in the early 1900's. The farm has been in the Pound family for 115 years and received the Centennial Family Farm Award and is also recognized as a Hoosier Homestead Farm, 1836-1986

THE MORTUARY RECORD.

Jacob Martin, Oldest Pioneer, Dies in 94th Year

Jacob Martin, doubtless the oldest pioneer resident of Mishawaka, died Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock at the home of his son, Jacob Martin, jr. residing just north of the city. Death was due to a serious accident which befell Mr. Martin last Saturday, when in a fall he suffered a fractured thigh. His extreme age rendered recovery impossible.

Mr. Martin was born in Ohio, Nov. 8, 1821, and came to Mishawaka with his parents when he was nine years old. The family settled on the land on which the Orphan's Home is now situated. Mr. Martin engaged in the meat business for a time and was well known throughout the county.

He was twice married, his first wife being Margaret Sumstine, who died 17 years ago. In 1902 he married Mrs. Catherine Reynolds, who died three years later.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the home of his son. Rev. J. A. Hartman, of South Bend, officiated, and interment in city cemetery.
